

Pauline Suty Returns From Overseas Duty With WACs

MALIN.—After 21 months' overseas duty with the women's auxiliary corps, Sgt. Pauline Suty, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Suty, Malin, returned to her home here Saturday night. She was accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Steve Takacs, Tule Lake.

Suty flew to the United States from Naples, Italy, where she had been stationed for several months. The early part of her overseas service was spent in North Africa, where she was in communication with her family by operating a teletype. The first one to be sent out from the United States was received at 10:30 last night and arriving in New York the following day. The flight was made in transport plane, the last one flown having been remodeled as a passenger plane. Fifteen WACs were on the trip back together. Suty met Tech. Sgt. Ladd Hoyt, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Hoyt, 2965 1/2 Biscuit St., Klamath Falls, who is in the air corps in Italy. Al Sinclair, former KUHHS science instructor, Eddie Kamara, former instructor in Malin, and Sgt. Suty were on the trip. Suty and her mother and father were in Italy.
