Russia Protests
 PW Treatment

LONDON, Nov. 10 (AP)—Russia has lodged a protest with the French government over treatment of soviet prisoners in France, the Moscow radio said last night.

"A considerable number of soviet citizens transferred by the Germans to France during Hitler's occupation did not receive the rights of nationals of an allied power liberated from captivity," declared the broadcast. "They found themselves in prisoner of war camps together with German prisoners."

(Field dispatches from the western front frequently have mentioned the capture of Russians, Poles and soldiers of other nationalities who have been impressed into the German army. These have been treated as prisoners of war pending clarification of their status. Whether the Russian broadcast referred to these was not clear.)

NO FATALITIES
 SALEM, Nov. 10 (AP)—There were no fatalities among the 932 industrial accidents reported in Oregon in the week ended Thursday, the state industrial accident commission said today.

The total cash balance is about $1,500,000 less than the high mark a month ago, because $5,000,000 was paid to county school funds.

 highway fund, $8,880,480; state school support, $3,548,730; industrial accident, $3,216,282; board of higher education, $1,656,544; land board, $784,313; vocational funds, $728,841; veterans aid, $604,441; liquor funds, $566,892; public assistance, $334,699.

POE VALLEY TO VOTE ON SOIL DISTRICT

A referendum will be held in the Poe valley community hall Friday, December 8, to decide whether landowners in that area wish to organize a soil conservation district.

The referendum is held after a petition signed by the majority of the interested landowners has been sent to the state soil conservation committee.

A hearing is then held in the interested district and temporary officers are installed and decide upon the date of referendum. Polling superintendent for the referendum is Roy G. Holmes of Poe valley. Other polling officers are William Tubach, Frank Sullivan, Forrest Brethaupt and H. H. Haynes, all of Poe valley.

The temporary committee set up to start the organization was composed of Wilbur Reiling, George Stevenson, Basil Brown, V. C. Brown and Paul Breithaupt.

Next Wednesday, November 15, there will be a meeting of the committee and polling officers at the offices of C. A. Henderson, county agent, in the federal building.

Davis, Chapman to Represent AFL

PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 10 (AP)—Kenneth Davis, Portland, and Frank Chapman, Seattle official now working out of Indianapolis, will represent AFL lumber workers at conferences with government agencies in Washington, D. C., next week.

Chapman will be the international delegate and Davis, the northwest delegate.

Davis said he and Chapman would demand that government agencies come out west for personal conferences before changing orders affecting lumber workers.

Dingo Pups Shown In Portland Zoo

PORTLAND, Nov. 10 (AP)—Three Dingo puppies—Australian wild dogs—are now on exhibit at Portland's zoo, Arthur M. Greenhall, director, reported today.

About the size of police dog pups, the Dingoes were a gift from the San Diego zoo.

Alcoa Eyes Building Of Bauxite Plant

PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 10 (AP)—An official of the Aluminum Company of America indicated today that his firm might build a Columbia river plant to reduce bauxite to alumina.

Arthur P. Hall, chairman of Alcoa's committee on postwar facilities and development, told a chamber of commerce dinner meeting here last night that Alcoa is in the northwest to stay. "And we expect to expand," he added.

He pointed out that when Alcoa built the first northwest aluminum reduction plant at Vancouver, plans included a layout for a future alumina plant.
