

MEN AND WOMEN IN SERVICE

Glenn A. Stover, pilot of 17 Flying Fortress, is here several days following his Mediterranean theater where he completed 32 missions as a member of the U. S. army air corps.

Stover, former teller at the First National bank in Klamath Falls, enlisted in April 1942, went overseas in November, 1943, and flew from North Africa bases until his transfer to Italy in December of that year.

Stover took him raids over Hungary and the oil fields. Stover left Italy to report with the air command at Santa Monica while here he was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. George Melvin, 409 Lincoln.

Word was received here this that Clinton R. Jester, formerly of Klamath Falls, who ended last January in the U. S. S. S. has arrived in New Guinea, where he was employed the state department of agriculture for 12 years. It will be throughout Oregon has served during that time as inspector in various capacities. With Mrs. Jester he made home while here in the Marine Corps before being transferred some months ago to Ford and Grants Pass.

Completed his training with medical unit at Camp Barkley, Texas, and is serving with a regimental hospital. Jester has the thousands of American physicians and surgeons in the European theater caring for the wounded removed out of France.

argus is somewhere in the Kingdom with other American doctors, nurses and technicians. Patients at this particular hospital arrive by ambulance train as well as from sky ambulances, the latter carried by air from France. This last group reach the hospital without any notice and hospital personnel meets the emergency cheerfully.

SAFEWAY FLOUR FESTIVAL

Bake these easily, for October delight

TO MAKE this evening's dinner appetizingly different, why not bake some drop biscuits? Very little time is required!

DROP BISCUITS

Follow your regular 2-cup recipe for baking-powder biscuits, but use enough milk (about a cup) so mixture will drop from teaspoon on an ungreased baking tin. Bake in a hot oven (450° F.) for 12 to 15 minutes. Makes about 16 biscuits.

Even more appetizing drop biscuits result if you add (depending on personal tastes) 1/2 cup of raisins or chopped nuts or diced cheese to the mixture before kneading it. Or, use tomato juice instead of milk for the moistener!

And for dessert, how about ICED APPLE DUMPLINGS

Using a standard pastry recipe, roll the pastry 1/2-inch thick and cut into 6-inch squares. Wash and peel 6 whole medium-sized cooking apples; remove cores and place one apple in the center of each pastry square. Fill each core-hole with brown sugar, and a dash of cinnamon and nutmeg, and 1/2 tsp. butter or margarine. Dampen edges of pastry, and draw up around apples, pressing securely together. With sharp tined fork, prick dough well all over. Place in well-greased drip pan. Bake in hot oven (450° F.) 15 minutes. Reduce heat to moderate oven (350° F.) and bake 45 minutes or until done, basting every 15 minutes with syrup made by boiling 1 cup granulated sugar, 1/2 cup water, and 2 tbsps. butter or margarine. When baked, frost tops immediately with medium-thick powdered sugar butter icing.
