CHICAGO, Nov. 14 (AP)—Weakness in rye futures influenced all grains today and the market closed substantially lower than yeaterday's close. Rye led the break being as much as 4*, cents tower at the start of the last half hour, that heen previously absent. Brokers with countercial connections were libral sellers of rye, following announcement by the war production board that use of rye in production of industrial alcohol is no longer manufactory.

The nearby contract in corn was under liquidation from the start of today's session. Selling was prompted by the weak cash corn market.

Wheat futures showing strong underson, the start weakened with rye and corn.
