The Dorris grammar school building was filled to record capacity when school opened for the fall term Tuesday, with 199 pupils enrolled. The total was increased to 213 Wednesday and more pupils are expected to enroll.

According to R. A. Matthews, principal, it is the largest enrollment in the history of the new school, although the enrollment reached 226 when the school was located in what is now the Evans apartments.

Room enrollment was as follows: First grade, Mrs. Augusta Stevenson, teacher, 39; second and third grade, Mrs. Junnita Campbell, 46; fourth and fifth grade, Irene Yokem, 60; sixth and seventh grade, Mrs. D. R. Grace, 45; eighth grade, R. A. Matthews, 23. Three more eighth grade pupils are expected to enroll Monday.

Last year's first day attendance was 168. The peak of 193 was reached two months later.

Principal Matthews said the heavy enrollment has brought about crowded conditions. He added that Mildred Grant, county superintendent of schools, is trying to hire another teacher for the school.
