DOUBLE DUTY DONE BY FIRE LADDIES

Doing double duty, the Klamath Falls fire department extinguished two fires on the same trip Monday afternoon. They were first called to the Lombard Motor company at 424 South Sixth where a gas tank in a car had caught on fire. Quick action with fire extinguishers by employees prevented any serious damage.

On the way back from the Lombard fire, the truck stopped at Seventh and Oak where firemen saw a Dodge pickup on fire and the men got that fire out before returning to the station.

Monday night a grass fire in the 1600 block on Eldorado brought out the fire department and scores of cars which were out driving in the late evening. There was no damage to property.

Six false alarms were answered Monday evening when excited citizens saw the fire on Hogback mountain. Two false alarms came in Tuesday morning.

City Police Warn Against Leaving Of Cars In Street

City police have asked that anyone having car trouble which forces them to leave their cars on the streets to take care of them as soon as possible.

When cars are left on the streets because of a flat tire or engine trouble, there is danger of the cars being stripped if they are not attended to promptly.

Return of Election Board Notice Urged

Persons who have received cards inviting them to be on the election board are urged to return them immediately to the county clerk's office.

It will be taken for granted that those who do not send word of acceptance within the next few days are not going to serve, County Clerk Mae K. Short asserted today.
