

PLANS OUTLINED BY HEALTH GROUP

enthusiastic group met at health center Thursday when Vance Vaupel, president of the Klamath County Public Health Association, called a meeting of the organization to discuss plans for the coming year.

C. Allen, field organization secretary, Oregon Tuberculosis Association, discussed the year's program. He will visit Klamath County in the spring for the purpose of inspecting the program and pictures in the program indicate tuberculosis.

Meeting has been called for November 20, at which time Saldie Orr-Dunbar, executive secretary of O.T.A., will speak. Dr. Peter H. Rozendal, Klamath county health officer, will arrange a panel discussion involving three medical men and three laymen. They will deal with some phase of social hygiene. Place will be announced later.

Miss Allen will be here for one month, organizing district groups in the Clifton, Gilchrist, Grant, and Merrill-Martin districts, as well as Klamath Falls and the suburban area.

To Eugene — Andrew Loney Jr., director of music education in the Klamath Falls schools, left Friday afternoon for Eugene where he will speak Saturday before the Lane County Music Teachers association. Loney will return home Sunday.

Housing Shortage May Have Something To Do With It

"Please tell people I haven't any more buildings to give away," was the plea of Building Inspector A. W. Downs to The Herald and News Friday.

Downs advertised that the city had three small houses which anyone could have for the asking and removal. Within 15 minutes he disposed of the houses and said he could have given away "100 more."
