

Library Club Plans Annual Fall Luncheon

With closing days of summer comes the return of club meetings, regular gatherings of women's organizations that have been on vacation since last May. The outstanding program of the year is that observed by the Klamath Falls Woman's Library club and the first meeting of the year will be held on Monday, September 11, at 1 o'clock in the afternoon at the Willard hotel. This will be the annual fall luncheon.

All members of the club as well as others interested in the activities of the Woman's Library club, are invited to attend the luncheon. The club is open to all women of the county who may obtain membership at the group's first meeting on the eleventh.

Luncheon chairman this fall is Mrs. J. Calvin Hunt. She will be assisted by Mrs. Godfrey C. Blohm, Mrs. V. J. Josephson, Mrs. Arnold L. Graiapp, Mrs. Leo N. Huls, Mrs. E. B. Redman and Mrs. W. A. Spangler. Reservations for the luncheon may be made by calling any member of this committee on or before Thursday, September 7.

Tables will reflect the fall flower theme and the head table will be decorated with miniature gardens under the direction of Mrs. Hugh O'Connor and Mrs. Scott McKendree, both of Merrill.

Mrs. Don J. Zumwalt, music chairman, will present special music from the Marine Barracks.

All women of the city are asked to remember that a special invitation is extended to them to attend the luncheon.

Eagle Activities

Two candidates were initiated at the regular meeting of the Eagles Auxiliary on Friday night, September 1.

The Lady Eagles club will meet Tuesday at 8 p. m. in the lower FOE hall with Elsie Heiman serving as hostess.

The Eagles auxiliary drum corps will appear at the democratic picnic to be held at Moore park on Sunday, September 3.

Next Saturday night at the auxiliary meeting, Mrs. Esther Hoover will be honored with a baby shower. Her son was born recently.

Past Madam Presidents night for the auxiliary will be on the first Friday in October and there will be an initiation of candidates.

Last Sunday the auxiliary officers and drum corps traveled to Bend. There the drum corps led a parade and later they initiated 14 candidates and installed their officers.

On September 17 the ladies of the auxiliary will be hostesses for the wives of visiting members of the Aerie at their meeting and entertainment and refreshments will be provided.

Children's Party

MALIN—Mrs. Ben Henzel, assisted by Mrs. Melvin Fitzpatrick, Klamath Falls, Mrs. Henry Vacknitz, Malin, and Mrs. Halbert Wilson, Merrill, entertained for a group of children at the attractive Henzel home north of Malin, Wednesday afternoon.
