and cut them off from retreat into Germany by way of the Brenner pass.

THE political war on the home front has taken a new turn. In his Saturday night speech, FDR came down completely from the high, remote Olympian heights upon which he has been sitting as the commander-in-chief who doesn't want the office and is only willing to serve a fourth term if it is crowded upon him.

His speech was WHOLLY political. He branded the Republican campaign as "fraud and falsehood" and asserted that his opponents were copying the propaganda methods of European fascists.

It was a good old hard-slugging campaign effort. WHAT that means, in political parlance, is that he realizes that for the first time in his career he has an opponent who can't be laughed off.

BACK of all the smoke and fury of the campaign from here on out will be the big issue of one-man government. All others are mere side issues.

CONTINUED one-man government will change our whole American way of life—not all at once, not overnight, but in the GRADUAL way that is PERMANENT.

Beside this great issue, all others are DWARFED. ONLY a Democrat could bring about this fundamental change in our institutions, because the whole enterprise rests on the foundation of the solid, politically-frozen South—which votes according to tradition and not according to its present convictions.

The normal American tendency to want CHANGE every so often would defeat any Republican who tried it. Only the backlog of politically-frozen Southern votes makes it possible.

Complainant Asks Dismissal of Charge

A charge of contributing to the delinquency of a minor isued recently against Fred Dexter has been dismissed on motion of the complaining witness.

Dexter had taken time to plead and had been committed to the county jail in lieu of $1500 cash bail.

MAN INJURED IN QUARREL WITH MARINE

Earl Hilton, 48, 2333 Applegate, is in a serious condition at Hillside hospital following an altercation which is alleged to have taken place between Hilton and a marine sergeant at the Driftwood bar on S. 7th early Saturday night.

Sgt. Joseph Homer Lyons is being held in custody at the Marine Barracks pending investigation.

Hilton has a fractured skull and other injuries and was conscious only at intervals up to late Monday afternoon.

Lyons was arrested by city police shortly after the alleged quarrel, but later turned over to shore patrol.

Testimony regarding the incident was taken by Assistant District Attorney Clarence Humble from Lyons and four of his companions, Sgt. Matthew J. Golobrowski, Corporals John Lue Anthony, Robert K. Beck and Irvin F. Mustain. Also giving testimony were Lee F. Estling, and Beatrice Harriet McGaughey, Driftwood bartenders on duty Saturday night; John Thorman Wood, "B" Jefferson, and John Henry Lovell of the merchant marine, patrons at the bar. According to stories told by witnesses, the marines went to the Driftwood at about 8 p. m. Saturday and were seated at a table when Hilton joined their party. Estling had previously refused to serve Hilton, he told authorities.

The marines testified that a package of cigarettes and "some change" was missing from their table and a quarrel ensued. Lyons admitted that he struck Hilton on the jaw with his left fist. Hilton was knocked unconscious and was moved to Hillside by Ward's ambulance. He is an employe of Big Lakes Box and a long-time resident of Klamath Falls.

raised the issue of "fraud and falsehood," Dewey continued. "I shall deal with it point by point on the radio tonight." Dewey makes his seventh major campaign address of a current western swing in Civic auditorium at 7 p. m. (PWT) to be broadcast by NBC and Blue networks.

Dewey said he had been informed that a "number of good democrats" in Oklahoma had indicated their intention of supporting the republican ticket. He said a Democrats for Dewey organization in California was "waging a full scale campaign," and he had been told that surveys indicated about 35 per cent of the democrats in that state might support him in November.

Grateful

"I should like to say," he said, "that I am grateful to these people and believe that before the campaign is over most of the good democrats will decide that their cause is our cause."

He had heard a great deal, the nominee said, about activities of a similar nature in Texas but had not been informed of the results.

Asked by Otis Sullivant, a reporter for the Daily Oklahoman, what he thought of his chances of carrying this state, Dewey replied:

"I shall have to leave that to you folks who live here."

Salesky Leaves—Captain Jack Salesky, one of the first officers assigned to the Marine Barracks here, left last weekend for southern California where he has been assigned to duty near San Diego with the marine corps. Captain and Mrs. Salesky became well-acquainted in the community during the period he was adjutant and later recreation officer at the barracks.

Review from San Francisco Chronicle, September 21st

San Francisco Chronicle, Sept. 21st. Frankie Masters' orchestra, the feature of this week's stage show at the Golden Gate Theatre, is a triumph of variety and careful showmanship. The orchestral numbers are cleverly staged, with the band members co-operating with clowning, hand-clapping and whatever else the particular selection can use to advantage.

A smartly dressed feminine quartet, "The Girl Friends," or individually, Marty, Kay, Pat and Jo, contribute several numbers, and provide vocal background for the solo singers. Foremost among these is Phyllis Myles, the solo singer. Foremost among these is Phyllis Myles, a blonde, skilled and sparkling. Seventeen-year-old Jack Wilblond, handles the swoon department, and seems a successful a sigh promoter as his older colleagues.

Meestro Masters and Frank Cook, a harmonica playing guitarist, close in on the microphone for comedy volcansing.

San Francisco Examiner, Sept. 21st. COMEDY IS KING this week at the new Golden Gate show. Not to be overlooked is the rhythmic work of Frankie Masters and his orchestra. The contingent handles fine music and boasts a full cast of funmakers and excellent vocalists.

Highlight for band effects is the "Ball Game" musical routine. Phyllis Myles, a blond goodlooker, is also a pleasing vocalist in the 1944 mood. Also giving out with new top tunes is a feminine quartet. Eddie Williams, a 17 year old, is a baritone of excellent voice, and for harmonica addicts Frank Cook's trio of numbers should prove quite all right. Watch for the hill billy number. It's one of the show's best.

Ask anyone who heard Frankie last year—They'll tell you he has one of the finest bands to ever appear in Klamath Falls
