Look before you eat!

Try buying brilliantly colored fall fruits and vegetables when they are firm and slightly under-ripe. Use them as table and home decorations while they're reaching full maturity—then turn them into delicious health-building food.

Let your imagination run riot—even the most casual arrangement will sometimes produce the most dramatic effect.

The following ideas suggest the unlimited possibilities.

Arrange apples—shiny and red—in a pedestal or low bowl, and tuck among them three sprigs of ivy, of different lengths. (It's a safe rule always to use some kind of foliage in these arrangements.) Or use green apples, if that color seems more appropriate.

For a centerpiece, hang garlands of grapes over the stem of a richly yellow pumpkin. Rest the pumpkin on a circle of brown leaves. Flank it with tall orange candles.

String three grapefruit, of graduated sizes, on a balloon stick, (or attach one to another with toothpicks). Tuck ivy or lemon leaves between the fruit and around the bottom. Use flower frog to stand the arrangement upright.

Stand a large eggplant, stem up, on any flat dish. Hang a cluster of grapes from the stem, and surround the eggplant with lemons, and stand a few bananas around it if they are available. "Garnish" with ivy leaves.
