FDR May Settle Question On Army-Navy Tilt Today

GOLF SHOTS Bill Selkirk, assistant pro at Reames, is planning on leav-ing this Saturday for Portland where he will match shots with the biggest names in golf in the Portland Open to be held, November 23-26, inclu-tive.

heid. November 23-26. inclu-sive. Other golfers who will partici-pate in the battle for gold and glory from this vicinity are Ed-die Simmons and Leland Clark, both amateurs from Medford. Bill says that this game has been "pretty good" lately, and taking that to mean he has traversed the 18 hole route in the high 50's and low 70's, we should say that it is "pretty good" indeed, especially when we feel fortunate if we break 90.

Bill also says he'll feel satis-fied if he finishes in the first 20 as that': where the old moola lies. Anyway, here's all the luck in the world to Bill when he tees off in Portland, next Thursday and we hope he slaps the old apple into the cup like a homing pigeon coming to roost.

ROOKIE OF YEAR In a poll taken by Sports-Week of the newspaper sports editors of the country to deter-mine the baseball rookie of the year, Bill Voiselle, hurler for the New York Giants, came in un-der the wire first.

New York Giants, came in un-der the wire first. A previous poll had given voiselle the nod in the Nation-al circuit along with George Stirnweiss of the Yanks in the American loop as rookies of the year and this other vcte was for the outstanding begin-ner of both leagues combined. Ted Wilks, St. Louis Card twirler, came in a close second and Stirnweiss was not even a close third in this final poll. Aside from Wilks, Voiselle had virtually no competition but the Card pitcher gave him a battle all the way down the stretch.

ONE BUCK, PLEASE It cost Charlis Frank Wil-liams one simoleon to intro-duce Actress Bette Davis to the Monday Quarterback club of Columbus, Ga. At a club meeting there, it is against the rules to talk about anything but football, so perhaps Miss Davis was a trille non-plussed. She and her sister, Mrs. Rob-ort Telgram, are staying at Wil-liams' residence during their visit there. Will, Columbus may have Bette Davis for a member but we bet we have a better Quar-terback club in Klamath Falls. We like Lana Turner better, anyway!

By BUS HAM WASHINGTON, Nov. 17 (P) A deadline rolled-round today in the shifting of the Army-Navy football game from Annapolis to a big city stadium. On the presumption that Presi-dent Roosevelt will hold his reg-ular Friday news conference, re-porters readied in advance some direct questions on the proposed move.

Secretary of Treasury Morgen-thau said yesterday that he hoped the service classic would be switched to a big city as a Sixth War Loan feature. He estimated that $50,000,000 in bonds could be sold in con-nection with the game and that publicity derived from the con-test would have far-reaching values throughout the nation. Dobbs Lost To Air Force '11' Saturday

SPOKANE. Nov. 17 (P)-Ab-sence of the injured Glenn Dobbs from the left halfback position for the second air force theo-retically heightened the Univer-sity of Washington's chances for an upset this Saturday but a look at the record of Dobbs' re-placement may halt the long-shot bettors. Injected into the lineup by Dobbs' absence will be Ray Evans, former Kansas university star, who boasts 10.7 yards aver-age gain for every time he has handled the ball. It's the lead-ing average of the squad. Evans not only runs and passes but plays the safety posi-tion on the opposition's kicks and has shown up frequently on the receiving end of an airmen aeria.

Rumors Rife That Landis May Retire CHICAGO, Nov. 17 (P)-Runors that Baseball Commissioner Kenesaw Landis was ready to retire were rife today as a group of major league officials met to consider the big league agreement which, among other things, provides for procedure to be taken in event of vacancy in the provides for procedure to be taken in event of vacancy in the office. For the past several months there have neen unconfirmed re-ports in baseball circles that Lan-dis, who assumed baseball's highest office when the present major league pact was signed on January 12, 1921, was to be a candidate for reelection when the agreement expires on Janu-ary 12, 1946. The rumors have increased in hot stove talks since Landis' recent illness, which has confined him to St. Luke's hospi-tal for the last six weeks. William Harridge, American league, resident, in announcing today's meeting, said only the of-ficials will "give consideration to the major league agreement which perpetuates the office of baseball commissioner." He add-ed that the recommendations of the joint committe will be sub-mitted for consideration at the annual major league pact, as now in force, provides for the proce-dure to be followed in event of the resignation or death of Lan-dis during his term, or the ex-piration of his term. Election would be by majority vote of club owners and in event of a deadlock three months after a vacancy, either league could re-quest the "president of the Unit-ed States to designate a commis-sioner."

Other parts of the agreement cover the respective playing ter-ritories of the majors, player lim-its, uniform contracts, waiver prices, and other phases of the game.

Student Placement Problem Discussed

Problem Discussed MERRILL — Kiamath county school principals and coaches went on record at the November meeting of the County School-men's association as favoring a permanent record eard system to facilitate placement of students in transferring from one school to anot' or and mulled over plans for the coming basketball season that begins as soon as all football games are off the docket. The meeting, a 6 o'clock dinner, was held at KUHS, with most of the county schools represented. By, Bonanza, Chiloquin, Gil-christ, Henley, Merrill and Ma-lin will all be on their own in rustling games independently for the basketball season with the tournament playoff scheduled for some time in February. The next meeting of the asso-ciation will be held at Altamont Junior high school, January 9. Stanley Woodruff of KUHS was in charge of the dinner.

day's games. PGA Champ Says Portland Golf

PORTLAND, Nov. 17 (4) ---Bob Hamilton, national PGA champion, tuned up for the $15, 500 Portland open today and predicted that nippy weather and course complications would checkrein par-breaking attempts. "It certainly isn't the easiest course in the world," he said of the Portland Golf club where the November 23-26 tourney will be played. "It guess that the winning score will be in the neighborhood of 285---possibly a stroke or two less---for the 72 holes." holes.

The Evansville, Ind., pro pre-dicted a top game from Sammy Snead, back in the tournament swing after two years in the navy.
