

MRS. HENRY S. FAUS AND SON, "Butch," Henry Jr., who is just nine months old, are here in Klamath Falls with Major Henry Faus, who is recreation officer at the Marine barracks.

SOCIETY

BY PHYLLIS COLLIER

MRS. RALPH R. MACARTNEY, JR. and nine-month-old Susan Farrell arrived from Portland with Mr. Macartney three weeks ago and will make their home here in Klamath Falls.

DAR Official Visits Here

Mrs. Burton B. Lowry, Medford, state regent of the Daughters of the American Revolution for Oregon, paid her official visit to the Klamath Falls chapter, Monday evening. The meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Charles Joseph Martin, past regent of the chapter. Addressing the members, Mrs. Lowry outlined her projects for the year in Oregon and gave interesting details of the meeting of the continental congress in New York last April. Speaking of the accomplishments of the Daughters in war work, Mrs. Lowry said: "No other organization can approach what the DAR has accomplished in war work."

Donations of equipment, blood plasma, and many other projects. Mrs. Lowry left on the 11 o'clock train Monday night for Portland to attend a DAR state meeting, and from there to go to Washington, D. C., for the national board and regent's meeting.

Mrs. Bert C. Thomas, chapter regent, presided during the business session, and introduced Mrs. Lowry. Mrs. Hugh T. Millmore entertained with three numbers: "The Eagle," "Improvisation," by Edward Dowell and "Romance," by Forge.

November 13th meeting will be at the home of Mrs. O. Roenicke, when Mrs. E. Geary, Mrs. R. E. Wright and Mrs. L. H. Stone will present a Pan-American Symposium. Members who attended the evening meeting were: Mrs. Bert C. Thomas, Mrs. Hugh T. Millmore, Mrs. Wilbur A. Jones, Mrs. Robert A. Stenberg, Mrs. Lloyd Goble, Elmer H. Balsiger, Mrs. Logan Black, Mrs. W. D. Hayden, Mrs. C. E. McClellan, Mrs. Charles Joseph Martin, Mrs. Helen Mueller, Mrs. A. Nitschelm, Mrs. Robert E. Schiefel, Mrs. L. H. Stone, Mrs. B. W. Zollman, Mrs. Evans, Mrs. Wilbur A. Jones, Mrs. D. V. Kuykendall, Mrs. R. E. Wright, and Alice Johnson.

Mrs. A. J. Lyle was a special guest of the hostess Wednesday afternoon when Mrs. J. Calvin Hunt entertained for the pleasure of members of the Art Neeser club, at her home on the street.

Mr. J. F. Goeller, 234 South Riverside, will be hostess to the Wednesday afternoon, October 18.

LAURA KIMBALL, attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Warner Kimball, 4678 Crosby, Klamath Falls, to Phillip Zalesky, of the United States army, was announced recently at Laura's sorority, Alpha Delta Pi, at the University of Oregon in Eugene.

MRS. BURTON B. LOWRY, Oregon state regent of the Daughters of the American Revolution, was here Monday to pay her official visit to Eulaloia chapter.

Mrs. A. B. Epperson was unanimously elected to serve as president for the coming club year, at the annual election of officers held Friday afternoon for the Aloha Past Matrons club. Serving with Mrs. Epperson will be Mrs. Otto F. Kenschot, vice president; Mrs. Fred Cofer, secretary and treasurer.

Mrs. Epperson appointed Mrs. Wilbur A. Jones to serve as publicity chairman for the year, and Mrs. H. G. Wortley to supervise the playing of cards. Mrs. O. R. Holloway will visit the sick during the month of October.

In behalf of the club, Mrs. Epperson presented a gift to Mrs. Elizabeth Norris, retiring president. Mrs. Norris presented to each of her officers and her publicity chairman, a pint of rich, country cream.

The hostess committee for the next regular meeting, the last Friday in October is Mrs. Marjorie Hanks, Mrs. Elmer H. Balsiger, Mrs. J. I. Beard, and Mrs. H. W. Bathiany.

LEAVING — After making her home in Klamath Falls for fourteen years, popular Mrs. Raymond W. Cooney will move with her husband to Seattle where he has accepted a Fellowship at the University of Washington.

"Philippines" Topic For October Program

The Klamath Falls Woman's Library club will hold its first meeting of the year on Monday, October 9, at 2 o'clock in the main auditorium of the city library. October's program will be on "The Philippines", and will be conducted by Chester A. Davis, chief warrant officer, stationed at the Marine Barracks here. Mr. Davis has lived in the Philippines for many years, where he organized and trained native troops. He is very familiar with the country, the customs and language of the natives. Mr. Davis served with the Philippine Expedition in the Mexican war and in World War I with a machine gun battalion. He has been decorated by British, French and American governments.

A large exhibit of objects from the South Pacific and the Philippines, which belong to Mrs. George Hillis, will be on display at the meeting. Mrs. A. O. Roenicke will also bring her collection of South Sea articles. Anyone having objects which could be added to the display are urged to bring them at 9:30 Monday morning to the basement of the city library, where there will be someone to receive them. President Mrs. Glenn Kent said.

Mrs. Guy Harmon, membership chairman of the group, urges all members to attend this meeting and pay their $2 yearly dues. She reminds all who are interested in belonging to the club that a charge of 50 cents is made for each individual meeting if yearly dues have not been paid, and that they may save by paying the full amount now.

Harvest Dance Committee Chosen

Plans for the big Harvest dance to be held at the Reames Golf and Country club on Saturday, October 21, are being made, and the dance committee has been chosen. Mr. and Mrs. William G. Hagelstein will head the committee, and working with them will be Mr. and Mrs. John Houston, Mr. and Mrs. John Shaw, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Bishop and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Gerber.

According to present plans, the dance will be held from 10 to 2, and coffee and donuts will be served. Decorations will be corn stalks and pumpkins, in keeping with the fall theme, and prize dances are being planned. Orchestra arrangements have not yet been completed. Formalities will be in order for women.

The local Council of Church Women held their first meeting of the fall in the parlors of the First Methodist church on Monday, October 2. The executive board met at 10:30 a. m. and at noon there was a paper sack lunch with a general business meeting and program at 2.

The chief subject of discussion in the business meeting was the collection of clothing for overseas relief, October 14. Mrs. R. P. Ellingson, chairman of the projects committee, is in charge.

Another subject of discussion was of ways in which the churches may help the USO. Mrs. Ellingson will also head this work. Hazel Morrison announced the World Community Day, to be held November 3.

Mrs. Dick Reeder sang "Stranger of Galilee" with Mrs. A. H. Dennison playing her accompaniment, and Mrs. Paul Edwards reviewed "Church Woman," the council magazine. Following the program tea was served, with Mrs. Victor Phillips and Mrs. D. T. Barnett pouring.

It is hoped that anyone with clothing to give for overseas relief will call or contact Mrs. Ellingson.

Evelyn Genevieve Pranke of Chicago, Ill., and Richard John Avetta, who is stationed at the Marine Barracks here, were married in the Klamath Lutheran church on Saturday afternoon, September 30.

Morse Honored At Friday Tea

Welcoming Wayne L. Morse, republican candidate for United States senator, to Klamath Falls, a tea was given in the Pelican party room on Friday afternoon, October 6. During the afternoon over 75 Klamath men and women had an opportunity to talk informally with Mr. Morse and to ask questions about the principles for which he stands. A short speech to the entire group also was given by the republican leader.

The tea table was laid with a heavy lace cloth, and set with silver tea and coffee services and two large silver candelabras. Fall flowers were used for the centerpiece.

Mrs. Grace Wells was in charge of tea arrangements, assisting Phillip Hitchcock, chairman of the Klamath county Morse for Senator committee.

Pouring were Mrs. Dale West of Merrill, Mrs. Rose Poole, Mrs. Marshall E. Cornett and Mrs. L. A. Murphy.

Mrs. A. F. Blocklinger of Chiloquin, Mrs. Phillip Hitchcock, Mrs. William Hackler of Fort Klamath, Mrs. J. E. Whittlach of Malin, Mrs. Rose Poole, Mrs. Dale West, Mrs. John Reber of Malin, Mrs. Charles DeLap, Mrs. Ida Grimes, Mrs. Frank Z. Howard and Mrs. Carroll C. Colvin received guests with Mr. Morse and assisted about the rooms.

Rebekah Lodge

MERRILL — Literary night was observed at the October second meeting of the Merrill Rebekah lodge. Mary Pope, chairman, was assisted by Mrs. Winnie Offield, Mrs. Millicent West and Mrs. Harriett Fotheringham.

The lodge voted to contribute $5 to the county community war fund drive and to prepare a Christmas box for some boy in the armed services, still in the United States, who otherwise might be forgotten. Members are asked to bring a small gift to be enclosed or 25 cents to the next meeting. Mrs. Geraldine Cox will prepare a box for a soldier overseas.

Mrs. Myrtle Martin, charter member of the local lodge, was greeted as a new member after re-instatement. Mrs. Martin is a Klamath county pioneer.

Penny auctions will be featured during the remainder of the year and articles for this event will be welcomed.

Social committee chairmen who will serve during the coming months are Mrs. Mae Anderson, November; Mrs. Hazel McNeill, December; Mrs. Mary Pope, January; Mrs. Edith Kandra, February; Mrs. Lena Buck, March; and Mrs. Georgia Moore, April.

The September birthday committee will be hosts at the next regular meeting, with Mrs. Audrey Lewis, chairman, to be assisted by Mrs. Myrtle Beasley, J. Leland Pope and J. W. Reeder.

Mrs. Elizabeth Ramsby, Klamath Falls, was a guest.

Lodge meetings will begin in the future at 7:30 o'clock instead of 8 p. m.

Bridge Luncheon

For several members of the youngsters set who will leave for their respective colleges soon, a collective "going away" party was given by Dorthea Ellingson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Ellingson on Thursday, October 5.

After having luncheon together at the Pelican grill, the girls played bridge at Dorthea's home on Pacific Terrace. Merion Albrecht held the high score.

Guests were Winnifred Lamm, Rose Macartney, Ann Mueller, Joan Campbell, Barbara Hood, and Janice Bubb.

The Saint Paul's Wednesday club gave a party this week at the parish house. Bridge and pinochle were played and Orpha Hudson received the high score. Mrs. William Boifer was low.

Present at the affair were Mrs. C. M. Holcama, Mrs. James E. Swanson, Jr., Mrs. Oliver E. Moens and Mrs. Ray W. Cowles.

Women of Moose

A card party was sponsored by the Women of the Moose on Friday, September 29. Mrs. Hunt held high score, Mary Parent, second, and the door award went to Mrs. Thorp.

The alumni committee met in the Moose hall Sunday, October 1, for breakfast, followed by the business meeting, and fourteen members were present. The dinner served for the Legion of the Moose at 5 p. m. on Sunday was well attended, fifty being present.

The Women of the Moose met in regular session Tuesday, October 3, at 8 p. m. in the Moose hall, with Senior Regent Frances Waits presiding. The lodge was opened in regular form and the roll call of officers showed all present except the grand regent, Mildred Wilkinson and Argus, Roxy Smith.

The chairman of the publicity, war relief Academy of Friendship, library, membership, Moosehead and Moose-haven committees submitted their reports and they were accepted. Under the good of the chapter Mrs. Curtis received the special award and Jessie Barham the flower award.

Plans were made for a birthday dinner to commemorate the twenty-fourth anniversary of the founding of the organization, and all charter members are invited to attend. Following the business meeting lodge adjourned to meet October 17, at which time Mary Capps, chairman of the alumni committee will present her chapter night program.

Janice Bubb, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest M. Bubb, 405 High, will leave Sunday morning for Stanford university. She plans to graduate at the end of the fall term.

Military Prom Held at Club

Reames country club was the scene of the festive Navy-Marine Prom held Friday night, September 29, which was attended by a large group of navy and marine officers and their wives and girl friends.

The large formal dance was put on through the efforts of the Navy Wives club, headed by Mrs. John Girdler, who acted as official hostess.

An autumn theme was carried out in the decorations with cat-tails and orange crepe paper streamers, and a large American flag was displayed across the far end of the room.

Music was furnished by the marine orchestra, led by T/Sgt. Jack Zamzow, and refreshments were served. A waltz contest was held, and was won by Lt. and Mrs. J. Miller Babcock.

Highlight of the dance was a grand march, led by Lt. Genevieve Albers, a navy nurse, who was elected queen of the prom earlier in the evening, and her escort.

Germany" will be the topic discussed at the meeting of the Delta Gamma chapter of the Delphian society, which will be held at the home of Mrs. Horace E. Getz on Pacific Terrace on Tuesday morning, October 10, at 9:45 a. m.

Your Red Cross Needs Help Making Bandages.

Whytal's
DISTINCTIVE APPAREL
Phone 8222 901 Main

Have you given to the Community Fund?

Whytal's
DISTINCTIVE APPAREL
Phone 8222 901 Main

WATER NYMPHS BATH LUXURIES
Three gay bewitching fragrances
Virgin Flower, Spring Goddess, Woodland Shrine,
In a series of enchanting bath preparations: toilet water—
—sold at $1.50 plus tax.