Oma Knocked Out But Gets Cheers

Prom Fight FansNEW YORK, Sept. 23 (P) — Frank Czajewski, better known as Lee Oma, the Detroit heavy-weight, h ad his thirteenth "knocked out by" in the record books today—but he also wzs getting a lot of cheers.
The 193-pounder, filling in as a substitute on two days' no-tice, was flattened in the eighth round last night by Tami Mau-rieuuo, the No. 2 ranking civil-ian heavy, before a crowd of 10.496 which paid $24,280 to get into Madison Square Gar-den. Tami scaled 194.
Mauriello was a prohibitive favorite over Oma, but the Bronx boy took a good lacing from the Michigan man before landing a.left hook to the chin which ended the proceedings. At the end of seven rounds Oma had a long lead on points and appeared on his way to turning in a startling upset — but intead he was upset for the fatal 10.

Urged to Attend Meeting Monday

A big attendance at Monday's Quarterback club meeting at the Willard hotel was urged today by Malcolm Epley, club president, who pointed out that any male football fan in Klam-ath is welcome to join the club.

"Now is the time to show the Klamath Pelican team and the coaching staff that we are for them." said Epley, in refer-ence to Friday night's Pelican defeat by Grant. "Every Quar-terbacker who has already joined the club is asked to be present, and bring at least one more football fan with him."

Coach Marble Cook of the Pelicans will give his observa-tions on Friday's game, and Coach Clyde Roberts of the Marine Barracks team will give the advance dope on the game with Willamette here next Saturday.
