

New Word Battle Looms With Talks Set by FDR, Dewey

By The Associated Press
New chances for give-and-take word battling between President Roosevelt and Governor Dewey developed today with the scheduling of a radio talk tonight by the republican presidential nominee, on taxes.

Whatever Dewey says then—and taxes always have been a hot political field—will be available for Mr. Roosevelt to comment on Thursday when he addresses democratic party workers in a broadcast from Washington.

In turn, whatever Mr. Roosevelt says will be ready for Dewey to take up for examination Saturday night, when he speaks from Charleston, W. Va. Dewey is holding up work on that speech until he hears his opponent.

The GOP candidate's tax speech will be made from the executive mansion at Albany (MBS at 5:45 p. m., PWT. Pacific coast re-broadcast at 9:45 p. m., PWT.)

Vice presidential nominees, Republican Bricker and Democratic Truman, both were on the air last night. Bricker from Nashville, Tenn., and Truman from Washington. Their themes: Many Bureaucrats

Bricker. "The number of bureaucrats has grown larger and larger, revealing a peculiar vigor during the months immediately preceding an election. It is a new deal axiom that every individual added to the federal payroll is equivalent to four additional votes for the fourth term aspirations of Mr. Roosevelt."

Truman: "Reconversion and jobs and security are matters for a man who has already looked and thought and planned ahead—for a man with the kind of greatness the times will most certainly demand. I submit that means a big man—a mighty big man—a Franklin Delano Roosevelt."

Other Contributions
Other contributions of fuel to the political fire:

Chairman Sidney Hillman of the CIO political action committee, in a get-out-the-vote plea to shipyard unionists, said at Atlantic City that if the November vote "is as heavy as in 1940—about 50 million—Dewey will be the worst defeated candidate in our times."

Republican Governor Earl Warren of California told a Minneapolis audience that machine politicians are backing the democratic ticket and said "whether they are prompted to this support by hope of reward from their candidate or fear of consequences if Dewey is elected, they alone can disclose."

Exposes Isolationism
Democratic Chairman Hannegan said in New York that Senator Ball (R-Minn.), who stated last week that he could not campaign for Dewey at this time, had "exposed the isolationism which characterizes the republican high command."

In Washington, Senator Burton (R-Ohio), who worked with Ball in advocating United States participation in a world organization to enforce peace, told reporters he had "no hesitancy at all" in backing Dewey's candidacy.

Malin

The Malin home extension unit meeting, September 26, at the high school installed Mrs. Thelma Mitchell as president for the coming year, Mrs. Dick Henzel, vice president, Mrs. Emil Toftell, secretary, and treasurer, Mrs. Dorothea Mack, Klamath Falls, was the installing officer. Corsages were presented to each incoming officer.

Mrs. Winnifred Gillen, Klamath county home demonstration leader, exhibited some attractive gifts to be made for Christmas gifts.

The next meeting will be held October 5, at 8 p. m., in the high school, the subject to be, "Let's Have Fewer Colds." Preparation of food will also be discussed, with Miss Clinton of Oregon State college to preside.

That policy may be easier to get than you think. See Hans Norland, 118 North 7th, or phone 6060.

Today On The Western Front

By Associated Press

U. S. first army—Breaks through the Siegfried line north of Aachen, capturing Ubach and threatening Aachen with complete encirclement.

U. S. third army—Drove to the outskirts of Grevenmacher, on the southeast Luxembourg border, after clearing the last of the Germans from Gremscy forest, on the center of the 460-mile western front; attacked Fort Driant, key Metz fortress.

U. S. seventh army—Took Ronchamp, 10 miles west of Belfort, a gate to Germany on the south end of the front, and forged ahead in the Epinal sector against stiff opposition.

British second army—Massed infantry for a heavy blow south of Arnhem after bombers and fighters smashed German concentrations in this Holland sector.

Canadian first army—Battling on the channel in the Calais-Dunkerque area, and believed to be massing for an attack on the latter.

Boys Cut Grain Sacks, Damage Farmer's Tractor

Lloyd Stevenson, Mt. Hebron rancher, reported to Klamath officers that two 18-year-old boys caused $1000 damage to his property this week. It is understood that both young men were apprehended in Dunsmuir.

The rancher said the two took his tractor apart, threw movable parts in a marsh and cut open 10 sacks of grain.

Final Rites Planned For E. R. Forsberg

Final rites for Ernest Robert Forsberg, 40-year-old Canby, Calif., logger who dropped dead in front of the Anchor hotel on South Sixth Friday, will be held from Sherman and Davis Mortuary in Newport, Wash.

Remains were shipped Tuesday to Newport by Ward's. Forsberg was employed by the Ralph L. Smith Lumber company at the time of his death.

COOPER ACQUITTED IN JUVENILE CASE

SOUTH BEND, Ind., Oct. 3 (AP)—Jackie Cooper, 22, the former motion picture star, and three co-defendants were acquitted today by Juvenile Referee Albert L. Doyle of charges of contributing to the delinquency of two teen-aged South Bend girls.

Those accused with Cooper were George Bender, 24, of Sherfield, Ill.; Pauline Frederick, 19, of South Bend, and Cliff Lowery, a waiter at a South Bend hotel.

The charges grew out of police investigation of a party at a South Bend hotel the night of last July 22.

The trial was held last week and Judge Doyle took the evidence under advisement during the weekend.

Cooper and Bender are naval V-12 trainees at the University of Notre Dame. Shortly before giving up his movie career to enter the naval training program, Cooper starred in a movie, "Where Are Your Children?" which dealt with juvenile delinquency.

"Sure glad I've got a FORD!"

JOY FRED LEMERY Log Buyer, Lebanon, Oregon

"I COVER 600 SQUARE MILES buying timber to be made into plywood for PT boats, planes, and other war goods. It's rugged country but my 1942 Ford takes it in stride."

"IT'S TRAVELED 75,000 MILES on the roughest roads imaginable. The car takes a beating but it stands up fine. And though much of my driving is in low gear, I get good gas mileage."

"A CAR'S GOT TO BE GOOD in these up to rough going like that. Ford's been well and to keep I take it to my Ford dealer friend for a checkup. It certainly pays."

NEWS NOTES: To distribute materials within the Rouge plant of Ford, 25 miles of roadways and 100 miles of railroad track have been constructed.

More than 35,000,000 Ford, Mercury and Lincoln cars—and Ford Trucks—have been sold.
