

Sprague Endorses Cordon's Campaign
 PORTLAND, Nov. 3 (AP)—Sen. Sprague today held a strong endorsement today from his opponent in the republican primary, ex-Governor Charles A. Sprague.

 In a state-wide radio address last night, the Salem Statesman publisher urged election of Cordon, Wayne L. Morse, and the four republican nominees for U. S. representative.

 Praising Cordon's record in the senate, Sprague said he "has the initial advantage of senatorial experience . . . which will be of increasing importance to Oregon as times goes on."

PREVENT PROHIBITION DEFEAT THIS 'BURKE BILL' WITH ITS DANGEROUS 'JOKER'!

Don't take anyone's word for it! Read the bill itself! See how the insertion of one word—the word "GIVE" in both the title and body of this bill affects your very freedom. Will you be able to serve your guests either at your social club, or in your home under this bill? NO! Do you want this dangerous type of prohibition? NO!

ED OSTENDORF For MAYOR

Our Third Largest Business -- Tourist $$$

Income from tourist travel that includes hunters, fishermen and travelers, to and through Klamath Falls in normal times, makes the tourist business our third largest industry. In order to build this industry to its maximum, there must be close cooperation between the city, county, chamber of commerce and others in tourist promotion. All community advertising must be handled on a business-like basis. All duplication and overlapping must be avoided. Ed Ostendorf, candidate for mayor of Klamath Falls, believes in need for aggressive, coordinated tourist promotion. We should all help our sportsmen associations and tourist travel committees to bring the tourist travel to Klamath Falls.
