The team really had a royal send-off Thursday, with the annual Medford pep assembly. As has become traditional, Mayor John Houston was the guest speaker. He brought with him six members of the Quarterback club this year. Six faculty members entertained the student body with their parody on the old song "Mother," using the words "Medford" and "Klamath."

A competitive yell contest was conducted between classes, the prize being furnished by the coach, Marble Cook. The Quarterbackers acted as contest judges, and judged the seniors the class with the mightiest lungs.

Short talks were heard from two of the Pelicans, Jim Pope and Bill Wilson.

The Future Teachers of America met this week to complete organization, discuss the pins and charters which will be sent for.

The Krater Kubs were given their first assignment Thursday, when they were assigned to write a story on the Medford pep assembly. Whether or not they will be put on the regular Krater staff at this time will be determined by their ability to write. The rest of them will be given

Dodge Dependability COMES BACK TO KLAMATH!

This is one of the first of 300,000 Dodge-built army trucks, which having done its duty, has been brought back to fill a vital need on the home front. This reconnaissance car has been purchased by Seth Waters of Waters Plumbing and Heating Co. to be made into a commercial car. Watch for it on the streets of Klamath Falls.

New Dodge Trucks, of this same dependability, are now being manufactured and are for sale at Lombard Motors. And—for information on purchase of similar Dodge army trucks—See Us at Once!
