Puppet Dies

(NEA Telephoto) Wang Ching-wei, Japanese-sponsored president and premier of the Chinese Nanking Government, whose death was announced by Tokyo.

Wang, regarded by the Chungking Government as China's No. 1 traitor, entered the Jap hospital in which he died in March, after an operation on a bullet wound inflicted by would-be assassins.

Wang's death is a significant blow to the Japanese-sponsored government in Nanking, and is expected to have far-reaching consequences for the Chinese people.

The news of Wang's death is being widely reported in the press, and is expected to have a significant impact on the Chinese people.

Editor's Note: The following market information is supplied from material obtained over the government leased wire in the office of the extension economist at Oregon State college.

The regular flow of livestock to market was considerably disrupted by the election holiday and by limited trading on Armistice Day.

The supply of cattle at North Portland Monday was limited to only 2000 head, and prices on good short fed steers advanced as much as 50 cents while other classes were up 25 cents from last week's close.

There was a moderate supply of hogs at North Portland but trading was active and prices advanced 25 cents with 180-200 pound hogs selling up to the ceiling of $15.25.

Markelings of hogs in the midwest are increasing but continue well below the record numbers of a year ago.

Federally inspected slaughter of hogs in September 1943, but 7 per cent above average for the first nine months of this year.
