

COMMUNITY DAY SPONSORED BY CHURCH WOMEN

World Community Day, observed nationally by the United Council of Church Women, will be held in the First Presbyterian Church, Friday, November 3, beginning at 2 p. m., and will be in charge of the educational committee of the local council. Hazel McKay is chairman of the committee and other members are Mrs. Paul Layman, Mrs. Dale Hutton, Mrs. D. F. Barnett, Mrs. R. L. Hall and Mrs. Bruce Stanley. The kindergarten room will be open and children may be left there under competent supervision.

The program for the afternoon will be as follows: prelude, Mrs. John H. Best; hymn, "The Church's One Foundation"; invocation, Rev. D. F. Barnett; in-struction, "The Price of An Enduring Peace," Hazel McKay; "Relief and Rehabilitation," Rev. Victor Phillips; "Economic Independence," Mrs. Donald McKay, Alice Waldron, Mrs. E. K. Loosley; "The Home Front," Mrs. John Yadon, Mrs. Kenneth Lambie and Mrs. Leo Sagehorn; special music, negro spirituals, by Lewis Gaston, S 2/c, of the naval air base.

Mrs. Paul Edwards will be in charge of the closing service of worship, and will be assisted by Mrs. Howard Hutchens and Mrs. F. C. Wassenbach. Phyllis Hutchens will sing.

During the meeting, commitment cards will be given out for signing. These are a promise to work for the maintenance of a just and lasting peace, not only for the United States, but for all nations. Mrs. R. L. Hall will be in charge of this feature of the afternoon. The program last year was very well attended, and this year, with the question of peace ever closer, it is hoped that the attendance will be much greater.

New-Born Quadruplets, Mother Doing Nicely

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 2 (AP)—The tiny Cirminello quadruplets are doing fine today, thanks, and so is their petite, 30-year-old mother.

A morning bulletin from the Pennsylvania hospital said the three little girls and their brother, born yesterday in a history-making caesarean operation, were "in good condition" and that Mrs. Kathleen Hatcher Cirminello "is very happy at the whole thing" and "her spirits are very good."

The bulletin said: "The babies all appear to be in good condition this morning. No physical defects have been found. Their swallowing process is normal. The boy had a little difficulty in breathing yesterday, but his lungs are now fully expanded, and he is alright as far as his breath is concerned."

"The mother is fine. She reacted normally in every respect for the operation. Her temperature and pulse are within the normal limits to be expected after such an operation. She is very happy at the whole thing. Her spirits are very good."

The babies—still known only as A, B, C and D—weigh 3 pounds, 8 ounces; 2 pounds, 14 ounces; 3 pounds, 8 ounces, and 3 pounds, 5 ounces, respectively, the hospital said.

The mother, an Oklahoma-born former securities and exchange commission stenographer, will not see her children, the hospital reported, until she is able to get out of bed and walk to the nursery. That will be about 12 days.

The father, Joseph Cirminello, 30, an SEC financial analyst, faced the prospect of raising the four newcomers on an annual salary of about $3600 a year. The Cirminellos live in a modest three-room apartment in suburban Upper Darby.

Lying in hospital, the Pennsylvania hospital branch in which the caesarean operation delivery occurred, announced that it would pay all hospital bills in connection with the birth. Mrs. Cirminello entered the hospital in mid-September, after X-rays showed a multiple birth was expected.

WRA Staff Members Join Armed Forces

Three young women on the war relocation authority staff at the Tulelake center recently joined the armed forces. Marian Young, elementary school teacher from Gurdon, Ark., joined the WAC. Hazel Loomis, fiscal clerk from Medford, Ore., will leave in two weeks to begin her WAVES training. Louise Parrish, personnel clerk from St. Louis, Mo., will leave November 17 for Des Moines, Ia., to take her WAC training.

Barcelona's

BELIEVE it or not... But at Barcelona's you'll find a big stock of Irish linen napkins... Pre-war linen and pre-war prices, too! In both luncheon and dinner sizes... The ecru shade that goes so well with linen are also here.

Barcelona's also has some Irish linen hand towels and guest towels... Pre-war, too.

The table cloths you'll find here are colored cotton prints, and a line of white ones in a variety of cotton and linen.

Barcelona's is at 407 Main Street.

Moe's

THE new suede jackets that have arrived at Moe's are really something to write about... Especially since they are priced at only $16.95... And suede jackets are not easy to find these days.

These come in two shades... Camel beige and chestnut (which is an unusual brown)... They are soft in texture and amazingly light in weight... Not at all bulky.

The tailored fitted lines make them especially attractive... And they're a nice length—the regular suit-coat length... You know they're well-made, because they carry the Town and Country label.

At Moe's... 512 Main Street.

Currin's

If you've ever wished you could carry a little hair lacquer around with you during the day or evening, or have had trouble with drops falling on your clothes when you squirted lacquer on your hair, here's what you need!

Mademoiselle Hair Lacquer Pads are new, and so handy that you wonder why someone didn't think of the idea before this.

Each pad is saturated with fragrant hair lacquer... Which you can use any time to keep yourself looking neat... It's an especial boon to any gal with an up-do.

The $1.00 size includes a handy little compact to carry in your bag. It holds 10 pads... And there are 75 more pads in the jar, making 85 in all.

The 60c size jar holds 80 pads, to use as re-fills for the compact.

(Incidentally, the 20 per cent federal tax applies on hair lacquers, too.)

Mademoiselle Hair Lacquer Pads are available at Currin's for Drugs... Main and Ninth Streets.

Art & Gift Shop

WHEN you look for a gift for someone who "has everything," the best thing is to get something personal—and unusual.

And that's why I'm going to tell about the exquisite collection of unusual sachets that can be found at The Art & Gift Shop.

The most expensive single sachet is only $3.00... Hangings are padded and sachet-covered with hand-painted designs... And, after all, it isn't just the gift that counts, but the care that goes into its selection.

Other sachets run in price on down to 25c each... All of them lovely, and of fine, lasting quality... There are pin-cushions, handkerchief folders, buttonholes (that are wear-resistant)... And all shapes and sizes... Even little bags of sachets.

The Art and Gift Shop is at 721 Main Street.

Your Store

IN the stockroom at Your Store, some of the loveliest ceramics were being unpacked Tuesday when I was there... Delicately painted, exquisitely made things that you wouldn't think could be evolved from pottery.

There are ash trays that look like fragile flowers, and cigarette containers to match... In lovely pastels.

There are all types of animals... Tigers, giraffes, zebras, foxes, deer, dogs, etc. In all sizes... Amazingly life-like in appearance and pose.

They told me at Your Store that most of these ceramics are the last to be received until after Christmas.

Prices range from 65c for the smallest pieces up to $7.50 for the largest animals... At Your Store, 721 Main Street.
