

FIRST GRADE ENROLLMENT UP IN SCHOOLS

A small army of first graders appeared for enrollment on the opening day of school in the Malin elementary school when 53 boys and 44 girls were registered. The class beginning group in the Malin schools, the largest class in the district, is the Junior high school.

Enrollment in the Junior high school was 101, with 100 in the elementary school.

Anna Todd is acting principal of the grade building, succeeded by Mac Taylor as sixth grade teacher. All teaching positions were filled. It was expected Wednesday by A. E. principal of the high school.

Breakfast lunches have been served until after the potato harvest season, due to the next month, due to a cafeteria cook, and students must make other provision for meals.

Breakfasts were issued in the afternoon, but the turn-out of prospective players was many of the older boys will appear later for classes employed on farms.

Prospects are for a light season, Malin will enter competition in a football league is worked out.

New Pine Creek

Deaths of New Pine Creek happened to learn of the death by heart attack of John Gallagher on Aug. 30, Oakes, Calif., where he was working in a defense building airplanes for shipping since the beginning of the war.

Everyone knew him as a 58 year old man, most of his life here, he was born and raised. Five years ago he married Mrs. Bertha Lamb and for a number of years in residence now owned by Lawson. Around 10 or 15 years ago, his first wife died of heart attack and he then married Mrs. Emma Smith who was with him for three years. Eddie, Mrs. Lois Van, and Mrs. Thais Atkin, one son, Marion Smith was working with Pat at defense plant at Fair Oakes.

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Lavoy, Mr. and Mrs. Mark McEwen and Mrs. Bennie Benson spent Sunday and Monday at Irish and Taylor lakes. They were not successful in catching fish in those lakes so the men hiked to Lily lake where they caught several.

Cascade

Bears have become numerous in this vicinity. The reason is probably due to the ripening huckleberries. One young bear has been making his home near the Roy Temple home. He was seen in a tree one day last week.

Another huge bear crossed the track in front of a Southern Pacific motorcar.

Dewey Denounces New Deal; Sets Talk On Foreign Affairs

By JACK BELL

EN ROUTE WEST WITH DEWEY, Sept. 8 (AP)—A world peace built on a framework of international organization in which, small nations have a proportionate voice is expected to be urged tonight by Gov. Thomas E. Dewey at Louisville, Ky., in his second major presidential campaign address.

The republican nominee closed himself with advisers as his campaign train steamed toward politically doubtful Kentucky, after a ringing denunciation last night of what he charged was the plan of the "tired, exhausted, quarreling and bickering" new deal to keep men overly long in the armed forces to lessen unemployment at the war's end.

Asserting that President Roosevelt's administration is "afraid of America" and is "getting all set for another depression," Dewey told a cheering audience of about 13,000 persons in Philadelphia's convention hall that "with the winning of the war in sight there are two great overshadowing problems."

"First," he said, "the making and keeping of the peace of the world so that your children and my children shall not face this tragedy all over again."

"The other problem," he continued, "is whether we shall replace the tired and quarrelsome defeatism of the present administration with a fresh and vigorous government which believes in the future of the United States, and knows how to act on that belief."

Announcing he would devote tonight's speech before the closing session of the National Federation of Republican Women's clubs convention to foreign affairs problems, Dewey told the Philadelphia audience:

"I am deeply devoted to the principle that victory in this war shall mean victory for freedom and for the permanent peace of the world. Our place in a peaceful world can and will be made secure. But nothing on earth will make us secure unless we are strong, unless we are productive and unless we have faith in ourselves. . . . I have unlimited faith that the American people will choose that path next November."

Marines Take Toll of 13 Japs for Each Yank Slain

(Written by Staff Sergeant James E. Hague of Bridgeport, Conn., a marine corps combat correspondent, and distributed by The Associated Press)

GUAM—(Delayed)—In a midnight battle, ebbing from foxhole to foxhole under the weird light of flares, a small band of marines halted a "banzai" charge with grenades, bayonets and knives to exact a toll of 13 Japanese for each of the three marines who died.

The three marines were killed in the first moments of the battle. When other leathernecks shoved the Japanese back a few hours later, there were 39 enemy dead on the tiny battle ground.

First Lieutenant Donald S. Floyd, of Portland, Ore., and two other officers had led the 23 marines and one hospital corpsman make their home there with an aunt and uncle.

Harry Hill of Wicopee is foreman of the extra gang left vacant when LeMar resigned. He will have charge of the gang until a permanent foreman is assigned.
