BESWICK AUTO WRECK KILLS LESTER CURRY

Lester Earl Curry, 32, veteran of World War 2, was killed late Tuesday when a car operated by Bruce Hampe, Klamath Falls, overturned one-half mile north of Beswick, on the Klamath river southwest of here. Curry made his home with a brother, Howard, 729 Lakeshore drive. He had recently been discharged from the service due to ill health.

According to information received here, Howard Curry was hunting in northern California when his car broke down. He called into Klamath Falls for parts for the machine. When the accident occurred Hampe and Lester Curry were en route home after aiding Howard.

The machine overturned and rolled down a steep embankment, pinning both Hampe and Curry beneath the car. Hampe extricated himself and went for help, and on returning to the car found Curry dead.

Lester Curry was a native of Meridian, Miss., and in addition to his brother Howard, is survived by his father, Daniel O. Curry of Daleville, Miss.; two other brothers, Cecil and William, both in U. S. Army service, and one sister, Mrs. Vera Ida Darling of Gulfport, Miss. Whitlock's is in charge of arrangements.

PEANUT SHELL CORK
U. S. scientists have developed a substitute for cork, made from peanut shells, which should make America independent of foreign sources and put more money into the pockets of U. S. peanut growers.

OLD A TICKETS EXPIRE TONIGHT

The old "A-12" gasoline coupons expire at midnight tonight, with six "A-13" stamps becoming valid immediately afterward.

OPA officials urged motorists to endorse the new coupons—all mailed except for a few books for laggard applicants—immediately.

The six "A-13" stamps, each worth four gallons, will be valid through December 21, providing the same amount of gasoline as the old ration which had eight three-gallon coupons for a three-month period.
