

South Pacific Display Planned

An interesting display of South Pacific curios is to be arranged at the next meeting of the Klamath Falls Woman's Library club scheduled to be held in the main auditorium of the public library on Monday afternoon, October 9, at 2 o'clock.

Mrs. Albert O. Roenicke is in charge of the display and anyone having articles which they are willing to display, please call Mrs. Roenicke at her home phone, 6643.

There will be someone at the library to accept exhibits from 9:30 o'clock on Monday morning. There will also be a club member present during the noon hour and articles may be taken home after the program.

The display will be especially timely in view of the program, "The Philippines," which is to be given by Chester Davis, warrant officer at the Marine Barracks and a former resident of the islands. Those having articles which have come from the Philippines are especially urged to loan them for the exhibit.

All women of the city are invited to this first program of the year arranged by Library club. Membership is open to all.

Catholic Daughters

Monday evening, September 25, the Catholic Daughters of America met in the parish house for a regular business meeting and plans were made for their fall activities and the annual initiation. Mrs. Rose Poole, member of the planning commission, outlined the work of the commission and told of the proposed Veterans' Memorial park program. Everyone enjoyed her talk.

The Catholic Daughters are making arrangements for Catholic ladies of the parish to act as hostesses each Friday at the Service Center, and the following volunteered to help on Friday, September 29: Emilie Miller, Freda Newman, Louise Vaughn, Agnes LaLonde, Carrie McMahon, Lenore Gallagher, Ethel Brunner, Kay Carthy, Violet Pieser, and Elizabeth Schuh. Agnes LaLonde, chairman for the fish spreads at the center, will be assisted for the balance of the year by Martha Lavenik. Carrie McMahon, assisted by Marion Cronon and Winifred Hooker, donated for the fish spreads for September.

After the business meeting, refreshments were served by Ida Mochettaz, assisted by Lenore Gallagher, Hazel Landry and Geneva Jendrezewski.

Betrothal Told

Announcement of the betrothal of Jean Bolin, recently named Miss Klamath, and PFC Robert W. Haeger of the Marine Barracks, was made here this week.

The wedding will not take place, Jean said, until after she has gone to Portland in November for the Miss Oregon contest. Jean was chosen as a candidate for the state title at the close of the Miss Klamath contest conducted here recently by the junior chamber of commerce.

Marine Haeger's home is in New York. He is the son of Dorita Court, the English soprano opera singer.

Although Haeger has had two years of pre-med at the University of New York, he has decided to give up medicine and go into the show business. He has written a musical comedy entitled "Tears and Cheers," which he plans to put on at the Marine base soon.

Mrs. George Epperson arrived Thursday from Glendale, Calif., to live with her mother and father-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Epperson, 130 First street. Her husband, First Lt. George Epperson, is on overseas duty.

Fall Meeting

The first fall meeting of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the First Methodist church, held in the church parlors Thursday afternoon, September 28, was well attended. At 1:15 there was a meeting of the executive board, and the prayer circle met later with the general business meeting at 2 p. m., conducted by Mrs. L. K. Phelps, president. Mrs. Walter Herndon was in charge of the devotional program and was assisted by Mrs. Hall and Mrs. E. H. Balsiger, with Mrs. L. E. Juniper at the piano.

Their theme was "The Christian's Response to Suffering."

In the course of the business meeting Mrs. George Casper, Mrs. Ruby Kenyon and Mrs. Victor Phillips were appointed to serve as nominating committee for officers for the coming year. Mrs. Phillips, program chairman, then spoke of the work carried on in Methodist Episcopal hospitals and medical centers in the United States and Alaska. Mrs. Phelps reported upon the annual Methodist Episcopal conference held in Portland during the past summer, as this was the first general meeting since that time. Mrs. A. C. Yaden, Mrs. C. A. Wahlquist and Mrs. E. B. Redman, delegates to the summer camp at Silver Creek Falls in September told of the studies to be given in the different circles this year. The courses given at the camp and to be covered here will be of South East Asia, the South West Pacific, and there will also be a course concerning the American Indians.

Mrs. L. E. Juniper gave two vocal solos, "Sometimes at Close of Day" by Clara Edwards and "Mighty Lak a Rose" by Nevins, and tea was then served by members of Circle 4, Mrs. W. A. Carlton chairman. The tea table was centered with hollyhocks, Michelmas daisies and larkspur, and Mrs. L. K. Phelps presided at the tea service.

Theta Rho Club

The Theta Rho club met in regular session, Monday evening, September 25, in the IOOF hall, and Joan Abner and Maxine Warner were initiated into the club at this time. Following the business meeting and initiation, Patsy Harrington and Rosemary Russell, committee for the evening, took charge, and several amusing games were played, followed by refreshments.

The next meeting, October 9, will open at 7:30 p. m., instead of 8 p. m., and Bertha Russell and Maxine Warner will be in charge of the social hour.

Joyce Lamb, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd R. Lamb, celebrated her ninth birthday on Friday afternoon, September 24, when she was hostess at a group party at the Pelican. Guests were invited to her home on North Seventh at 1 o'clock when a lighted birthday cake was cut and gifts were opened. Joyce is a fourth grader at Fremont.

EXCHANGE VOWS

Corporal and Mrs. Rene Faubert (Mary Rose Deneault) who were married in St. Vibiana's cathedral in Los Angeles on September 2. Mrs. Faubert who is making her home in Los Angeles is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Deneault of this city.

Southern Rites

Mary Rose Deneault and Corporal Rene Faubert, both formerly of Klamath Falls, were married by Rev. Father Straup at an 8 o'clock mass at St. Vibiana's cathedral in Los Angeles on September 2. A few close friends witnessed the ceremony.

The bride chose a light blue suit with white accessories for her wedding, with a spray of orchids on her shoulder. Attending her as bridesmaid was Frances Ross, and Edvard Bricault acted as best man for the groom.

A wedding breakfast was served in the Baltimore dining room following the ceremony when places were set for members of the wedding party and guests.

Mrs. Faubert is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Deneault of 1415 Oregon, this city, and has many friends here where she made her home and attended school. For the present she is residing in Los Angeles. Corporal Faubert has been stationed at Camp Pendleton since March when he returned from duty in the South Pacific. He is expected to be sent overseas again within a short time.

Meet Slated

The first fall meeting of the Council of Church Women will be held in the parlors of the First Methodist church, Monday, October 2.

There will be a meeting of the board of directors at 10:30 a. m., and a paper sack lunch at noon.

At 2 p. m., the president, Mrs. J. C. Yaden, will open the business meeting. As there is important business to be transacted, a full attendance is requested. Mrs. Paul Edwards will present a review of "Church Women," the national publication of the United Council of Church Women, and Mrs. Dick Reeder will sing a solo, "Stranger of Galilee," a request number.

LaPointe's

ENGAGEMENT IS TOLD

Jean Bolin, named Miss Klamath recently, has announced her engagement to PFC Robert Haeger of New York. The wedding will take place in the near future.
