Can You Say "Thanks?"

By EARL WHITLOCK

Do you have an observing eye and an ear on yourself next time you say "Thank you" to someone? Does the phrase ring in your ear when you read a newspaper? Do you say "Thank you" to someone who has done a little good for you? Do you say "Thank you" to someone who has done a little good for you? Do you say "Thank you" to someone who has done a little good for you?

Do you say "Thank you" to someone who has done a little good for you? Do you say "Thank you" to someone who has done a little good for you? Do you say "Thank you" to someone who has done a little good for you?

Next Monday—Mr. Whitlock will comment on "On Being Right."

Romance

TULELAKE—Three romances blossomed in one Tulelake family within a few days when Mrs. Oris Davis, Wappapello, Missouri, became the bride of Mr. Charles A. Maharry, Tulelake. The bride came west several weeks ago to spend some time at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Hodges, Merrill. The wedding was an event of August 29, in Reno, with Eva Maharry and Veda Maharry, daughters of the groom, witnessing the ceremony. On September 2, a double wedding ceremony united Eva Maharry and Private Thomas McMacken, and Veda Maharry and James Patrick in marriage. Private McMacken is a member of the military guard at the prisoner of war camp, and Mr. Patrick is the son of L. E. Patrick, Tulelake.

A family dinner honored the brides and grooms at the family home last weekend, with places marked for Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Maharry and family, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Maharry, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Maharry, Mr. and Mrs. James Patrick, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Patrick and James A. Patrick Sr., grandfather of one of the grooms, who is a pioneer Tulelake resident.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Maharry were honored a few days after their marriage, when a group of friends of the Tulelake Community Presbyterian church arrived to welcome them and to bring a gift for their home.

The three brides are to be guests of honor at a shower next week.
