Banquet Honoring Sgt. Suty Given

Sergeant Pauline Suty, who returned recently by plane from Naples, Italy, where she was stationed with the Women's Army Central, was honored on Thursday evening, October 25, at a large banquet, held in the ballroom of the Willard hotel.

Over 50 members and guests of the American Legion and auxiliary were present. Honored guests were Pauline's mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. Anton Suty, and her two sisters, MaLin, Mrs. J. H. Gallagher, who heads the Legion auxiliary here, Carl Schubert, commander of American Legion post No. 8, Mrs. Carl Schubert, Lieutenant Jeanne Morrison and Corporal Elizabeth Sanders.

During the evening, Pauline was welcomed into the American Legion by Commander Schubert and presented with a gift from LaPointe's store. The presentation was made by Sergeant Paul Grotzer, of the army recruiting office here, who was in charge of banquet arrangements.

Pauline gave an informal talk, telling of her experiences with the WAC. Closing the banquet program, Leonard Morris of the navy, sang two numbers, accompanied on the piano by Don J. Zumwalt.

A short business meeting of the Theta Rho girls, held at 7:30 Monday, October 23, in the hall, preceded the Halloween party and dance at 8 p. m. The hall was decorated with a Halloween motif, the music was provided by Connor's radio and the refreshments by Mary Russell and Patricia Kingston. Nearly 100 members and guests attended. The next meeting will be November 11.
