Klamath Students Earn Certificates

Four students from Klamath Falls were among the 65 here receiving junior certificates with honors privileges, it was announced Thursday by the registrar's office at the University of Oregon.

This gives them the privilege of taking honors courses, leading to a degree with honors. Only students maintaining a grade average of 2.75 or better during their university studies are eligible for this group. Following is the list from Klamath Falls: Mary Virginia Gorrigan, Peggy June Keating, Robert Louis Mueller, and Marjorie Anna Young.

Kilmer Sentenced To 20 Years

SALEM, Sept. 26 (AP)—Al E. Kilmer, 25, who shot William Neimeyer, druggist, September 18 in a holdup of Neimeyer's store, was sentenced to 20 years in prison yesterday by Circuit Judge E. M. Page.

Kilmer made the holdup attempt on the same day that he was released from prison, where he had served almost five years for burglary. Neimeyer was shot in the leg.

Don't be a procrastinator. See or call Hans Norland about the policy this moment. 118 North 7th. Phone 7176.
