Genevieve McGee Wed in Ashland

One of autumn's most interesting weddings took place when Corporal Genevieve McGee, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Allen O. McGee of Ashland, was married to Staff Sergeant Melvin Baker Kipp, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Kipp of Evanston, Ill., Tuesday evening, October 3, in the Methodist church of Ashland.

The impressive double ring ceremony was read by Dr. George W. Bruce before an altar banked with fern and large baskets of chrysanthemums, cream colored gladioli and Michaelmas daisies and lighted by grouped ivory tapers.

Mrs. Frank Davis at the organ played Tchaikovsky's "Concerto in B-Flat Minor," while Marilyn McLellan in pale blue taffeta and Flo Ann Perkins in shell pink taffeta, lighted the many tapers. "O Perfect Love," was sung by Mrs. Robert Mackay, and Debussy's "Clare de Lune" just preceding the entrance of the bridal party to the strains of the "Bridal Chorus" from Lohengrin. During the ceremony, Mrs. Mackay sang "The Lord's Prayer" by Malotte, and "Canzone Amoroza" by Nevin, was played softly. Mendelssohn's "Wedding March" was used for the recessional.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore white lace over taffeta, a lace Dutch cap and finger-tip veil, and carried a bouquet of pink rosebuds and white pom-pom chrysanthemums with white ribbon streamers to which were fastened pink baby roses. Mrs. Colver F. Anderson, sister of the bride, was matron of honor and was gowned in rose colored lace. She carried a muff with a heart-shaped shield of white gladioli and pink rosebuds. The groom was attended by Staff Sergeant Nye H. Munson of the Portland army air base. John S. Billings was the usher. A reception for the bridal party and guests was given in the candle-lighted parlors of the church, decorated in pink and white dahlias. The lace-covered tables were attractive with crystal bowls filled with Cecil Brunners, pink roses and fern. Eva Burkharter of Klamath Falls, served the wedding cake after it was cut by the bride. Mrs. Hubert Kidd, also of Klamath Falls, poured. They were assisted by Laura Billings and Betty Sue Reed.

Sgt. and Mrs. Kipp left for Palo Alto, Calif., where Mrs. Kipp is taking her internship in physical therapy at Dibble hospital. The bride was formerly employed in the city schools as a physical education instructor, resigning her position in May, 1942, to become a member of the WAC. While here she was active in first aid classes and served as a volunteer instructor. Sgt. Kipp will return from Palo Alto to the Portland army air base,
