Railroad Party

The potluck supper and business meeting of the Railroad Employees' National Pension association, held Monday evening, October 16, in the Community hall on Garden proved very interesting, although the principal speaker of the evening was unable to attend. Mrs. J. M. Jensen, president of the local chapter, conducted the business meeting, at which time it was decided to hold the meetings in different homes for a time. The November meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Jensen, 241 Michigan.

Much interest is shown in these meetings by those who have made a study of the two pension bills at present before congress. The bill sponsored by the RENPA calls for a pension to be paid to widows who have reached the age of 55, as well as an annuity for children under 18, while the other bill pays only at the age of 65.

Mrs. Eldon Brattain and William Morande were worthy matron and worthy patron at the regular meeting of the Cascade Crest chapter of OES held in the Masonic hall, Chiloquin on Wednesday evening, October 18.

New members initiated at the meeting were Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Kircher. Mr. Kircher's mother of Silverton, Oregon, was a special guest for the occasion. The evening was concluded with a social hour and refreshments.
