Case of Missing Tokens Unsolved

PORTLAND, Oct. 17 (A)—The question of what happens to ration books is apparently destined tion books is apparently destined to remain forever in mystery.

The blue tokens, whose or-iginal disappearance was attri-buted to hoarding housewives, are no longer valid—but they've never turned up.

With the deadline for turning in the tokens expiring last mid-in the tokens expiring last mid-night, Portland bankers report-ed the amount received from grocers was only 50 to 60 per cent of the total originally dis-tributed.

Perhaps, guessed the bankers, the rest got lost. Or dropped in slot machines. Or maybe, said the OPA hopefully, the hoarders got stuck with them.

Portlanders Begin Halloween Worries

PORTLAND, Oct. 17 (P)— Civic and educational officials went briskly to work today on the perennial problem of how to keep the children home on Hal-
