Grid Contest Will Be Played In Klamath Falls Sept. 30 At Modoc Field

Willamette university's Navycats will come to Klamath Falls for a football game with Major Clyde Roberts Marine Barracks team on Saturday, September 30, according to tentative arrangements revealed today.

Major Roberts talked by telephone with Willamette officials yesterday. It was not decided whether the game will be played in the afternoon or evening, but it was tentatively set for September 30, the only open date on the Willamette schedule.

The Marine Barracks coach was busy today looking for more games for his squad, which has a lot of promising material and is already working out.

Klamath football fans are looking to the Marine Barracks team to help break up a football lull which will occur here early in the season because the Klamath high school schedule will take the Pelicans away from home most of the weekends in that period.

The Pelicans will be at Salem on September 29, the day before the Willamette-Marine game. Only one Pelican game is slated on the home field in the first six weeks of school here. That is the Grant game September 22.

Indicative of local support for the Marine Barracks team as well as the Pelicans, the Quarterback club directors have voted to enlarge the club's interests this year to include the marines. High school officials have indicated a cooperative spirit and, it is expected, the marine games can be arranged conveniently for Modoc field without interfering with the high school schedule.

"I've heard a lot about the football spirit in Klamath Falls," said Major Roberts today. "I know you fill your grandstands for the high school games, and we hope we can also attract good crowds to the marine games."

Willamette Only College Football Team in Oregon

SALEM, Ore., Sept. 8 (AP)—Oregon's only college football team—the Willamette Bearcats—are preparing for their opening game next Saturday against Whitman college at Walla Walla, Wash.

The 40 players on the squad are navy V-12 students. They practice football on their own time, while Chief Petty Officer Duke Trotter, former UCLA grid star who coaches Willamette, has to do his coaching on his own time, too.

For years one of the football kinspins among the independent northwest colleges, Willamette will have little competition this year. Willamette and Whitman are the only teams left in the Northwest conference, and they will play two games with each other. Two games with the University of Washington will complete the schedule.

The mythical northwest title should be settled by these teams, as Washington, Whitman and Willamette have the only college teams and they consist mostly of V-12 trainees.

The three teams play each other in a double round-robin schedule. Twenty-five players will make the trip to Walla Walla. The Willamette schedule: Sept. 9—Whitman at Walla Walla. Sept. 16—Whitman at Salem. Sept. 23—Washington at Seattle. Oct. 7—Washington at Portland.

Judges Can't Get Together On Philly Scrap

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 8 (AP)—Quite a few of the 11,588 folks who saw Ike Williams get a 10-round decision over Sammy Angott Wednesday night at Shibe park wondered today whether the officials who gave the Trenton, N. J. negro the nod were looking at the same fight.

Judge Lou Tres gave Williams four rounds, Angott five, and called one even. Judge Eddie Loughran, brother of Tommie Loughran, the unhittable ex-light heavyweight king, gave Williams six rounds, Angott three, and called one even.

But, so divergent were their views that they agreed on only two of the 10 rounds, each giving Williams the first and Angott the seventh. Tres gave the last three sessions to Angott, and Loughran gave the same three to Williams.

Under Pennsylvania's quaint boxing laws, the referee decides everything when the judges can't get together, so Matt Adgie's 6-4 ballot in Williams favor gave the Trenton 21-year-old star, who enters the army September 19, his 47th victory in 48 fights.

Oddly enough, Adgie agreed with each judge on five rounds, and disagreed with each on the other five.

No Wrestling Tonight

There will be no wrestling matches at the armory tonight, Promoter Mack Lillard announced today. The next matches are scheduled for Friday, September 15, and the card will be announced later.

Marine Mentor

Major Clyde C. Roberts, executive officer at the Marine Barracks, who will coach the marine football team. Major Roberts was head coach at Brown Military Academy in San Diego, and acted as line coach while playing guard with the Philadelphia marine grid eleven.

Rookie Hurler Cinch to Win 20 for Giants

NEW YORK, Sept. 8 (AP)—Bill Voiselle, 25-year-old New York Giant hurler, seems a cinch to become the first rookie pitcher to win 20 games in a season since Jim Turner and Lou Fette of the Boston Braves and Cliff Melton of the Giants did it in 1937.

The best Giant rookie pitcher since Christy Mathewson gained his 19th victory yesterday, 9-3, while holding the Braves to three hits.

Voiselle appears to have the edge on Ted Wilks, St. Louis Cardinal star as the outstanding rookie of the year. Wilks, with a much more powerful team behind him, has won 15 games.

The rubber-armed righthander leads the loop in innings pitched with 280. With at least five more starting assignments left, Voiselle should easily top the 300 mark, to threaten Burleigh Grimes' total of 331 in 1928, the best since Grover Alexander's 363 in 1920.

The six foot four workhorse is the first Giant pitcher in 20 years to beat the Brooklyn Dodgers six times in one season.

The hard working pitcher, a native of Ninety-Six, S. C., carries a little book, in which he enters practically everything he does on the pitching mound. He keeps a complete file on batters' weaknesses, strong points, etc. "I'd be lost without this book," he said.

Tigers Chose Indians As Dixie Trout Comes Through With 24th Win of Year 3-0

AMERICAN LEAGUE BACE AT A GLANCE
By The Associated Press

Team	W	L	Pct.	Behind	Games
New York	24	39	.386	—	21
St. Louis	24	39	.386	—	21
Detroit	23	40	.369	—	22
Boston	21	42	.334	3	21

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer
St. Louis was back on top of the American league today, tied with the New York Yankees, after three days in second place, but infield jitters and the onrushing Detroit Tigers gave Manager Luke Sewell no peace of mind.

Joe McCarthy's clan was due to open a cut throat series with the fourth place Boston Red Sox at Fenway Park today while St. Louis hoped to continue paving their "cousins" from Chicago whom they have drubbed 10 out of 14 starts.

Detroit's enforced idleness due to an open date in the schedule braked down their advance for at least 24 hours but the error column was the Brownies' newest menace. In the last seven games, 14 misplays have been registered against them, seven by the all-important second base combination of Vern Stephens and Don Gutteridge.

The Brownies almost missed their chance to tie the idle Yanks last night because of early-inning boots against Chicago. Three runs in the ninth inning, two off the bat of Mike Chartak who came through with a bases loaded single, turned the tide 5 to 4.

Tex Shirley, the third St. Louis hurler, was credited with his fifth win over Relieffer Gordy Maltzberger in a game played before 6455 Chicago fans, most of whom were cheering for the Browns.

Detroit pulled to within a single game of the deadlocked leaders on Dixie Trout's impressive three-hit shutout of Cleveland, 3-0, for his 24th victory. The eccentric righthander's record showed 28 complete games, six shutouts (tops in the American) for 297 innings of effort.

Roger Cramer stretched his amazing hit string to 24 safe blows in his last 44 at bats as the Tigers raked Jim Bagby for nine singles and a double in his seven-inning stay.

With each of the four contenders slated to play 21 more games, the schedule called for the Browns and Tigers each to appear at home 17 times, Boston 17 away and New York 19 on the road.

Although there were only two tilts listed in the American, the National presented an all-night program featured by St. Louis' 14th successive triumph over Chicago, 3-2. The Bruins had a 2-1 edge, with two out in the ninth and appeared to be on the way to routing the Cardinals jinx but couldn't make it. Don Johnson's error let the tying run in and Bob Chipman wild pitched the big one home.

Bill Voiselle capped his 19th as New York trimmed Boston, 9-3, with the help of Mel Ott's 28th homer and Ernie Lombardi's 9th. Ed Heusser bested Fritz Ostermuller to give Cincinnati a shade over Pittsburgh, 2-1, in the first game of their scrap for second place. The Phillies came from behind in the late innings to down the Dodgers, 7-5.

Tiger Hurling Ace

Dixie Trout, Tiger pitching star, who pulled the Detroit club up within one game of the leaders yesterday by pitching his sixth shutout of the season in blanking Cleveland 3-0. This was his 24th win of the year.

Seattle Bombers Open Home Grid Season Tonight

SEATTLE, Sept. 8 (AP)—It's Tutor vs. Tutored tonight as the Seattle Bombers open their home professional football season against the Los Angeles Mustangs in Sick's stadium.

Seattle Coach Dutch Clark mentored the Detroit Lions when Dan Barnhart, Los Angeles leader, was starring for the motor city eleven.

Clark said last night he would stand pat on his starting lineup of last Sunday's Portland clash. George Karamatic, ex-Gonzaga backfield plunger, may see action, although not yet in peak condition.

Beavers Win Twin Bill From Solons

Portland Slips Into Second Slot As Acorns Shut Out Seals 4-0 Behind Salvo

By The Associated Press
The Portland Beavers moved into the coast football loop's second place with a half game lead over San Francisco's Seals last night, sweeping a doubleheader with Sacramento, 3 to 2 and 13 to 11, as the Seals lost to Oakland, 4 to 0.

The Beavers took the seven inning opener, 3 to 2, with both teams being limited to seven hits. In the nightcap the squads unlimbered their bats for a total of 39 hits, Portland getting 21 off Dick Powers and Lou Penrose while the Solons hit Roy Helser, Duke Windsor and Marino Pieretti for 18, including two homers and four doubles.

Helser, Portland's starting pitcher, allowed seven runs and eight hits in one and two-thirds innings while Powers gave up 12 runs and 16 hits in the first five and one-third innings.

Oakland's Manuel Salvo won his 16th game of the season as he limited the Seals to five hits. San Francisco bobbled five times in the field.

Seattle and San Diego split. The Padres winning the opener, 2 to 1, in a tight pitching duel between Frankie Dasso and Seattle's Hal Turpin. San Diego led 5-2 in the ninth inning of the nightcap when the Rainiers scored four times on four hits and a walk to win, 6 to 5.

The Hollywood Stars knocked three pitchers out of the box with a 12 hit barrage that netted them a 7 to 3 win over league leading Los Angeles.

Defending Champion Upset In Broadmor Invitation Tourney

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo., Sept. 8 (AP)—Betty Jean Rucker, Spokane, Wash., loomed as favorite today to capture the Broadmor women's invitation golf meet after her defeat yesterday of Mrs. Murray Gose, 1942 and 1943 champion.

The Spokane girl won her quarter final match 8 and 7, matching men's par and smashing the women's par by five strokes on her out nine.

Miss Rucker meets Mary Agnes Wall of Menominee, Mich., today in a semi-final match. The other half of the play pits Phyllis Ott of Omaha against Lois Penn of Des Moines.

Mother Takes Care Of Signing Details For Young Rookie

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 8 (AP)—Granville Hammer, 17-year-old Richmond, Va., shortstop, is a member of the Philadelphia Phillies even if he didn't sign a contract. Because of his age, his mother came along to take care of the signing details.

Gold Dust Twins Best Old Man Par in Victory Open

DALLAS, Sept. 8 (AP)—The 200-odd golfers who plunked down their cash to play in the Texas victory open were warned by Lakewood Pro Larry Nabholz that par on the lengthened course would be a tough old bird to negotiate with. They found out the first day that Larry wasn't talking through his visor.

The initial 18 holes of the 72-hole $10,000 war bond tournament found just two fellows able to best regulation figures—Byron Nelson and Harold (Jug) McSpaden, who are in a bracket by themselves when it comes to victories and cash—eleven tournaments and almost $80,000 between them since January 1. Six titles and $36,500 have gone to Nelson.

Byron and Jug each romped in with a 69, two under par, in yesterday's play, leaving them three strokes ahead of anyone else in the field.

Tournament officials today will cut the list to 64 low scorers plus ties for 36 holes, these to enter the final 36 starting tomorrow.

Easing into second place where Amateurs Labron Harris of Oklahoma City and Cpl. Earl Stewart of Fort Worth army air field, each with a 72, while Ray Mangrum of Beverly Hills, Calif., and Denny Shute of Huntington, W. Va., pulled up a stroke back of the simon-pures.

Lieut. Ben Hogan of Fort Worth army air field, a pre-tournament favorite on the basis of three fine practice rounds in which he blistered par each time, had lake, fence, rough and putting trouble. He finished with a big 76.

Boots Home Twelve Winners In Four Days

LAUREL, Md., Sept. 8 (AP)—The current winning streak of Apprentice Jockey Leonard Bowers at the local track is the "hottest" since Bobby Permare rode five winners on each of three consecutive days at Tropical park last winter.

Bowers, a 17-year-old youngster from Boise, Ida., rode four winners on Monday, opening day of the meeting. He rode four more on Tuesday and added another four yesterday for a total of 12 in four days. His four winners yesterday were Fair Ann, Winsmelad, Smiling Lass and Ally Bai.

Grants Pass Begins Football Practice

GRANTS PASS, Sept. 8 (AP)—Suits were checked out to 36 football prospects this week as Coach Mel Johnson began high school grid practice.

While only two regulars from last year were on hand, Johnson expects 10 lettermen to turn out Monday when school starts. The team will learn a new system of play before the opening game with North Bend, September 22.

New Grid Coach To Guide Destiny Of Whitman Team

WALLA WALLA, Sept. 8 (AP)—Whitman builds a football team this fall almost from the bottom up, with a new coach at the helm, only two 1943 letterman football coaches, R. V. "Vic" Fortieske, on the sidelines.

Veteran of more than a quarter of a century tutoring major league players, Fortieske is on only as the college's director of athletics.

In his place, Ben Dobbs, former University of Maine assistant coach and more recent of the United States army until his official discharge, takes over. Dobbs no relation to All-American Glenn Dobbs of the second force football squad, has had professional football experience with six eastern teams. He was named an all-league end with the New York team of the American league.

His charges get their first under fire here Saturday against Willamette.

The schedule: Sept. 9—Willamette here. Sept. 16—Willamette at Salem. Sept. 23—Second Air Force at Boise. Sept. 30—Washington at Seattle. Oct. 14—Washington here.

Rumor Goes Round That Phillies Will Have New Manager

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 8 (AP)—The Philadelphia Record today reported yesterday that the Phillies will name a 1945 manager within a few days, but General Manager Herb Pennock declined to say whether Freddie Fitzsimmons will be retained or not.

Commenting on rumors that Bucky Harris may replace Fitzsimmons, the story quotes Pennock as saying:

"Absolutely nothing to be had talked to Bucky on several occasions recently. In fact, I had a chat with him only a few days ago, but it was strictly business conversation about other teams and other players in the league. . . . There is nothing in that managerial business."

"Fitz has done well with what he had," Pennock told the Record.

The Phillies are in last place in the National league, one game behind Brooklyn.
