

By Nadine Palmerton

Barbara Sellers Weds Lieut. Homan

Before the altar of St. Paul's Episcopal church at eight o'clock Sunday evening, September 9, Barbara Elizabeth Sellers, daughter of Mr. Merrill Sellers and the late Mr. Sellers, became the bride of Lt. (jg) William Tracy Homan Jr., United States navy, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Tracy Homan of Dearborn, Michigan.

White gladioli were used on the altar and with palms and the candles completed the decor of the church. The Rev. Frederick C. Wissenbach read the ring ceremony. Just before the bride and groom were joined in matrimony, Mrs. Raymond Cooney played incidental organ music. Lt. H. O. Torgerson sang Schubert's "Ave Maria" and "The Rose Tree."

The bride, given in marriage by Mr. Byron Teed, an old friend of the family, wore a traditional white satin ensemble with lace insets at the neck and the shoulder puff of long sleeves. Her full skirt was in a court train and her veil of illusion net was over a Juliette cap of net and satin. She carried a white bouquet with a single white carnation from which fell a cascade of white satin streamers.

The new Mrs. Homan wore a single strand of pearls, gift of the groom, and for "something old" a gold brooch of her mother's, and for "something borrowed" Mrs. George Allen's prayer book, and the bride was a single blue garter.

Little Thirza Goekner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Goekner, was the flower girl. Her frock was of pale pink and she carried a nosegay. Mrs. Donest was the bride's only attendant and she wore an ice blue satin gown, the floor length marquisette skirt trimmed with narrow bands of the blue. Her flowers were pink and white carnations.

The best man was Ensign George Kriesse of Dearborn, Michigan, and ushers were Lt. John Sinak and Lt. Frank Lynnihan.

The bridal party left the church to the strains of the "Swan Song" and received their guests at a reception in the reception room.

At the reception the bride and groom cut their beautifully decorated wedding cake which was served by Mrs. William C. Caw and Dorothy O'Sullivan, residing at the punch table. Mrs. Frank D. Moynihan, with Hunziker, Virginia Morin and Mary Trulove.

Mrs. Sellers received with her daughter at the reception. She wore a black crepe gown with a blue yoke with gold trim and a matching black hat. Her flowers were red rosebuds.

Lt. Homan is stationed at the Klamath naval air station. He attended Edison School of Technology at Dearborn. He received his wings at Pensacola, Florida and has had 14 months of overseas duty. Mrs. Homan has lived in Klamath Falls for a number of years and attended school at Northwestern in Portland, Lt. and Mrs. Homan are now at home in the Evans apartments.

Lioness Meeting

Mrs. A. P. Heup presided over the first meeting of the Lioness club on Monday at a meeting held in the library club room.

Contract bridge was played after the business meeting with high score going to Mrs. Gene Hooker. Winner of the guest prize was Mrs. H. A. Wheeler.

Refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. Vernon Moore, Mrs. A. P. Heup, Mrs. Clarence Humble and Mrs. Lester Finley.

Tables were decorated with small bowls filled with roses and candles placed on each table.

St. Paul's

The St. Paul's Women's auxiliary will hold its first meeting of the year on Thursday, September 21, at the parish house.

The executive committee, consisting of Mrs. Raymond Reeves, Mrs. Lane Warren, Mrs. Roy Lee, Mrs. Gaylord Upington, Mrs. Fay Catlin, Mrs. Heber Radcliffe, Mrs. Frederick Wissenbach, and Mrs. George Rogers, will be in charge.

The business meeting will begin promptly at 2 o'clock. The tea hour will be from 3 until 5 o'clock, at which time all the women of the parish are invited.

Miss Barbara Sellers was married to Lieutenant William Homan, stationed at the Klamath naval air station, in a ceremony read last weekend at the Episcopal church.

Kitchen Shower

Pink and green was the color scheme for the kitchen shower given by Phyllis Foster last Saturday for Miss Virginia Bubb, who will marry Robert David Payne, of the U. S. army medical corps, Sunday, September 24.

Pink carnations and green napkins decorated the table, and ice cream and pink and green divinity were served.

Gifts were placed at the foot of a life-sized doll, made from a mop, a sieve, two scrub brushes and several other kitchen articles.

Guests at the party were Mrs. J. B. Foster, Mrs. E. M. Bubb, Mrs. Charles Martin, Mrs. Guy Merrill, Pat Shaw, Helen Moore, Rosemary Johnson, Carolyn Collier, Barbara Johnson, Dodo Ellingson, Merlin Albrecht, Janice Bubb, Mary Jane Drake, Phyllis Collier, Betty Rea Martin, Donna Sproat, Betty Merrill, Virginia Bubb and Mrs. B. B. Blomquist.

Shower Hostesses

Complimenting Mrs. Fred Goeller, a lovely shower was given on Tuesday evening at the Arthur Moore home, 935 Neweastle, when Mrs. Moore and Mrs. Lawrence Clockson presided as hostesses to a group of the honored guest's friends.

Arrangements of sweet peas and rosebuds were used on the mantle and on the table. Games were followed by dessert and the opening of the prettily wrapped packages.

Those invited were Mrs. Goeller, Mrs. Edward Neese, Mrs. John Hawkins, Mrs. Innis Roberts, Mrs. Tom J. Orr, Mrs. Harold Palmer, Mrs. Fred Goodwin, Mrs. Lawrence Rolph, Mrs. S. A. Mushen, Mrs. Howard Dixon, Mrs. Howard Pernel, Mrs. Carol Colvin, Mrs. Wallace Uerlings, Mrs. Norman Fraley, Mrs. Charles DuFour, Mrs. Eugene Bailey and Mrs. Hans Norland.

Junior Hostess Activities

Above are shots taken at various affairs at which Junior Hostesses have participated in during the past summer. Perhaps the most enjoyable of these have been the dances given by the Elks, the American Legion, and those given at the Marine Barracks.

At center is Kay Borscher, who was elected president of the group at a meeting held this week.

Besides being hostesses at various dances, the girls have given a picnic and are now doing work at the service center.

Pictures by Marine Photographer, Wesley Guderian and Kennell-Ellis.

Junior Hostesses Elect Officers

Junior Hostesses this last week completed formal organization plans by electing officers and appointing an advisory board to take charge of their activities.

Kay Borscher was elected president of the group at the meeting held Wednesday night. Vice president is Helen Largent, and Christina Demetrakos was elected as secretary-treasurer for the group.

Mrs. John Schubert will continue as advisor for the group, a position she has held since the girls were first organized last spring. Also on the advisory committee are Mrs. Neal Stewart and Elenora Weatherford.

Squad leaders elected were Dannie Hall, Mickie Baile, Karen Hardin and Virginia Tyrell.

This group will take over hostess positions at the Commando center for the time being and girls are being asked to serve for one night a week at the center.

Since last spring, when the group first organized, the girls have been hostesses at numerous dances given at the Elks club for servicemen, and at dances given at the Marine Barracks. The Legion hall has also been the scene of dances for servicemen with Junior Hostesses assisting, and recent Monday nights have been spent by the girls at the Legion hall giving dancing lessons to marines from the Barracks.

The girls have also given a picnic at Moore park for marines and individuals have appeared as hostesses at many other small parties and picnics.

Monday night the girls will go to the Klamath naval air station where the sailors there are giving a dance.

Executive Meeting

Mrs. Raymond Reeves was hostess at her home on Lakeshore drive on Wednesday afternoon for the executive committee of St. Paul's Women's auxiliary.

Luncheon was served at 1 o'clock from a beautifully appointed table. Plans for the forthcoming meeting to be held on Thursday, September 21, were discussed.

Those attending were Mrs. Lane Warren, Mrs. Roy Lee, Mrs. Gaylord Upington, Mrs. Frederick Wissenbach, Mrs. Fay Catlin, Mrs. Heber Radcliffe, Mrs. George Rogers, and the hostess, Mrs. Reeves.

Among the recipients of scholarships for the coming year at the University of Oregon is Jane Gordon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Gordon of Malin. A sophomore this year, Miss Gordon also received a scholarship for her freshmen year at the university. She is a graduate of Sequoia Union high school at Redwood City, California, where she received awards for scholarship and student-body activities.

Soroptimists

An interesting talk by Alfred D. Collier brought the plans for the proposed Veterans' Memorial park to the attention of the Soroptimist club at its Thursday luncheon meeting. Mrs. Rose Poole, also a member of the planning commission, introduced Mr. Collier, who spoke of the planning board's desire to increase the beauty of highway approaches to Klamath Falls, which has an ideal mountain setting.

He gave the members a picture of what the future tourist trade, impressed by the city's appearance, would mean to Klamath Falls, and the very desirable asset of a park within walking distance for local inhabitants. Mr. Collier said the proposed site for the Veterans' Memorial park is the water front on Link river and Lake Ewauna, southeast of Main street, an ideal location for this design.

Miss Ebba Wicks, of Sheldon Brumbaugh's office, also was an interesting visitor.

Theta Rho

A special guest at the regular meeting of Theta Rho on Monday evening, September 11, was Mrs. Ethel Bailey, president of the Rebekah assembly of Oregon. The meeting, held in the IOOF hall was called to order at 7 p. m. by the president, Clara Redkey, who made a speech of welcome and introduced Mrs. Bailey. The officers of Theta Rho presented a very effective flower drill, in the course of which Mrs. Bailey was given a beautiful bouquet from the club, and Margaret Blair also presented her with a gift from the club.

A number of Rebekah sisters were present for the meeting; the president gave a talk upon the good of the order, and short talks were given by several others.

Karlene Schubert Is Saturday Bride

Miss Karlene Schubert, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Schubert of 403 Lincoln, and Fred Orin McNaught Jr., USMC, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred O. McNaught of Santa Ana, California, were married at the home of the bride on Saturday evening, September 9, before a double bay window banked with peach gladioli and tall candelabra.

The Reverend Howard Hutchins read the ceremony by the light of the tall white candles.

Sojourners

Sojourners and their guests met at the Willard hotel for a no-hostess luncheon and bridge on Wednesday, September 13. Following the business meeting which was conducted by Mrs. Matt Finnigan, president, bridge and pinochle were played. The prizes in defense stamps were awarded to Mrs. Ben Gibson, Mrs. K. M. Moty and Mrs. A. J. Lambert.

Mrs. C. D. Ough was named historian of the club.

Mrs. Walter Bradley announced that she and her family would leave Klamath Falls to make their home in Salem.

It was reported that the hours spent at the Red Cross by Sojourners numbered 215, commando hours, 35, and hours at the ration board, 10.

Guests for the afternoon included Mrs. J. LaMour, Mrs. E. McAtee, who is visiting in the city from Boise, Idaho, Mrs. C. H. Johnston and Mrs. E. H. Kellogg.

Mrs. John Monahan became a member of Sojourners at this meeting.

Hostesses for the next meeting on September 27 will be Mrs. Guy Harmon and Mrs. E. D. Hamacher.

All newcomers to Klamath Falls are cordially invited to attend the Sojourners club which meets on the second and fourth Wednesday of each month.

Miss Karlene Schubert became the bride of Corporal Fred McNaught, USMC, in a ceremony read at the home of her parents last Saturday evening.

Complimentea

Mrs. Howard Holliday, the former Barbara Loosley, was complimented Tuesday evening with a glassware shower held in the Elk's lodge lounge. Hostess at the affair was Letty Linman.

Guests for the evening were Mrs. Lee Holliday, Mrs. E. K. Loosley, Mrs. Jack Linman, Mrs. Larry Ray, Mary Ellen Wright, Mary Ann Grafton, Carmen Stockstill, Margie Palmerton, Josephine Thornton, Dorothy Riggs, Christina Demetrakos, Virginia Leslie, Jean Ostendorf, Virginia Turnbow, Nadine Palmerton and Johanne Seimens.

Mrs. W. Montelius of Klamath Falls has had as her house guests recently, Mrs. A. O. McCloughlin, acting member of the Auxiliary club of Oakland, Mrs. Isabelle Spence of New York, daughter of the late Will Spence, and Mrs. Flora Luce of Reno, whose son was formerly the general manager for the Pacific Fruit corporation in Klamath Falls.

Annual Tea

The League of Women Voters will hold their annual membership tea in the library club rooms this coming Tuesday, September 10.

Mrs. George Rogers is the tea chairman.

Special guests at the affair will be Mrs. Ralph W. Rasmusson, state president of the league from Portland.

Also present will be Mrs. George H. Engles of Mill Valley, California, one of the national board members of the organization.