Le Roi and Hedvig Samuelson, her roommates in Phoenix, Arizona, and sending the dismembered bodies in a trunk to Los Angeles in 1931.

Even as a screaming city maid set off an intensive city-wide police search yesterday, the second victim was dying in another hostility a few blocks away.

She was Mrs. Lillian Johnson, about 38, wife of a merchant seaman now reported in the South Pacific.

Found stretched on a bed, she had been slashed from the breasts to the pelvic region. "Pure Cussedness"

Li McGarry said Wilson related that he hit her, then slashed her with a razor, for some reason—just pure cussedness.

Both the operator of the first hotel and a bellboy at the second had identified Wilson as the companion, first of Mrs. Griffin and later of Mrs. Johnson, in registering at the two hotels.

Wilson was booked on suspicion of murder. At first he solemnly maintained his innocence despite bloodstains on his hands and shoes. In his pocket, police said they found a razor. Removing his shirt they discovered scratches on his back as though made by a woman's fingernails in a frantic death struggle.

Then crime technicians began combing the six-foot, blond-haired suspect's mustache for blood particles and Wilson, disclosing he had worked as a pharmacist and had studied chemistry, suddenly exclaimed: "That's it! You'll find that when you mix those particles with a certain amount of water that the hemoglobin of the blood can be determined and compared."

SALEM, Nov. 16 (P)—Mrs. Lillian Johnson, who was slain in Los Angeles yesterday, was arrested in Salem in 1933 on a charge of passing bad checks, state police said today.

She was arrested under the alias of Mrs. D. Lewis. She was not prosecuted, but was returned to San Francisco as she had escaped from a California penal institution.

The Japs are possibly figuring on PLUGGING AGAIN EARLY UP. Your map will tell the story.

THERE'S another tale today: Dutch officials in Washington announce that they are beginning at once to recruit an ARMY OF THEIR OWN to liberate the Dutch East Indies from Jap rule.

That's something else for the little yellow men to think about—not right away, for it will take the Dutch a long time to get into action. It's merely an indication of the avalanche that is building up to OVERWHELM THE JAPS sooner or later.

New Pine Creek

At the big grange meeting held last Saturday night Raymond Fisher was elected grange master, winning over two other candidates, present incumbent Ray Bishop and Winifred Dunigan. Dunigan was elected over Fred Fannie Fisher, lecturer; Fred Fisher, treasurer; Harvey Sanders, secretary; Lee Perry, steward; Cecil Batman, assistant steward; Alpha Smith, chaplain; Bill Allen, gatekeeper; Corda Perry, ceres; Evelyn Cundiff, pomona; Donna Hammersley, Flora; Imogene Batman, lady assistant steward; Erma Sanders, musicians, with Daisy Fleming as assistant. Ray Bishop was voted on the executive committee, taking the place of his father, Bill Bishop. Dancing followed the business meeting and a big feed with everyone having a good time. Daisy Fleming played the piano.

The Home Ec club met at the grange hall October 31, with seven members present and one visitor, Daisy Fleming, who joined. The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. Elizabeth Alexander. Plans were made for the Harvest Festival to be held on December 9. There will be a fancy work booth with Alpha Smith as chairman and Allie Hammersley, Sadie Keller and Ethel Deter, assisting. A harvest booth will be taken care of by Mary Snider, assisted by Daisy Fleming and Edna Mulkey. A bundle booth will be attended by Lydia Bishop, assisted by Mrs. Ella Oliver and Grace Bernard. A fortune telling booth will be conducted by Mrs. Erbie Hammersley, assisted by Mrs. Amie Cloud and Mrs. Lillian Reid. A cider and coffee booth will be managed by Mrs. Fannie Fisher, assisted by some girls. Mrs. Theima Butler is chairman of the supper committee with Mrs. Dorothy Blunt and Mrs. Fair Hammersley as assistants.

The president of the club has asked all members who have taken dish towels to make, to finish them and leave them at the post office. The ladies are all working hard to make the bazaar one of the biggest and best. Dancing will follow the festivities it is planned. Mrs. Lydia Bishop was acting hostess for Mrs. ray bishop who could not attend. Jello with whipped cream, cookies and coffee was served for refreshments. The Needle club met at the home of Mrs. Jack Moffitt week ago last Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Earnest Robnett and daughter, Leona and Mr. and Mrs. Leo Mulkey attended the burial ceremonies of their father, Ben F. Cloud, age 92, near Chico, Calif., last Monday. Mrs. Leala Porter returned home with them to visit for a while with relatives here.

Mrs. Frank Alexander left last Tuesday morning for Reno where she was to meet her mother and together they will journey to Salt Lake City to visit a sister there for about three weeks. This will be the first time in about 25 years that Mrs. Alexander has been back to her old home city.

The Happy Hour club met at the home of Mrs. Delbert Cloud last Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. Carrol Cloud as hostess. Eleven members and one guest, Mrs. Leala Porter were present. Mrs. Eunice Cogburn won first prize in the amusement contest and Mrs. Cora Vincent second. Ginger-bread with whipped cream and home made cider was served for refreshments. The next meeting will be held at the same home with Mrs. Clara Cloud being hostess.

Earl Rogers, who has served 35 months overseas in the South Pacific, is home on a 17-day furlough. Earl was among the first boys to leave Lakeview around three years ago and has been in almost continuous activity ever since with no furloughs. He was in two major battles in New Guinea and at Guam. He is quite glad to be home and visit old friends. He was a New Pine Creek visitor last Saturday evening. Earl worked for Marshall Ayres on the Walt Leehman ranch before being inducted into the army.

The state, Evert Reid and Earnest Robnett are putting in together and are installing a concrete headgate over at the old Baker place at their dividing ditch. This will be a much needed improvement over the old dilapidated wooden headgate which is being replaced. The work is being done largely by the county road crew and machinery under the supervision of the water master, Mr. Cameron, and supervisor George Perkins. The location of the new headgate will be a few feet south of the old one as the creek channel was straightened at that point and cut deeper so as to carry the spring flood waters.

Jap Alien Permitted To Live In Sacramento

SACRAMENTO, Nov. 16 (P)—The Sacramento Bee said today that the first foreign born Japanese known to have been granted permission to return to Sacramento has been back in the city about two weeks. He is K. Osada, 65, who for 30 years operated a real estate office and farm labor contracting company here. Permission for his return from the Topaz, Utah, Japanese camp, the paper said, was granted by federal officials due to the illness of his wife, a Caucasian.

The paper said the federal bureau of investigation checked Osada's papers and found them in approved form. The permit, the paper said, apparently gives Osada the right to reside here indefinitely.

STONES FROM SKY
Scientists were among the last to admit the possibility of stones falling from the sky, as in the case of meteorites, and not until the early part of the 19th century was it conceded generally.
