Edwards Outstanding Player in Thrill-Packed Contest, Burdell Best for Juniors

WEDNESDAY STATISTICS
Well, peoples, our Wildcats came through in a big way Wednesday afternoon and again for the dejection of any Statistic Stanleys that may be lurking around, here are the averages of the Wildcat backfield boys:

Times Carried	Dist. Yards	Avg. Yards
Mocabee	5	1.2
Edwards	14	8.1
Coleman	5	11.4
Sweden	7	3.0
Selby	5	7.4
Velich	1	3.3
Hicks	2	2.1

QUOTE-UNQUOTE

Our local Quarterback club received a nice boost from the Eureka, Calif., Humboldt Standard-Times recently. The boys down Eureka way have set the Klamath Falls club as an example for one they have organized. Lee Smith, formerly of Klamath Falls and now an ardent supporter of the Eureka Quarterbackers brought a committee up from there to see the Grant game. The story in the Eureka paper winds up by saying:

"The next meeting will be held next Monday morning, same time, same place, and all those interested in seeing the Eureka high school football team receive the same support that the Klamath Falls team receives, are urged to get on the bandwagon and join the club."

The membership of the Eureka club was 53 at the time the quoted material was written and the goal has been set at 200 members by the time the pigskin parade really gets underway.

Seems as if Klamath town is leading the way and here's lots of luck to the Quarterbackers from Eureka.

Golden Bears Meet Trojans In Grid Tilt

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 5 (P)—Jeff Cravath's Southern California Trojans will field the same lineup against California here Saturday that they used against UCLA in the season opener, when they got a 13-13 tie.

Don Hardy, end who was kept out of last week's College of the Pacific game by injuries, will be at left end.

The Trojans will outweigh the Bears 13 pounds to the man and they may have just a bit of foot on the Cal backfield, too. The Bear line is a fast-charging array and it must use its speed to offset the big bulge in weight Troy will have.

Fact is, Cal has only two players who tip 200 pounds, and they're substitutes, so Coach Stub Allison, employing the T formation for the first time, has put emphasis on speed. His backfield of Muir, Quist, Garthwaite and Stuart were squad members in 1943. Muir, the only one who didn't win a letter, was praised by Allison for his smart signal calling in Cal's 6-0 win over UCLA last week.

New backfield material is coming up, Ma. Clyde C. Roberts has announced, and new faces may be seen in the backfield against the Ramblers.

SERIES NOTES

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 5 (P)—The Browns' first game victory was the second time in less than a week that they won a ball game on two hits. Last Friday they beat the Yankees, 1-0, with only two safe blows, a single and a double.

A crowd of 33,242 that paid $149,268 into the kitty, thrilled to George "Lefty" McQuinn's fourth inning home run clout atop the right field pavilion following Gene Moore's single to right.

Marty Marion, who sported only .269 batting average for the season, was the only Cardinal to get two hits in the first game, both two-baggers. Marion was the leading batter in the 1943 series with a .357 average.

The records say the Cards will have to win today's game to stay in the running. Never has a team lost the first two contests of a best four-of-seven series and come back to take the classic. In 1921, in a five out of eight play-off, the Yankees beat the Giants twice, but lost the title, five games to three.

Leathernecks Will Attempt To Bounce Back After Loss By Knocking Over Ramblers

The once-tried, once-defeated Marine Barracks grid eleven will bounce back into the field against the California Ramblers Saturday afternoon without the services of some of the backfield and line mainstays.

Tom McClure, just recently promoted to tech sergeant, the Leathernecks' top field general and generally conceded to be the most polished backfield performer on the field last week, is lost for the season.

He received a double fracture in his right elbow in the Navy-crat fray. PFC Walter Apt, first-string guard, who was carried off the field Saturday, is still under observation, but attending medical officials believe that he will make the Rambler game.

The loss of McClure will leave the heaviest part of the tailback duties to PFC Frank Bancor. A hard runner, Bancor will be handicapped in the Rambler tilt with a trick knee. He may not even be in a suit for this game, if his knee fails to react properly to treatment. Salvadori, 235-pound fullback, also has a bad knee but should be ready for the game, Saturday afternoon.

However, the Marines' luck has not been entirely bad. Medical officials have approved the use of a special brace to protect PFC Joe Fiora's injured shoulder, and he may be available to fill a tackle post within the next week.

And Sgt. Maurice Rothberg, who has a bad leg and did not play last week, is back in the line-up at guard and so far has looked good in scrimmages.

MT/Sgt. Dick Bandy, fullback, is now on furlough, leaving LaPaglia to do the line-busting alone.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 5 (P)—When you diagnose Denny Galehouse's brilliant 2-1 victory over the St. Louis Cardinals yesterday, don't overlook the St. Louis Browns' 32-year-old righthander's marvelous display of control.

Despite the four passes issued by the former defense worker, Galehouse pitched only 120 baseballs, a very low total.

Only 35 were called balls, while 57 were strikes, including 25 fouls. Of the remaining 28, seven were hit safely and 21 went for putouts, one of them picking up an additional out in a double play.

Except for his four passes, one of which was intentional, at no time did Galehouse have three balls on any batter. On only three occasions did batters work him for two.

Nineteen Cardinals connected without any called balls on them, six on the first pitch. Of his five strikeouts, four were of the one-two-three variety.

The Cardinal combination of Mort Cooper and Blix Donnelly exceeded Galehouse by only one pitch—the home run pitch to George McQuinn, no doubt.

Cooper threw 103 in seven innings and Donnelly only 18 in the last two.
