

CONCENTRATION OF INDUSTRY HIT

to independent enterprises upon terms assuring purchasers of a reasonable opportunity for profit. Talking of pending anti-trust action charging rate agreements among western railroads, Berge said there was a "campaign underway to have the public believe that the railroads are not subject to the anti-trust laws and that the allegations... relate to matters which are all subject to interstate commerce commission regulation." "If railroads act collusively in the initiation of rates," he said, "or through agreements bring organized coercion on particular railroads in regard to their rates or other practices, then the anti-trust laws apply just as they do to any other field of business." The sun's diameter is 109.1 times the diameter of our earth.

Sept. 21 (AP)—The trend of industrial concentration must be reversed in conversion period. Assistant Attorney General Wendell said here yesterday. He said he had prepared, he said in a speech before the Seattle Association, "to use all the means of the anti-trust laws to keep the channels of commerce free for new enterprises during the postwar period." Government-financed war and surplus materials, he said, should be "made available

OUR MEN AND WOMEN IN SERVICE

AWARDED PURPLE HEART—Staff Sgt. Reuben Talbot stationed in Italy, has sent home to his parents for safekeeping the Purple Heart, awarded him earlier this year. Talbot was wounded in action last January. Sgt. Talbot has been in Italy 20 months and has been all through the Italian campaign. He enlisted in the army March, 1941, and received his basic training at Fort Knox, Ky. He was then sent to Georgia and the following year went overseas, first to North Africa and then Italy. Talbot, the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Talbot of Rt. 3, Box 285, attended KUHS here and was employed in Klamath Falls prior to his enlistment in the armed services. Any friends who would like to write him can secure his address by phoning 7918.

HONORED—Pvt. Elaine W. Mock of the WAC, daughter of Mrs. Kenneth McLeod of Klamath Falls, was awarded Good Conduct Medal, according to word from England, where she is stationed. Pvt. Mock sings in the choir at her field headquarters.

Mr. and Mrs. L. O. Hunter of 4783 Climax, have received a letter from their son, PFC Melvin Hunter, that his division, the 91st of the American fifth army was the first to reach the Arno river and the first to enter the southern outskirts of Pisa. The 91st arrived overseas in April at Oran, Africa, and undertook vigorous training. The group saw action at Anzio and in the break of the Gustav line north of Rome to Leghorn. There are several Klamath Falls boys with the 91st division in Italy, according to PFC Hunter, who is an MP stationed in Italy.

DOUGLAS ARMY AIR FIELD, Ariz.—A graduate of air transport command pilot training class 44-5, Wilbur J. Arnold, of 4645 Peck drive, Klamath Falls, Ore., today received his wings and appointment as a flight officer in the army air forces.

F/O Arnold, the son of William Arnold, graduated from Crook county high school. Before entering military service, he was employed as a civilian flight instructor. F/O Arnold will be assigned to the ferrying division of air transport command. He is married and has three children.

FORT BENNING, Georgia—Pvt. Jonathan Jackson, husband of Mrs. Rose Marie Jackson of Box 844, Chiloquin, Ore., has won the right to wear wings and boots of the United States army paratrooper. He has completed four weeks of jump training, during which time he made five jumps, the last a tactical jump at night involving a combat problem on landing.

Flashes of Life

By The Associated Press NO IDEAS? HARTFORD, Conn.—Whether or not the pace was too swift, Frederick Lewis, and Mrs. M. Haney, whose wife, Bessie, lives at 337 Martin avenue, and Herbert D. Perkins, whose wife, Bessie, lives at 831 Upham.

Poe Valley Dale Brewster was a caller here one day this week from Klamath Falls. He is employed by the Union Oil company. Word was received here recently from Ben Nork of Portland that he expects to be released from the hospital soon and be able to come home.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Glover and grandson, Ralph, were callers here Sunday. Chet Barton was rounding up some cattle Sunday. It's been so freezing here nights for a week or so that it just about finished the gardens and spuds. The Holmes boys are having some threshing done this week on the Archie Roberts place. Glen Kester sold some of his potatoes to the McKaig company this week.

Mr. Haines hauled some wood from Klamath Falls recently. Mr. and Mrs. Joe Nork and John were callers in Langell Valley at the Jim Glover ranch Tuesday. Pauline Roberts is driving the bus this term. Lewis Moore is helping Eddie Roberts with hay this week. Wilbur Reiling has his new cellar almost finished. Vic Brown was a caller at the Buck Rodgers home Thursday. He and Buck are in partnership on a combine thresher. Buck bought out Ray Holmes' share in it.

Mr. McLane and son moved the well derrick from here to Klamath Falls Friday. They are recently from Oklahoma and are employed by the Vatcher Brothers as well drillers. Joe and John Nork are building a pump house this week. Mr. and Mrs. Losson Ross were shoppers in Klamath Falls Saturday. A giant squash, grown in the Victory garden of Mrs. A. Field, is on display at the chamber of commerce.

Weighing 282 pounds and measuring 26 inches, the squash is of an Italian variety which ordinarily grows to about 10 or 12 inches. NEW DISEASE WEAPON. A new weapon for fighting diseases caused by certain streptococci, such as septic sore throat, one form of heart disease, erysipelas and rheumatic fever, may come from an anti-enzyme substance in beef sweetbreads and soybeans.

NOT NAUGHTY, JUST HARD UP BOULDER, Colo.—Yes, the Dodo, University of Colorado humor magazine, has lost its second-class mailing privileges, Ralph Cressman, head of the College of Journalism, admits—but not because of questionable humor. The understaffed circulation department simply forgot to put the last issue in the mail, so the mailing permit was lost. And Dodo hasn't the $10 needed for a new permit.

This is a spark plug

Your car yells "gimme a light" about 5400 times a minute. And the spark plugs must deliver a "light" right on the anlit instant.

Here's what happens.

When the plugs flick a spark into compressed mixture of gasoline and air in the cylinders... ZOWIE! There's a white hot explosion. The only things movable in the cylinders are the pistons. So down they go, turning the crankshaft, which turns the gears, which turn the wheels, which roll you to wherever you are going.

Those 5400 explosions per minute give spark plugs a Turkish Bath that boils the sparking ambition clear out of 'em after about 10,000 miles.

That's bad, because weakened plugs waste the gasoline they're supposed to explode. It's like pouring precious gasoline into the gutter!

Here's where your friends at Shell come to the rescue. They'll clean your spark plugs, or sell you new ones if the old ones have cracked (as they sometimes do). And they'll also Shellubricate your entire car for you.

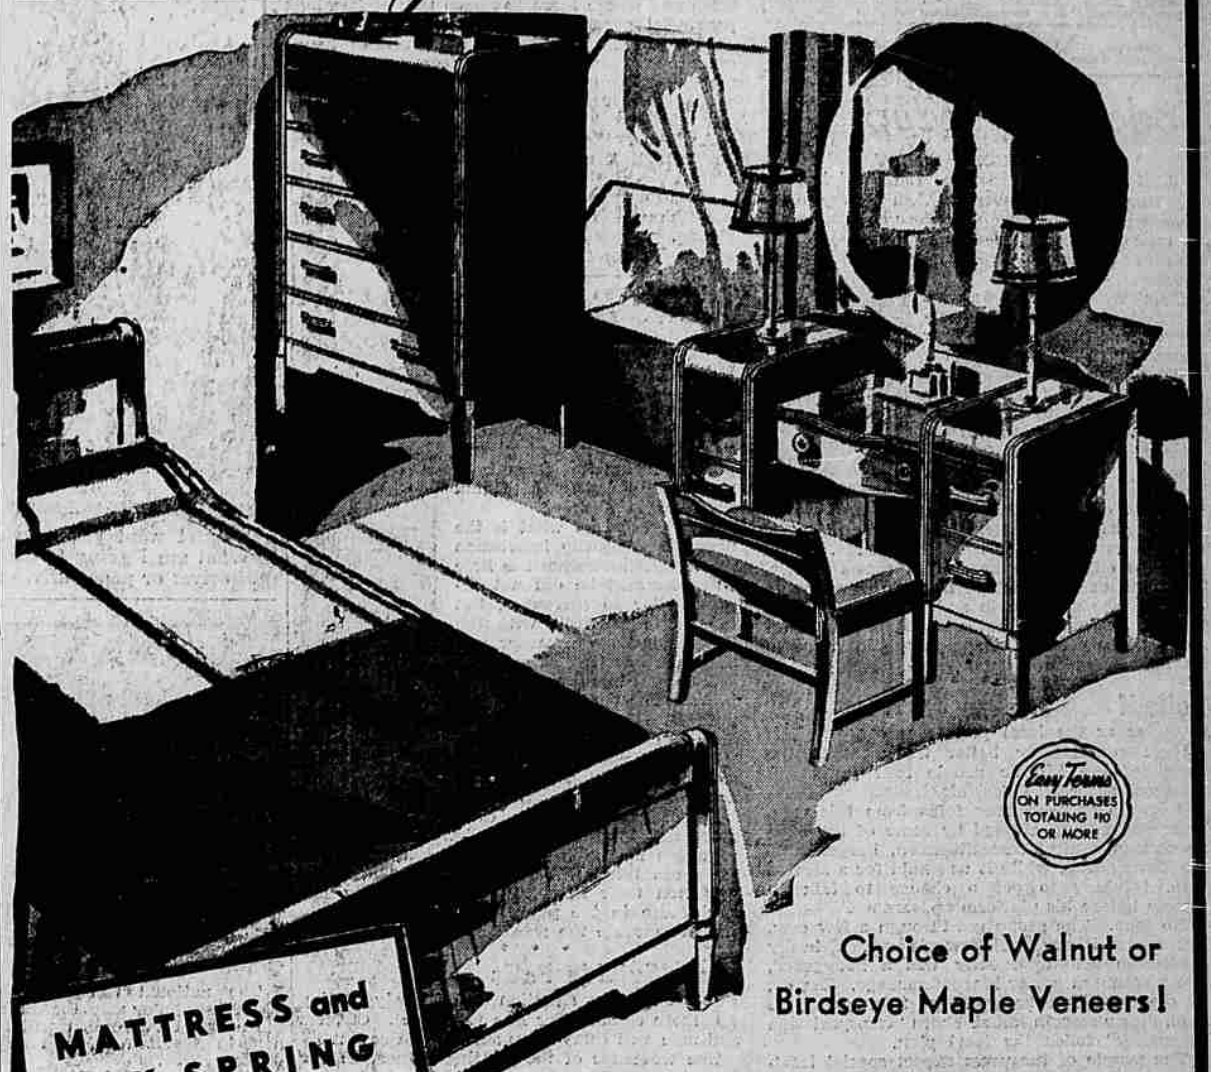

You need SHELLUBRICATION because it protects your car against Wartime Stop and Go wear—the villain that sends 10,000 cars to junk yards every week!

FOR THE LADIES... Shell has a FREE and amusing little booklet, Alice in Motorland. It's the Facts of Life about your car. Tells you how to keep it from going haywire before its time. Get your copy at any Shell pump. SHELL OIL COMPANY, Incorporated
