

FINNIGAN SETS STATEMENT FOR VOTE CAMPAIGN

Candidate

Matt Finnigan, who filed in October for the office of councilman from Ward 1, made the following statement in the interest of his candidacy Thursday:

"I have resided for the past seven years in ward number one. I own my home in said ward and I am a taxpayer. For the past five years I have been the owner and operator of a business on Main in our city. I am the father of three children, two of whom are attending our schools.

"I have no connections with any group or organization and I am not obligated to any person, persons or groups whatsoever. I believe in the future of Klamath Falls.

"I believe that the city of Klamath Falls should be operated in a businesslike manner, that complete harmony should exist between the city and other departments of our government, and I will endeavor to do my part in such cooperation. I believe that ordinance number 3120, in effect since January of Matt Finnigan, Klamath Falls businessman, has announced his candidacy for the post of councilman from the first ward.

"Black Snow Ordinance," should be enforced and as your councilman I will expend every effort to see that this ordinance is enforced.

"I also believe that North Third should be made a through street and that all intersecting streets be made "stop" streets so that our children will be protected in going to and from school.

CRASH PROGRAM SET BY MILITARY

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 2 (AP) — To expedite aircraft crash rescues the army and navy yesterday launched a new program designed to save the lives of flying personnel.

The program was announced by Vice Admiral David W. Bagley, commander of the western sea frontier, and Brig. Gen. James E. Parker, commanding general of the Fourth air force.

The western sea frontier will assume primary responsibility for rescue operations in coastal waters, while the Fourth air force will control emergency land rescues.

All civilian communications facilities will be utilized fully to enable the military to speed all possible assistance to the scene of any crash.

"Our big job," General Parker promised in going to and from school.

"I believe the playground in our ward should be made usable for our children and I will make every effort possible to the end that the old high school park site be made the beauty spot of Klamath Falls.

"If elected your councilman, I promise to honestly and energetically perform all of my duties with all of the sound judgment I am able to command. I earnestly solicit your vote."

said, "is to enlist the active assistance of every person in the states of California, Oregon, Washington and Nevada.

"Whenever they see or hear of an airplane accident we want them, without delay, to notify their nearest law enforcement officer, be it constable, police, sheriff or highway patrol."
