

Ashland Grizzlies Hold Pelicans to 12-12 Tie

Two Klamath Touchdowns Called Back By Referee in Whistle Tooting Tilt

ASHLAND, Oct. 7 (Special)—In a weird game mixed with thrills and penalties, the scrappy Ashland Grizzlies came from behind to hold the favored Klamath Pelicans to a 12-12 tie here Friday night.

Coach Marble Cook's Klamaths got off to a rousing start

	Klamath	Ashland
Yardage Rushing	181	83
Yardage Passing	75	122
Total Yardage	256	205
First Downs Rushing	11	8

Passes Attempted	4	23
Ball Lost on Fumbles	1	1

and built up a 12 to 0 lead before Ashland's passes and reverses began penetrating the Pelican defense. At half-time it was 12 to 6. In the last half, which bogged down into a whistle-tooting marathon for Referee John Roberts, an intended Pelican touchdown pass was intercepted and the play carried to the other end of the field, where Ashland scored. The Grizzlies had the ball and were threatening again at the final gun.

Klamath's first score came in the initial quarter. Wirth, Pelguard who had a great night, recovered a blocked punt on the Grizzly 27. Buddy Blehn packed the mail most of the way to the goal line, punching a final nine for the score.

In the second quarter a beautiful pass, Perkins to Berry, was good for 47 yards and a touchdown that made it 12 to 0. Klamath had started the drive from the Ashland 19. In that series of plays, Blehn, whose power drives were gaining consistency, was injured in the leg, and he was in only for short periods for the remainder of the evening.

Late in the second quarter, Ashland began a drive from its own 32. A long pass, Reedy to Merriman, went to the Klamath 32, a reverse put the pigskin on the 26, and another reverse was good to the 16. Three smashes went to the seven, and from there Jandreau passed to Samuelson for the score. It was 12 to 6 at half-time.

In the third quarter, Klamath got to the Ashland 15 where Berry fumbled and the ball was lost. About that time, Referee Roberts got going with his whistle, and from then on there were more penalties than plays. Roberts penalized the Grizzlies back to their own five, from where they kicked in desperation to the Klamath 28.

The Pelicans then fell into official disfavor, and were penalized back to midfield. They got up to the Grizzly 27 and lost the ball on downs.

Ashland penalties and a bad pass from center set the Grizzlies back on their own 10. They kicked to the 40. Line plays took the Pelicans to the Ashland 18. At that point, Sever of Ashland intercepted a Klamath pass near the goal line.

Sever galloped down the field, Pelicans after him. Pelican Quarterback Perkins almost caught him, but was clipped out of the tackle by a Grizzly on the 10. The penalty nullified Sever's score, and a moment later Kinsey of Klamath recovered a Grizzly fumble on the Klamath 2.

Klamath Fullback Hicks' punt went out to the Klamath 20, and from there Reedy's pass to Samuelson was good for the second Ashland touchdown, and the score was even.

The game ended two minutes later after Perkins had been smothered on an attempt to pass and Ashland had recovered deep in Klamath territory.

In the course of the game two Klamath touchdowns were called back by Referee Roberts, reportedly a junior high school instructor at Ashland. Alone, among the officials, Roberts' address was not given on the game program.

Klamath trouble defensively was blamed in part on the controversial question of a required pause in the Ashland shift. Whether Ashland was making the required one-second pause was argued through three quarters of the game. In the last quarter, Referee Roberts began calling penalties on Ashland on this point.

About 1000 saw the game.

K-Boys Take Grants Pass Eleven 25-0

Dave Bridge's freshmen-juniors high eleven lived up to and beyond expectations in their grid battle with the boys from Grants Pass Friday afternoon at Modoc field. The K-boys topped the visitors 25-0 with an amazing versatility of attack that featured both long aeriels followed by dashing touchdowns gallops and straight line bucks that picked up plenty of yardage.

The first score came in the initial period when Quarterback Dotson heaved a pass to Virgil Nelson good for 20 yards and a touchdown. Hill's attempted place-kick failed.

The Dave Bridge eleven tallied next in the second stanza, again via the aerial route, when Dotson faded back and let one go to Mosby, who gathered the oval in and travelled into the end zone behind fine blocking in a play good for 50 yards of yardage. The attempted conversion was ruled no good.

In the third quarter the boys once more took to the air to score when Dotson threw a forward from his own 30 to Epley, who had gone wide on the play, on the middle stripe and the speedy left half galloped the remaining 50 yards for the third touchdown. Hill's extra point attempt was good.

Just to keep the record straight and score in every quarter, Dotson swept around his own right end in the final frame and out-ran the secondary for 85 yards and the final touchdown of the game.

Generals After State Grid Title

Grant Gridders Roll Over Jefferson High Team 19-0 Before Top Crowd of 6000

By The Associated Press
A flock of Oregon's high school football teams maintained undefeated and untied records Friday as the Grant Generals of Portland, with a smashing 19 to 0 conquest of Jefferson, served notice on the rest of the state that they are in deadly earnest in seeking their second straight state championship.

The state's top crowd—more than 6000—saw Coach Jerrie Lillie's T-formation crew win handily from a Jefferson eleven that was expected to offer stiffer competition. It was Grant's third victory in as many starts.

The Bend Lava Bears ran their winning streak to four with a 20-13 victory over The Dalles and La Grande also made it four in a row by defeating Enterprise.

In the Willamette valley's No-Name league, the Albany Bulldogs opened their season by blanking Salem's Vikings, 7 to 0.

Hill's kick split the up-rights to make the final count 25-0.

The Grants Pass team had fumble-lis during the entire game and dropped the ball on a rough average of every third play when it was in their possession.

The whole local eleven looked good in the contest and Doyle and Berry were outstanding for the Grants Pass outfit.

on Fullback Gene Verone's second-period touchdown on a three-yard line smash. Thirty-five hundred saw the contest, played at Albany.

Another No-Name loop clash saw the Milwaukie Maroons edge Corvallis, 14 to 12 with a last minute passing attack.

Astoria's Fishermen captured their second game in two tries, downing Ilwaco, Wash., 19 to 0. Their goal line has not been crossed.

Columbia Prep of Portland whipped St. Helens' 26 to 14 in its third win in a row and Gresham overwhelmed Camas, Wash., 44 to 13 for its third straight victory. Central Catholic of Portland also notched No. 3, with an 18 to 0 conquest and Woodburn, smacking Canby, 32 to 0, hung up their second consecutive win.

The only other team besides Astoria to remain unscored on was Roosevelt of Portland, which knocked off Benson Tech, 8 to 0, for victory number 3. The Teddies' win tied them with Grant for first place in the Portland loop.
