CANBY — The E. E. Caldwell ranch was the scene of a charming home wedding on Saturday, September 30, when Barbara Simonson became the bride of Gordon Caldwell.

Given in marriage by her father, Ole Simonson, the bride was lovely in an ivory satin wedding gown which had been worn by her mother-in-law, 31 years ago. From her tiara fell a finger-tip veil, and she carried a bouquet of gardenias, pink roses and forget-me-nots.

Maid of honor was Mrs. Kathleen Quinn, sister of the groom, who wore pink chiffon and carried a bouquet of get-me-nots.

Best man was the brother of the groom, "Bud' Caldwell."
The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Licklider, before a fireplace decorated with white chrysanthemums, maiden-hair fern and tall white candles.

The wedding music was played by Mrs. Kathleen Bruno.
A reception followed the ceremony and a three-tiered wedding cake was served. Pouring was Mrs. Kathleen Huffman.
A mong the guests were Mrs. Frances Caldwell, grandmother of the groom, and the brides grandmother, Mrs. A mand a Bode, who came from Aberdeen, Wash., for the wedding, Other guests were Mrs. Cecil Brown and her daughter Judith, who was a childhood friend of the bride.

After the reception, the young couple left for a short wedding trip in Oregon. On their return, they will make their home at the Caldwell ranch in Camby.

The new Mrs. Caldwell attended Los Angeles City college, and her husband is a graduate of the California State Agricultural college.
