

BPW Club Holds Monday Meeting

Monday evening's dinner meeting and program of the Business and Professional Women's club, October 16, was turned into a pre-election review of candidates and measures. Elenora Weatherford, head of the legislative committee, acted as program chairman, and Hazel Morrison, first vice, presided in the absence of the president, Norma Miller.

State measures that will appear on the November ballot were explained by Coral Sabo, Ellen Upp, Betty Jones, Bertha Geiger and Lillie Darby.

Twyla Ferguson presented an impartial resume of the county ballot, candidates for county offices, and introduced Rose Poole, candidate for state legislature; Mae K. Short, county clerk who is running for reelection, and Dorothea Buck, county commissioner candidate.

Olive Cornett discussed the city ballot, quoting statements from the four mayoralty candidates, and introduced Anne Mason and Ruth T. Berry, candidates for the office of city treasurer.

During a short business meeting it was announced that the BPW club will take charge of the servicemen's center on Sunday, November 12. A report from the treasurer disclosed a paid-up membership of 122, all of whose names will appear in the club's year-book now being printed.

Colorful Halloween decorations were used on the dinner table, arranged under the direction of Martha Keller.

Returns

Mrs. C. E. Brissenden returned this week from San Diego where she was guest at the home of Dr. and Mrs. L. H. Redelings and family. She accompanied Mrs. Phillip W. Farrell and children of Redmond to the southern city where the Farrells will reside while Ensign Farrell, formerly district FSA supervisor for southern Oregon, is stationed there.

While in San Diego Mrs. Brissenden spoke to money-management classes at the San Diego high school explaining the financial planning and account books used by farm security families. She was honored at a luncheon for wives of marine corps officers the Brissendens had known while living in San Diego.

Mrs. Brissenden is the wife of Major Clarence E. Brissenden, USMC, now stationed on Guam, and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jay A. Fairclo of Merrill road.

ANW Gathers

Wednesday afternoon members of the Art Needle Work club gathered for the regular bi-monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. J. F. Goeller, South Riverside avenue. The full membership of eighteen was present on this, one of the loveliest of Klamath's Indian summer days, and the autumn tints were at their best on the trees and shrubs of this avenue, the oldest street in Klamath Falls.

Mrs. Goeller had a collection of early day newspapers and magazines which were entertaining, and Mrs. F. R. Olds showed a collection of photographs dating around the early 1900s. Flowers from the Goeller garden were used in decorations about the rooms.

Mrs. Marion Hanks will be hostess to the club at the next meeting, Wednesday afternoon, November 1, at her home 133 Pine street.

Friendship Club

Mrs. C. O. Dryden and Mrs. C. W. Stanley entertained the Friendship club at the Dryden home Friday evening, October 13. Attending were Alice White, Irene Markham, Lillian Webb, Maude Plyler, Blanche Moteschenbacher, Velma Hull, Hermie Francis, Stella Dryden and Ruth Stanley. Auction was played after the business meeting and Mrs. Francis held high score. Alice White second, Irene Markham low, and the special award went to Lillian Webb.

The day of meeting has been changed to the third Friday of each month, and Velma Hull will be the hostess November 17, with Mrs. Francis assisting.

Armada Drive

Members of the Klamath Falls Woman's Library club are taking part in the "Armada" drive which the General Federation of Women's Clubs in America is sponsoring for the purchase of an armada of planes for the navy.

The committee named to contact club members and urge them to buy bonds includes Mrs. Glenn Kent, Mrs. G. C. Blohm, Mrs. E. D. Hamaker, Mrs. Dean Osborn and Mrs. Bert C. Thomas.

If an individual club raises enough money through the purchase of bonds, a plane will have inscribed on it the name of that club. The Klamath Falls women hope that through their efforts this may be done for the local organization.

Banks or other points where bonds are purchased will be checked and anyone may allocate their particular bond into this channel.

Surprise Party

A group of friends of Mrs. Ross Tromblee of the Henley district surprised her Wednesday evening with a birthday party. Four large cakes were served. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Hilding Nelson, Mrs. Arthur Bergerson, Mr. Ross Fromblee, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Durant, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Beck, Helen Durant, Mrs. Axel Nelson, Bruce Durant, Linda Durant, Dicky Gummer, Eileen Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. Ole Gelstrom and Mrs. Loye Lowther.

VFW Auxiliary

The auxiliary to the Veterans of Foreign Wars met in the library clubroom Thursday evening, October 19, with Mrs. H. J. McGilvray presiding. There was a very good attendance, and Margaret Livingston was received into membership. Dorothy Jagosz of San Diego was a visitor and expects to transfer to this lodge soon.

Mrs. D. W. Lavin gave an interesting talk about the young Citizens club which was organized in Altamont school last year and which has increased its membership greatly this year.

Martha Barron, patriotic instructor, gave instructions as to lodge procedure in patriotic services, and Florence Miller thanked the lodge for the flowers sent her while in the hospital. Patricia Henry, banquet chairman, reported on the banquet held Sunday, October 15, and was rendered a vote of thanks for its success. Gertrude Roper received the special award.

At the next meeting, November 2, there will be initiation of new members.

Birthday

Clifford Kelley was surprised Sunday evening, October 15, when a number of relatives and friends dropped in to help him celebrate his birthday with a shower. After gifts had been presented to the honored guest, dinner was served.

Guests were Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Kelley, Mr. and Mrs. William Withrow, Mr. and Mrs. Chris Huck, Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Dixon, Mr. and Mrs. Irving White, Mrs. J. D. Huck, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Andrieu, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. McLelland, Lucille Walz, Hattie Meers, Charles Deere, Gaynor Huck, Ruth Andrieu and Mrs. William Walz of Ellis, Kan.

Lucky Birthday

Diane Binkley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Binkley, 1915 Huron, was born on Friday, October 13, and Friday evening, October 13, she celebrated her eleventh birthday with a "Superstition party" at her home. The guests entered the darkened basement and followed the magic rope under ladders, open umbrellas, past black cats with glowing eyes, until they reached the safety and light of the main floor. Lucky and unlucky symbols were everywhere about the rooms, and games were enjoyed. The birthday cake was decorated with four-leaf clovers.

Majors Honored On Leave Here

Several social events this week have been given for Merle Swansen and Major Zed Barnes, both former Klamath residents, who are on leave visiting friends and relatives.

Major Swansen is serving with the U. S. army medical corps at Wendover, Utah, where his family is now living.

Major Barnes returned several weeks ago from overseas duty. He has been in India and China with the U. S. air corps.

The two majors were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. James E. Swansen, brother and sister-in-law of Major Swansen, on Wednesday with an informal cocktail party at their home followed by dinner at Sari's. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Rudy Jacobs and Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Loloma.

A pheasant dinner was given for Major Swansen and Major Barnes at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Rudy Jacobs, 2035 Del Moro, on Thursday evening. John MacWilliams was also an honored guest, when he was congratulated on the birth of his new son.

Orange candles and a large bowl of fruit centered the table, which was laid with a yellow cloth. Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. James E. Swansen.

Mrs. Jacob Heid, mother of Mrs. Carleton W. Hornbrook of Pacific Terrace, is spending a few weeks at Carmel, Calif., visiting her son-in-law and daughter, Maj. and Mrs. Don J. Barber, and their two daughters.
