

LION TALK PRESENTED AT LIONS MEET

Peter Rozendal, county officer, was guest speaker at the Tuesday meeting of the Lions club. Dr. Rozendal gave a talk on infantile paralysis and presented a few facts on the disease. The disease strikes in the summer or late fall and is most common in the temperate zone. About one-third of the cases result in paralysis, according to Rozendal. The most effective method of treating it is by the hot pack method. The chairman of the day was "Beachhunter" Owens and the speaker was Student Nurse Peck. Other members present were Mark Seal of Portland, Vincent and Les Thompson. New members introduced at the meeting were John Best and Rice.

During his engagement at the Armory tonight, Donahue will feature the "Rhythmaires," a singing group, and Vocalists Lynn Stevens and Dick Vance. Dancing tonight will be from 9 p. m. until 1 a. m.

WAVE RECRUITING REACHES NEW HIGH

Enlistment of WAVES in Oregon reached a new high mark for 1944 during the month of August, reports Recruiting Specialist Dan Schreiber of the Klamath Falls navy recruiting station, which handles WAVE applicants in this area.

Oregon is contributing a substantial part of the 4500 WAVES enlisted each month in the nation. Approximately 82,000 WAVES are now on duty, replacing many more than that number of trained men for service on fighting ships. Scores of Oregon WAVES have the top jobs in the various units and approximately 40 Oregon enlisted women have been promoted from the enlisted branch and have been selected for advanced training as officers and commissioned as officers. Eligible young women are urged to call at the local recruiting station for further information about the WAVES.
