

MARINES GRADUATE FROM CLASSES

Approximately 100 marines completed 13-week vocational courses at Klamath Union school. A second series is scheduled to begin Oct. 23.

They have studied radio repair, welding, machine drafting and sheet metal. Facilities of the local high school, vocational department, typing class has been held at post school building.

Post school courses were emulated by instructors. No certificate or school credits are given for the courses. Credits are given for completion of the course. They are designed for the men enrolled in them. Payment in the service will give them a trade to go into civil life.

Vocational education is a phase of the rehabilitation program for the overseas veterans of the Marine Barracks, inaugurated by Col. H. B. Gralapp, superintendent of the barracks.

They are to be unique in the forces, this schooling was inaugurated by Lt. Gen. A. A. Gralapp, marine corps commander.

They have gone to Klamath Union high every day, six days a week. The schooling was voluntary, and as part of their marine duties.

Eighty different arrangements have been made for the session. Classes will be held six days a week, both day and afternoon, for six and eight weeks. Those enrolling attend class all day, and six men in the afternoon are set for the next session. It is voluntary, and they are attending will be free from Friday afternoon until Monday morning, to give for free time missed in class.

Flashes of Life

By The Associated Press ECHO

KANSAS CITY, Oct. 20 (P)—Pvt. John W. Mitchell, USMC, republican candidate for the U. S. house of representatives, spoke very briefly at a reception by admirers last night.

"Because of marine corps restrictions, I shall make no speeches and no promises," and then he added: "I shall not campaign in the usual sense."

YEP, THERE'S A WAR ON

PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 20 (P)—OPA officials have figured out what has become of a lot of the missing blue ration tokens. They're coming back with coatings of red fingernail polish.

AUTO-AGE

CARROLLTON, Ill., Oct. 20 (P)—Dobbin's favorite parking place in Carrollton for the last 100 years, a hitching rack which surrounds Court House square, is on the way out.

Proposals to remove the relic of horse and buggy days have been before the county board of supervisors many times in the last 20 years, but always there were sufficient protests to keep it. Latest hearing on the proposal brought no objections.

Lytell Criticizes Talk of Galbreath

PORTLAND, Oct. 20 (P)—Statements made Wednesday by John W. Galbreath, president of the National Association of Real Estate Brokers, were criticized yesterday by Norman Lytell, assistant United States attorney general.

Lytell charged in a speech that a condemnation suit pending in Chicago involving land owned by Galbreath inspired the latter to talk of "the need for some relief from bureaucratic domination."

STATES TO NET TEN MILLION ON LIQUOR

PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 20 (P)—Oregon and Washington will net more than $10,000,000 on their last December's purchase of more than 3 1/2 million gallons of Waterfall and Frazier bonded whiskey, Hugh Kirkpatrick, Oregon state liquor commission chairman, said today.

Kirkpatrick made the statement in commenting on an audit of the transactions released by Washington State Auditor Cliff Yelle in Olympia yesterday. The audit disclosed that Harry E. Collin, Toledo, O., who arranged the deal, bought back certain assets at a price $920,048 less than the two state commissions had paid for them.

"Certainly Collin made a lot of money on the deal," Kirkpatrick said. "So did everybody who had a part in it—the stockholders who sold, the state commissions that bought, and the broker. The states made the biggest profit of all. Oregon and Washington will net more than $10,000,000 from the deal."

Former Mail Clerk Sentenced for Embezzling Money

POCATELLO, Idaho, Oct. 20 (P)—Admitted embezzler of money transmitted by mail, John B. Wilson, former railway mail clerk, will be sentenced in federal court here Monday.

Wilson, who pleaded guilty yesterday, was accused of taking money envelopes from the mails to his home, rifling them of coins and currency, and burning the envelopes. His "take" ran into "thousands of dollars," said Paul Dunham, postal inspector who arrested him two months ago.

Wilson had been employed as a mail clerk for 22 years, working between Baker, Ore., and Pocatello.

DEWEY, FOR MAP FREE-FOR-ALL

By JACK BELL

EN ROUTE WITH DEWEY TO PITTSBURGH, Oct. 20 (P)—The presidential campaign appeared to have reached the free-for-all stage today as Gov. Thomas E. Dewey prepared a new attack in a Pittsburgh speech to-night on what he has called President Roosevelt's "one man government" and the president readied an answer.

The republican presidential nominee made last-hour revisions of an address Paul Lockwood, his secretary, said would deal with "what happens to free labor under personal, one-man government and what labor in America has a right to look forward to under a new administration."

This forecast, the same sort of rolling barrage that the New York governor laid down against the new deal administration in his Wednesday night indictment in New York City of President Roosevelt's handling of foreign affairs. And there were indications that Mr. Roosevelt would counter-attack briskly in a speech Saturday night at a dinner there of the Foreign Policy association.

In a speech designed not only to appeal for labor support in his campaign against a fourth term but to bid strongly for Pennsylvania's 25 electoral votes, Dewey is expected to promise the unions direct representation in the cabinet and the consolidation of governmental functions affecting them in the labor department.

200 Service Men's Ballots Arrive Daily

SALEM, Oct. 20 (P)—More than 200 federal war ballots are arriving daily at the state department from overseas service men, Secretary of State Robert S. Farrel Jr., said today.

Farrel predicted that more than 40,000 servicemen would vote in the general election, the vast majority of them using state ballots, which are sent by the servicemen directly to county clerks.

Self-Starvation Costs Girl's Life

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Oct. 20 (P)—Self-induced starvation, caused by playmates' jibes at her weight, caused the death of a 14-year-old Rochester girl, Monroe County Coroner Richard A. Leonardo reports.

Leonardo said last night that Rose Marie MacCallini died Tuesday after she continued a diet that reduced her weight despite a physician's order to halt. He said her weight had been reduced in one year from 188 to 88 pounds.

WAR TO IMPROVE METHODS

SALEM, Oct. 20 (P)—While the war has handicapped communities in their efforts to keep their water supply and sewage systems operating efficiently, nevertheless the war will bring about many improved methods, Dr. Adolph Weinzirl, University of Oregon medical school, told delegates today at the convention of the State Association of Sanitary Officials.

JAYCEE FUN-FROLIC SET FOR WEDNESDAY

The Jaycee Fun-Frolic Revue, a stage show featuring local talent from throughout Klamath basin, is being presented on the stage of the Pelican theatre next Wednesday evening, October 25, at 7:45. The junior chamber of commerce is producing this show and promises lots of variety and fun to all who attend.

Lloyd Lamb of Northwest Theatres stated today that he is proud to avail the facilities of the Pelican theatre to the junior chamber for a show of this type. Response of the public to other stage shows is evidence that the people of this community enjoy live talent and especially local talent, Lamb added.

Tickets are now on sale at Currins for Drugs, Castiberry's, Pelican cafe, and at the Pelican theatre. Proceeds will be used toward the forming of a teen-age group here.

PENDLETON, Oct. 20 (P)—Injuries suffered when he was stepped on by a horse were fatal to Charles Jennings, 2-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Jennings, Pilot Rock.

The tot was playing in the ranch yard with his sister, Mary Lucy, 4, and his brother, James, 3, when the accident occurred.
