the size of the Jap force we've had to spread ourselves a bit thin."

Spencer Davis, another Associated Press war correspondent with the 24th, in a dispatch filed yesterday, but delayed in transmission, described an assault by American troops on one of the Ormoc valley ridges during the height of a howling wind and rain storm. The Japs fled leaving shattered mounds of unburied dead behind.

Battle Undecided

Still indecisive, the battle centered in ridges abutting a horseshoe bend, with the tiny village of Limon as its focal point. Neither side claimed victory. General MacArthur's communique stated simply that "heavy fighting on the ridge lines is taking place on the winding road."

tion tied at 546 votes each for councilman.

Draw Lots

Change of a single vote in the official count would break the tie. If that does not happen, Finnigan and Newton will draw lots to determine which will be the first ward councilman.

County Clerk Mae K. Short, defeated by Charles DeLap for election today, thanked her supporters, and expressing appreciation to election workers, The Herald and News, and radio KFJI for cooperation in the election work.

Gilchrist Count

Mrs. Short asked that it be noted in the paper that Gilchrist gave her 105 votes, to 22 for her opponent, inasmuch as faulty press work failed to show the Gilchrist count in a table published yesterday. The unofficial count on this contest was: DeLap, 8322; Short, 5514.

For the first time in many years, Klamath county will have republican representation in the state house of representatives, it appears on the face of returns in the representative contest. Rose Poole, Klamath Falls republican, holds an unofficial lead for one of the legislative posts. Leading the entire field for the other post is Henry Semon, conservative democrat and a veteran of the lower house. The house will be predominantly republican.

Despite the colossal scores achieved in Leyte Bay, self-conceit will absolutely not be permitted.—Premier Kuniaki Koiso.

POPULAR VOTE MARGIN SMALL FOR ROOSEVELT

from Herbert Hoover by more than 7,000,000.

Six Million Margin

Hoover's margin over Al Smith in 1928 exceeded 6,000,000. Calvin Coolidge won over John W. Davis in 1924 by more than 7,000,000 and Warren G. Harding defeated James Cox in 1920 by over 7,000,000.

Woodrow Wilson's margin over Charles E. Hughes in 1916 was only 591,385.

Meantime, the nation bound up its election wounds and settled down to a let's-get-on-with-the-war attitude.

Unity Urged

"Let us unite to win the war and to achieve a lasting peace" was the solemn request of Mr. Roosevelt as he prepared to return to Washington from Hyde Park. This was the attitude too, of Dewey.

Mr. Roosevelt's vote of confidence will still be fresh as he heads into an expected talk before Christmas with Stalin and Churchill.

for his battalions and regiments.

The Fortresses and Liberators, timing their blow at mid-morning, synchronized their attack with hundreds of dive bombers which hit the same area, and swept to unusually low levels to pinpoint their targets.

Few Flights

It was one of the few times the heavy bombers have flown against tactical targets in this theater. A notable previous strike was in the St. Lo breakthrough in Normandy in July.

Pilots said snow blanketed many of the battle areas.

Front line dispatches said Patton sent two divisions into action north of Metz this morning and that fresh progress had been made in the area of Berg, just below the Luxembourg border. A third division joined the three which attacked south of the city yesterday on a 25-mile front and gained up to three miles.

HUNTERS MAROONED ON AGENCY MARSH

groups, separated by streams and swamp land, built bonfires to keep warm. Hoagland said they were able to find an ample supply of dry willow but all were forced to stand throughout the night in the marsh. About three inches of snow covered the area.

At daybreak Acomb and Hoagland started out for help and walked five miles to where they found a car from the A. L. McQuiston ranch. They were taken to the ranch where Mrs. McQuiston gave them breakfast, and they then proceeded to Fort Chiloquin and Klamath Falls to notify their families. Walter Albert and Nicholson in Chiloquin brought their boat back to Neptune beach.

Fear Expressed

None was the worse for the experience Thursday morning. Hoagland said. Fear for the safety of the seven had been expressed due to the high wind on the lake and the storm which raged during the night.

Sheriff Lloyd L. Low had left for Neptune beach with a party to check on the missing hunters early Thursday before word reached here that the group was safe.

YOUNG HUNTERS GET SIDETRACKED

Two Klamath 15-year-old boys met obstacles when they set out to go deer hunting out of season instead of going to school on election day. When the family car got stuck in the mud, the boys unloaded their bedrolls and guns and walked to a used car lot on S. 6th, where they broke the window of the office and took a ring of keys.

After some difficulty they found a 1940 Studebaker that one of the keys would fit and drove around town knocking on doors of several houses until they found one where no one was home. They walked in, searched the house for money, and finally took a half-empty bottle of whiskey.

While they were devising means of getting money and tickets to buy more gasoline for the stolen car, they were apprehended by city police officers, who had been notified by the boys' parents that they had run away.

The "hunters" are now held in custody by Harold Hendrickson, local juvenile official, pending further investigation. Stolen property has been returned to the owners.
