

Informal Party Given on Friday

An informal party was given for members of the boards of education, the school faculties, and other school personnel by Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Gralapp and Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Wood on Friday evening, September 29, in the cafeteria rooms of the Klamath Union high school.

The table was arranged with a centerpiece of red and white gladioli and tall white tapers. Large glass punch bowls were placed at either end.

Assisting about the rooms were Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Dickerson, Mrs. Charles Ollmann, Mr. and Mrs. Dwight French, Augusta Parker, Mr. and Mrs. Verne Krell, Lillie Darby, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Angstead, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Cooney, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Peak, Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Erdmann, Mr. and Mrs. David Bridge, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Attebury, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Howard, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Loney, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Kain, Mrs. B. B. Blomquist and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Landry.

Presiding at the refreshment table were the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Paul DeBor, Mrs. Joseph Reading, Mrs. Norman Carter, Jean Ricketts, Cynthia Hudson, Mrs. Don Fisher, Emilie P. Deman, Phyllis Foster and Irma Wauchoup.

Teachers Meet

The Klamath Falls primary teachers were guests of the members of the Klamath County Association For Childhood Education at a luncheon held Friday, September 29, in the banquet room of the Wi-Ne-Ma hotel.

During the luncheon, Erma Wauchoup of Fairview school, introduced the primary teachers of the city staff, and Mrs. Isabelle Dexter, rural supervisor, introduced the teachers of the various county schools.

To Washington

Carolyn Collier, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew M. Collier of Pine Grove, left Wednesday for Washington D. C., where she will attend Red Cross classes, studying to become a hospital staff aide.

Since her graduation from the University of Oregon, Carolyn has been in San Francisco, where she was employed at the Telegraph Hill Settlement House and at the University of California hospital. She has been in Klamath Falls for the last two months, waiting her Red Cross assignment.

En route to Washington D. C., she will visit her sister and brother-in-law, Corporal and Mrs. Ross Ragland and their small son, David Ross, who live in Long Branch, New Jersey.

Luncheon

An informal luncheon was given by Mrs. Edward A. Geary, Saturday, September 25, for Mrs. Charles Gologly, Maud Gologly and Mrs. E. Geary, who are visiting here from Gladstone, Oregon.

Picnic lunch was served on the lawn of Mrs. Geary's home on Lakeshore road to Mrs. R. H. Darron and son Bob, Mrs. Howard Barnhisel and Sally and Peter. Mrs. George Stevenson and "Stevie," Mrs. Edward H. Pike, Mrs. Geary's daughter, Alice, and the honored guests.

Buffet Supper

Mrs. Frederick C. Wissenbach entertained for members of the vestry of St. Paul's Episcopal church with a buffet supper Thursday evening, in honor of Rev. Wissenbach's birthday anniversary.

Visitor Feted During Stay Here

Several interesting events have been given recently for Mrs. William Kennedy Jenkins and small daughter, Pamela, from Hawthorne, Nevada, guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jenkins, 1233 Pacific Terrace.

Garden Party

Stanley Ross, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Ross, who was four on September 26, and Robbie Ellingson, who was two on the same day, had a birthday party last Wednesday, which was given for them by Robbie's mother, Mrs. Robert P. Ellingson Jr.

Dinner Parties

Tables set on the lawn were decorated in pink and green with baskets at each place. There were two birthday cakes with candles.

Visitors

An out-of-town guest was Mrs. F. M. "nson, who is here from California visit her sister, Mrs. Norman Moty.

Birthdays

Complete with cake and candles, a birthday dinner was given Monday night by Mrs. J. Hardin Carter for Mr. E. B. Hall and Mrs. Byron Hardenbrook, Gladioli and tall pink candles decorated the table.

Harvest Dance

Plans are being made for the first fall dance of the season by members of the Reames Golf and Country club for Saturday evening, October 21, at the clubhouse.

Official Visit

Mrs. Burt B. Lowry, Medford, state regent of the Oregon Daughters of the American Revolution, is paying official visits to chapters in this section of Oregon.

Buffet Supper

Mrs. Frederick C. Wissenbach entertained for members of the vestry of St. Paul's Episcopal church with a buffet supper Thursday evening, in honor of Rev. Wissenbach's birthday anniversary.

Visitor Feted During Stay Here

Several interesting events have been given recently for Mrs. William Kennedy Jenkins and small daughter, Pamela, from Hawthorne, Nevada, guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jenkins, 1233 Pacific Terrace.

Garden Party

Stanley Ross, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Ross, who was four on September 26, and Robbie Ellingson, who was two on the same day, had a birthday party last Wednesday, which was given for them by Robbie's mother, Mrs. Robert P. Ellingson Jr.

Dinner Parties

Tables set on the lawn were decorated in pink and green with baskets at each place. There were two birthday cakes with candles.

Visitors

An out-of-town guest was Mrs. F. M. "nson, who is here from California visit her sister, Mrs. Norman Moty.

Birthdays

Complete with cake and candles, a birthday dinner was given Monday night by Mrs. J. Hardin Carter for Mr. E. B. Hall and Mrs. Byron Hardenbrook, Gladioli and tall pink candles decorated the table.

Harvest Dance

Plans are being made for the first fall dance of the season by members of the Reames Golf and Country club for Saturday evening, October 21, at the clubhouse.

Official Visit

Mrs. Burt B. Lowry, Medford, state regent of the Oregon Daughters of the American Revolution, is paying official visits to chapters in this section of Oregon.

Herald and News Society

By Phyllis Collier

Virginia Bubb Bride in Rites

At one of the loveliest of fall weddings, Virginia Bubb, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest M. Bubb of this city, became the bride of Robert David Payne, United States army, at 2 o'clock the afternoon of Sunday, September 24 in the First Methodist church.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, walked down the aisle which was lined with sprays of white gladioli. She was met at the altar by her husband-to-be, and they exchanged vows before tiered bouquets of white gladioli, palms and candelabras of tall white tapers.

BPW Dinner

"Are We Politically Literate" will be the program topic for Monday night's dinner meeting of the Klamath Falls Business and Professional Women's club, October 2, at the Willard hotel. Dinner will be served at 6:30 o'clock, and members desiring to make reservations are urged to call Jacquelin Newcom before noon of that date.

Isabel Brixner, chairman of the southern Oregon district in the state federation, will be in charge of the evening's program which is especially timely, coming only a month before the general election in November. Other programs of a political nature are also planned and it is expected that a number of candidates will be guests at at least one meeting.

Plans are being made for observance of National Business Women's week, October 8 to 14, with a number of special committees appointed by the president, Norma Miller.

Five Years Old

Little Carole Lee Horn, five years old, was the guest of honor at a birthday party given for her by her mother, Mrs. Fred Horn, 2221 Orchard, at their home on Monday, September 25. The invited guests were Mrs. L. J. Brink, Bonnie L. La Master, Donnie and Barbara Hamilton, Barbara Turner, Henry Turner, Janna Neubert, Denny Neubert, Mari Ferrrell, Margie Schreanes, Billy Schreanes, Rosemary Harvey, Janice Younk, Carol Baker, Gilbert Baker, Gloria Jackson and a group of mothers. Birthday cake and other refreshments were served to the guests.

The bride's mother, Mrs. Ernest M. Bubb, wore a black dress with sequin trim and a matching hat, and Mrs. Margaret Payne, mother of the groom, was in navy blue.

Following the wedding a large reception was held on the lawn of the bride's home and refreshments were served at a table centered with pink gladioli. Assisting were Mrs. Harden Carter, Mrs. Alvin Henschke, Mrs. Walter Linstrom, Mrs. B. L. Hardenbrook, Mrs. Guy Merrill, Mrs. James Bishop Foster, Mrs. P. M. Noel, Mrs. F. E. Drake, Mrs. William Hagelstein, Mrs. J. F. Daggert, Mrs. Charles Joseph Martin, and Mrs. Fred Schallack. Mrs. Wilmet Craudal and Mrs. Lena Noel poured and the cake was served by Mrs. Robert Shaw.

Before leaving with her husband to drive to Odell lake, the bride tossed her wedding bouquet from the steps of her home. It fell into the hands of Phyllis Foster, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Bishop Foster.

For going away Mrs. Payne chose a trim suit in light tan with a fine gold pin-stripe. The orchid from her bouquet was pinned at her shoulder and she wore a small brown felt hat with alligator accessories.

After spending a week at Odell, Mr. and Mrs. Payne will go to Portland, where they will make their home at 5023 South East Hawthorne.

Among out-of-town guests at the wedding were Mrs. Margaret Payne, mother of the groom, and his sister, Mrs. Vernon Butler from Ontario, Washington, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Daggert and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Linstrom of Prineville, Mr. and Mrs. Robin H. Nelson, Mrs. John G. Nelson, Mrs. Phyllis Carroll and Patsy Carroll from Portland, and Mrs. Lucille Ulrick and Mrs. Dick C. Fisher from California.

Mrs. Charles Joseph Martin, 228 N. Seventh, will be hostess for the regular meeting of Eulonia chapter, at 8 o'clock in the evening, Monday, when Mrs. Lowry will be the guest of honor. Mrs. Hugh T. Mitchelmore will entertain with piano numbers and the state regent will address the members.

Mrs. Bert C. Thomas, regent, invites all members of the DAR to attend the no-hostess luncheon and the evening meeting.

Mrs. Calvin Hunt, 70 Pine street, will entertain for members of the Art Needlework club Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, October 4.

Virginia Ellen Smith left Thursday night for Oregon State college at Corvallis to assist in rush week activities at Sigma Kappa sorority.

NEAR THE OLD APPLE TREE Mr. and Mrs. Ben Wilson and their charming family pose for a moment. They have visited their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Wilson of Washington street and left this week for their home in Chicago. Paul, sitting in the tree his daddy used to climb, is three years old, and little Peggy had her second birthday the day before this picture was taken.

Visitor Feted During Stay Here

Several interesting events have been given recently for Mrs. William Kennedy Jenkins and small daughter, Pamela, from Hawthorne, Nevada, guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jenkins, 1233 Pacific Terrace.

Last week Mrs. John D. Merryman entertained with a luncheon at the Pelican party room for Mrs. Jenkins, followed by bridge at her home on Pacific Terrace. Mrs. Henry Gerber, Mrs. Jack Waymire, Mrs. Shive Connolly, Mrs. Gerald Joseph, Mrs. Frank Weaver and Joan Campbell were guests for the afternoon.

An informal dinner was given by Mrs. Frank Weaver this week for Mrs. Jenkins, and in her honor Mrs. Godfrey C. Blohm had a small tea Friday afternoon.

Cpl. and Mrs. Jenkins will return next Monday to Hawthorne, where Cpl. Jenkins is stationed with the United States marine corps.

Attending the garden party were Mrs. Carl Willia... and Gary, Roger, Pamela and James; Mrs. Paul Angstead and Kath- loen and Judith; Mrs. Samuel Mushen and Robert; Mrs. Fred- rick Farley and Lynn; Mrs. Don Vannie and Sus...; Mrs. Don V... and Di...; Mrs. Charles Baillie and Rolland; Mrs. Dean Miller and Silvia; Mrs. Robert Sproat Jr. and Bill; Mrs. Robert Ross and Stanley and Frank; Mrs. William Holley and Bill; Mrs. Macartney and David and Carroll; Mrs. Robert Hunt, Alvin, Carolyn and Virginia; Mrs. Edward Hickman and Douglas; Mrs. Stanley Staiger and Stan- ley Jr.; Mrs. Norman Moty and Kenneth; and Mrs. Robert El- lingson and Robbie and Kath- erine.

An out-of-town guest was Mrs. F. M. "nson, who is here from California visit her sister, Mrs. Norman Moty.

Mrs. R. P. Ellingson Sr. and Dortha Ellingson assisted.

Beryl C. Lund, attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Lund of 2008 Madison, cele- brated her sixteenth birthday on Saturday, September 23. Miss Lund is a sophomore at the Sacred Heart academy.

Bettie Hopkins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Hopkins of Hillside, left Thursday morning for Portland where she will continue her studies at Lewis and Clark college. This is her second year there.

The next meeting of the Eastern Star Social club has been announced for Friday after- noon, October 6, at the Masonic temple when tea will be served at 1:45 o'clock, followed by bridge. The hostesses will be announced this coming week.

Mrs. Frederick C. Wissenbach entertained for members of the vestry of St. Paul's Episcopal church with a buffet supper Thursday evening, in honor of Rev. Wissenbach's birthday anniversary.

Mrs. D. O. Hood and the Wis- senbach's daughters, Mrs. Wil- liam Hearing and Edith Wissen- bach, assisted in serving. Mem- bers of the vestry are R. Heber Radcliffe, James Patterson, Sam- uel A. Mushen, Roy Premo, Hor- ace Getz, Hugh B. Campbell, Neal Stewart, Harold Shaffer, W. B. Yates, Frank L. Weaver, Willis Glidden, Ted Medford and D. O. Hood.

Stanley Ross, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Ross, who was four on September 26, and Rob- bie Ellingson, who was two on the same day, had a birthday party last Wednesday, which was given for them by Robbie's mother, Mrs. Robert P. El- lingson Jr.

Tables set on the lawn were decorated in pink and green with baskets at each place. There were two birthday cakes with candles.