times in the second stanza, with Edmonston accounting for two consecutive first downs for the Ramblers in four plays. The Californians then tumbled but were forced to kick. Spook connected with two passes, one good for 21 yards and the other adding 20 more, before the Leathernecks could stop the drive and the half ended with the ball in the hands of the California eleven on the midfield stripe.

LeRond kicked off to Chapin to start the second half, but there was a fumble on the play and the Ramblers recovered on the Leatherneck 42. After a couple of Rambler penalties, interspersed with long running gains, Edmonston galloped 19 yards for a California first down on the marine 21. The marines held at this point and took the ball over on downs. Hughes smashed through for 10 and a first down and followed up on the next play with another 10-yard drive for two first downs in two plays. Fadden made 2 and Hughes added 4. Fadden bulled his way through for 5 and another first down and it began to look as if the marines were really going to get rolling, but two plays later, Spook intercepted Fadden's aerial and the Leatherneck threat was stopped.

The ball again changed hands and LeRond booted a nice kick for the Ramblers that was downed on the marine 10-yard stripe. The Leathernecks failed to gain and Roy Walters kicked to Sheppard, who was downed on the marine 31. The Ramblers made it a first down on the 20 and Spook threw a pass to Gray, who was good for 12 yards and a first down on the 8. Three attempts netted 7 yards and the quarter ended with the ball resting on the 1 yard line.

On fourth down, Spook took the ball on a quick opening quarterback sneak and ploughed for 10 yards and a first down. Gray's dropkick for the extra point was good. SCORE: RAMBLERS 13, MARINES 0.

The ball shifted hands twice and then the marines rolled up a first down with Hughes picking up 6 and LaPagia passing to Albritton for 8. The Leathernecks were forced to kick and Hughes punted out-of-bounds on the Cal 32. The Ramblers kicked back after two plays and the marines tried desperately to connect with some aerials as the clock ticked off the final minutes, but the attempt failed and the ball went over to the Californians on downs. Raucel cut through for 13 yards and a first down and the ball was on the Cal 40 as the gun barked the end of the game with the count, 13-0—the Ramblers side of the ledger.

Edmonston showed up well along with Spook for the Ramblers, and Albritton turned in a capable performance, with Hughes for the marine eleven. The boys are coming closer every game and maybe they will really hit the jackpot in the next one.

Double Main Rassing Go Friday Night

There will be another double main event affair this Friday night on the rassing bill at the armory.

"Blood and Guts" Davidson will have the dubious pleasure of tangling with the cruel "Grey Mask" in one of the events, and Jack Kizer will match holds with a newcomer to the northwest, Tony Ross, in the other.

It is reported to be a rugged individual who uses the rough stuff to attain his tumbles, so Jollin' Jack may be in for an exciting evening. Ross has drawn large houses all over the country and intends to cut a swath through the northwest while depending each and every one of his opponents.

"Blood and Guts," although not long on science, may be just the type of grappler to toss the hooded heel, which would be to the utmost satisfaction of the majority of the fans. The "Mask" will resort to his vicious head butts if all else fails to gain a decision over the ex-marine.

The opening bout has not yet been decided, but will be announced soon, according to Mack Lillard, promoter.

If this card turns out to be as terrific as the last one, there will be a hot time in Klamath Falls Friday night.

Cal Bears Hold USC To 6-6 Tie

Willamette Scores First But Washington Wins 40-6; San Diego Wins Over UCLA

By The Associated Press
Pacific coast college and service football teams engage in a full schedule next weekend with six games on tap.

The strong University of California Bears, winners over St. Mary's Gaels and University of California at Los Angeles, plays Coach A. A. Stagg's College of the Pacific at Berkeley this Saturday. This promises a treat for pugknif devotees.

Another good battle is in store for central California fans as the St. Mary's Navy Pre-Flight eleven plays the University of Southern California at Fresno. Farther south at Los Angeles, the Uclans meet the hustling youngsters from St. Mary's college.

In the northern sector, the University of Washington Huskies again tangle with the weaker Whitman college team at Walla Walla.

The University of Nevada Vandals will again play the Tonopah Army Base at Tonopah, Nev.

The windup of the college schedule brings together the Compton, Calif. Junior college team against the Arizona State Teachers at Flagstaff, Ariz.

The underrated California Bears battled to a 6 to 6 tie with the favored Southern California Trojans in last Saturday's chief all-college contest.

The strong Bear line held the vaunted Trojan offense well in check and unleashed an attack that pushed over a touchdown in the second quarter and drove to the one-foot line in the fourth quarter before relinquishing the ball on downs.

Gus White, booting two placekicks conversions, gave the San Diego Naval Training Center a 14 to 12 win over the UCLA Bruins at San Diego.

Johnny Roesch, hero of the Bruin last-minute rally which gave the Uclans a 13-13 tie with USC two weeks ago, again sparked the comeback of the college team, which failed of a tie by margin of the points after touchdowns.

Washington's Huskies spotted Willamette six points early in a game played Saturday at Portland and then powered over six touchdowns to win, 40 to 6. It was the Huskies third victory over minor opposition.

In an all-service contest, the Fourth Air Force Flyers of March field downed the Fleet City Navy team from Pleasanton, Calif., 39 to 0, in a game played at Riverside, Indian Jack Jacobs, formerly of Oklahoma U., took the opening kickoff and ran 90 yards to a touchdown.

Cardinals Win Fifth Game 2-0

World Series Strikeout Record Set by Opposing Pitchers With 22 Total

By JACK HAND
ST. LOUIS, Oct. 9 (AP)—Luke Sewell's Browns are ready for another last ditch stand today after a season of comeback successes but the Cardinals have them groggy, trailing 3-2 in games, and desperately needing a victory by Nelson Potter to save off a knockout punch. Elmer Max Lanier or Blix Donnelly will attempt to do the job for Billy Southworth's National leaguers.

Mort Cooper's 12-strikeout job in yesterday's 2-0 Red Bird triumph was a blow between the eyes to the Browns' little hopes and the series' largest crowd of 36,668 which came to cheer for the underdogs, went home fearful that the end was near.

Not since Howard Ehmke emerged from the shadows of the Philadelphia Athletics' bullpen to strike out 13 Chicago Cubs and set a series mark 15 years ago has a pitcher been able to fan 12 men in one game in the annual classic. Never before have two pitchers like Cooper and Denny Galehouse whiffed a total of 22 victims in one series afternoon. The old mark of 21 was held jointly by the A's and Cubs of 1929 and the White Sox and Cubs of 1906.

Ray Sanders' clout atop the roof of the right field pavilion and Danny Littwiler's long distance into the unscreened stands past the 400-foot marker provided the only scoring of an exciting game.

Big Mort's defeatist complex about the American league was just a rumor this time as the husky righthander from Ather-ton, Mo., fast balled the Browns back to the bench. The Sewell crew kept pecking away, here and there, collecting seven hits, but when the blue chips were down, Cooper had it.

He raved one of his best pitching exhibitions by throwing the ball past Al Zarilla and Mark Christman after the American leaguers had loaded the sacks with one out. They said his curve was one breaking and Southworth had Teddy Wilks in the bullpen for the fast ball. Mort threw that inning never needed a curve for help.

SERIES NOTES

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 9 (AP)—The Browns dressing room is lined with 25 extra-large silver-plated horseshoes, gift of a St. Louis brewer which told the club it needed them more than the horses did. "We've gotten literally hundreds of gifts," Manager Sewell said, "but I got the National League's silver dollar that might come in handy during the long winter."

With five games of the 1944 classic now history, a player has yet to try to steal a base. No six or seven game series has ever been played in which at least one man from one of the two participating teams didn't steal successfully. To which the Browns' rooters jeer—"and they ridiculed our catching staff!"

Stan Musial's fumble yesterday was the first Cardinal error of the series. Previous to that play the Redbirds had handled 172 chances in the field without a miscue. Five times, the National leaguers have a good chance of setting a new record for a six or seven game series.

Airplanes of all varieties—from single seat sightseeing ship to one of the newest four-engine bombers—have "buzzed" Sportsman's park for a free look at the games. One time two participating teams didn't steal successfully. To which the Browns' rooters jeer—"and they ridiculed our catching staff!"

Hopp, batting .174 for the series, is the strikeout champ of the first five games, whiffing seven times in 23 trips to the plate.

The pitchers in this series are holding to the old theory that hurlers never hit. In 26 attempts members of the Cards' and Browns' mound staff have made only one hit, Galehouse's single in the seventh inning of yesterday's game.

London's residents spend $300,000,000 annually on "slimming" and other beauty treatments in normal times.

NIMROD NOTES
L. W. Soukup, 505 Pacific Terrace, bagged an antelope in the Guano lake area near Adel recently. The antler measured 16 1/2 inches from skull to tip and Al Cummings, local taxidermist, says it is the biggest he has ever seen. It is reported that there was some time ago, measuring 17 1/2 inches, and as far as can be ascertained, this is a world's record.

Jack Miller, local hunter, hit the jackpot last Sunday when he killed a 16-pound blacktail weighing 218 pounds dressed. Jack bagged his deer in the Long Prairie region.

GRUNTS AND GROANS
We still don't know for sure the identity of the "Grey Mask," but he could be, and we only say could be, a rugged guy that used the handle of King Kone in California mat circles.

Whoever he is, and wherever he hails from, he possesses one of the hardest knoks we have ever seen in the cranium-crunching business. Don't think he conceals anything under his hood as is suspected, but just has a darn hard done.

Wally Moss really did a bang-up job of refereeing Friday night and deserves congratulations. It's a tearing task to separate the body benders when they go on the prowl in earnest. So take a bow, Wally.

QUOTE-UNQUOTE
Our quarterback club is getting well-deserved recognition from darn near all over the state. Here is a quote out of Al Lightner's pillar in the Oregon Statesman from Salem:
"So after the 33-0 shellacking the prep Pelicans lost from Great, which was certain to draw repercussions, it was hinted, the largest turnout in history of the club showed up at the next meeting to pledge even more support to the team and Coach Marble Cook!"

Al goes on to say that a similar organization could be used in the capital city. As far as that's concerned, an outfit like our Quarterback club could be used to advantage in any town or city that is really interested in their football and their boys.

GOLF SHOTS
The mixed two ball foursome matches at Reames must be completed by October 20, according to word received from John West, tourney chairman. Two cups will be awarded the winners the night of the Harvest dance, October 21, held at the local club.

There will also be another servicemen's clambake on the local links Thursday afternoon, October 19. The same sextets will perform as did upon the previous occasion when the gentlemen kept the situation well in hand, but the navy and army will be out for revenge in what will be a dinger of a match.

In the championship flight settled Sunday, Sgt. Leslie Leal walked off with the crown by out-stroking Earl Weimar, 3 and 2. Martin Swanson took the measure of Bob Sprout in the first flight, and the winner of the second flight is not yet known, but will be announced soon.

PEOPLE INTERESTED
NEW YORK, Oct. 7 (AP)—The New York Telephone company had 106,800 calls for the result of the first game of the All-St. Louis world series Wednesday in contrast to 83,300 a year ago for the outcome of the first game which involved the New York Yankees and the St. Louis Cardinals.

Top number of calls ever received for a sports result was 118,171 for the final game of the 1943 world series.

Baker and Pendleton reported a steady influx of venison. Four hunters have lost their lives since the deer season opened.

Fighting Irish Whip Tulane 26-0

Purdue Rolls Over Illinois While Ohio State Conquers Iowa; Wisconsin Victorious

By HAROLD CLAASSEN
NEW YORK, Oct. 9 (AP)—Baseball hasn't forsaken the limelight yet, but already the football picture for this third war-time season has been clarified to the extent of determining the haves and have-nots.

Although service teams have thrown some mighty blocks in the two grid campaigns since Pearl Harbor, the coming season may be their best.

Already North Carolina Pre-Flight has polished off the U. S. Naval Academy squad and Duke, each a leader in its district and the Middles a distinct candidate for national honors.

Randolph Field crushed Rice and Texas on successive Saturdays with a combined scoring total of 101 points to 6.

In addition, there are the Iowa Seahawks, Great Lakes Bluejackets and the highly publicized Second Air Force Super-bombers are willing and more than able to defend themselves on the gridiron.

In strictly collegiate circles the same hierarchy apparently will prevail.

Notre Dame, last year's national champion, subdued Tulane Saturday, 26 to 0, for its second straight victory and this Saturday takes on Dartmouth, 20 to 6 victim of Pennsylvania, at Boston.

Tulsa has streaked to two straight, and stands beside the Irish as the potential best among the independents.

Purdue, which disposed of Illinois by 35 to 19, Ohio State, 34 to 0 victor over Iowa; and Wisconsin, which downed Marquette, 21 to 2, loom strongest in the Big Ten. Purdue, co-champion with Michigan a year ago, host to Iowa Pre-Flight on Saturday, while the Badgers and Buckeyes collide at Madison.

Penn, who takes on William and Mary next, Army and Navy have their usual places atop the eastern heap. The Cadets used everyone on their roster while downing previously unbeaten Brown, 59 to 7, and Navy pushed aside Penn State, 55 to 14. This week, Army engages Pitt and the Middles are hosts to Duke's twice-beaten but powerful eleven.

Georgia Tech, winner over North Carolina, and Tennessee ruled in the southeast circuit while Duke and Wake Forest are tops in the southern loop. Tennessee, back on the grid map after a brief war-time hibernation, already has defeated two conference foes and Saturday has Florida as its guest. Tech opposes Auburn, 7 to 0 victor of Fort Benning's 4th infantry team Saturday.

Texas and Rice, despite their drubbing by Randolph Field continue to "Southwest conference favorites although both are busy with non-conference foes this week with the Longhorns entertaining Oklahoma and the Owls playing Tulane while Southern Methodist has the task of trying to stop the Flyers.

Moore, Sewell Should Thank Any Giuliani

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 9 (AP)—If Gene (The Sphinx) Moore, of St. Louis Browns outfielder, ever speaks more than three words at a time (his record at present), he might thank Angelo Giuliani for a share in the world series currency.

And if the silent Texan keeps getting on base in front of First Baseman George McQuinn, Manager Luke Sewell might thank Giuliani for the extra swag that goes to the winner of baseball's biggest show.

It was Giuliani who told Clark Griffith, owner of the Washington Senators, last spring, that he didn't appreciate being traded from a likely pennant winner to a sure loser. He would quit baseball, Giuliani averred, rather than play with the lowly Browns.

The "Old Fox" had to send the Browns another ball player in lieu of the recalcitrant receiver who had been swapped for Rick Ferrell, another backstop. Moore was it.

Film City Rangers Win 38-0

Los Angeles Wildcats Roll Over Portland Rockets 26-7

By The Associated Press
The Hollywood Rangers near the half-way mark of the new American Professional Football league undefeated. The strong Film City eleven—powered by five former University of Southern California Trojans—racked up their sixth victory of a 14-game schedule by crushing the hapless Oakland Hornets, 28-0, Sunday.

Presaging the Rangers' first real test, their opponents of next Sunday, the Los Angeles Wildcats, rolled over the Portland Rockets, 26 to 7, behind the pass pitching of St. Mary's Andy Marefos. The win was the first for the Wildcats.

In the league's other game the San Diego Gunners edged out the Los Angeles Mustangs, 7 to 6, the winning margin being a dropkick conversion by Halfback Bob Heas.

Although operating without their backfield star, Steve Bagarus from Notre Dame, the San Diego Bombers flattened the Oakland Giants, 21-0, in the Giants' 1944 debut in the Pacific coast pro league. Joe Manski subbed for Bagarus and tossed passes for the first tally.

While the powerhouse San Francisco Packers were tramping the Hollywood Wolves, 26-7, the other northern member of the same league, San Jose's Mustangs, rallied to defeat the Los Angeles Bulldogs, 14-3. The Mustangs overcame a first quarter goal advantage by scoring touchdowns in the second and fourth periods.

The Packers rang up 19 points in the first half in a power display, but the game's highlight was staged by Hollywood when St. Mary's Harry Mattos arched a 50-yard pass to Sandy Sanford for a third period touchdown.
