

SOCIETY

By Phyllis Collier

GIRLS' LEAGUE KUHS

Reception Honors Lt. and Mrs. Drew

Honoring Lieutenant and Mrs. Frank Pierce Drew, a large reception was given by Mr. and Mrs. N. B. Drew, Mr. and Mrs. Greer Drew and Mrs. Lloyd Drew on Sunday afternoon, November 12. About eighty guests were received during the afternoon at the N. B. Drew home on North Ninth.

Pink and white chrysanthemums decorated the rooms, and flowers for the tea table were yellow and white.

Flourishing were Mrs. Warren Poe Hunt, Mrs. Rollo C. Groesbeck, Mrs. F. E. Drake, and Mrs. Ernest M. Bubb. Mrs. Greer Drew, Mrs. T. J. Buchanan, Mrs. Lloyd Drew and Mrs. Lyle P. North, sister of Mrs. N. B. Drew, who was here from Lakeview for the occasion, assisted about the rooms.

During the latter part of the afternoon, when members of the younger crowd were received, Mr. John Shaw, Mrs. James Kerns and Mrs. Lawrence Shaw presided at the tea and coffee service.

Special guests were Mr. and Mrs. Stewart J. Moore. Mrs. Frank Drew's mother and father of Portland.

Lt. Drew, son of Mr. and Mrs. N. B. Drew, has been overseas since July, 1942, stationed in Cardiff, Wales, England, and in London with the United States Army.

He arrived by plane last week in Portland, where his wife and three-year-old son, David, have been living with Mrs. Drew's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Moore. He will report to New York at the end of this month.

Wedding
Elaine Beverly McClellan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Verne McClellan, recently became the bride of O. Woodrow Gray, of the U. S. navy, in a candlelight ceremony performed at the bride's home, 919 High.

The Rev. C. C. Brown, of the First Baptist church, united the couple before a fireplace banked with chrysanthemums and ferns.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a powder blue dressmaker suit and carried a white Bible with streamers of rosebuds. Her sister, Pat McClellan, maid of honor, wore a similar suit in watermelon pink. The bride's mother wore black and gold jersey dress with a corsage of copper-colored carnations.

Best man was EM 3/c Dale Buchanan of the Naval Air Base. Officiating the ceremony, Mary Mahoney sang "I Love You Truly." She was accompanied by Mrs. James Cornutt, who played the wedding march.

AAUW Meeting

The November meeting of the American Association of University Women was held on Saturday afternoon, November 18, at the home of Mrs. Clarence Humble, 1320 Pacific Terrace.

Hostesses for the afternoon were Mrs. Samuel Earhart, Orpha Hudson and Emily Halde-man.

Lieutenant Colonel Van Orden, commanding officer at the Marine Barracks, gave an interesting talk on the progress being made at the barracks.

On the musical program were several violin solos by Mrs. Russell Davis, pupil of the late Leon Smatini of Chicago, Ill. She was accompanied at the piano by her sister, Mrs. Samuel Mushen.

Tea and cookies were served to the large number of members and guests following a short business meeting.

§ § §

Composition Read

"A Tribute to Mothers," written by Betty Rea Martin, was read at the bi-monthly meeting of the Art Needle Work club, held Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Wilbur A. Jones, 203 High. Betty Rea, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Joseph Martin, is a student at Pacific University, Forest Grove, where she is majoring in English, and received an "A" rating for her beautiful composition.

Mrs. George Hurn, 439 Pine street, will entertain the club Wednesday afternoon, December 29.

ATTRACTIVE VIVIAN DIRSCHL, upper left, is president of the Girls' League, an active organization of which every girl in Klamath Union high school is a member. In her sophomore year, Vivian was elected "Sweetheart of KUHS" and was sent to Portland by the Junior chamber of commerce to represent Klamath Falls in a war bond drive.

PRESIDENTS OF THE FIVE SERVICE CLUBS, sub-divisions of the League, are shown in the center picture. Seated on the senior bench are Barbara King, president of the LLO club; Marcelyn Wiggins, who plans the organization's dances as head of the Dance-a-Lot group, and Eleanor Thomas, president of the Big and Little Sister club. Standing in back are Jean Blake, president of the S.O.S. club, and Barbara Kvern, in charge of the Tea Toppers, who arrange teas for the faculty.

GIRLS LEAGUE ADVISORS, at the right are Mrs. Frank Z. Howard, dean of women, seated at the desk; Gladys Wardwell, standing at the left, and Lyravine Fish, Miss Wardwell, who graduated from UCLA last spring, is teaching for the first time this year at Klamath Union high school.

STANDING BY THE SUNDIAL, in the picture at the lower center, are Effie Botens, Girls' League vice president, and Lois Cada, secretary-treasurer. —Guderian

Wedding Service Sunday Afternoon

In a nuptial mass read at 1:30 o'clock the afternoon of Sunday, November 5, at Sacred Heart church, Gloria Carnini, daughter of Mr. M. Carnini of Sprague River, became the bride of Oswald Pesani of Portland. The Rev. Father Timothy Casey read the service.

The church was decorated with white and yellow chrysanthemums and palms and organ music was played during the ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white satin gown with full train, sweetheart neckline embellished with pearls and long full sleeves. Her waist-length veil fell from a halo of pearls and she carried a shower bouquet of stephanotis centered with a single white orchid.

Eileen Boehle, cousin of the bride, was the maid of honor. She wore an ice blue satin frock with full long skirt and carried a Colonial bouquet. A brief pink net veil was held in place by a wreath of carnations.

Lydia Carnini and Mrs. Jack Duracha, cousin and aunt of the bride, wore identical frocks of pink net and lace with head veils and carried Colonial bouquets.

Named Editor

Bettie Hopkins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Hopkins of Klamath Falls, has been elected editor of the Pioneer Log, student newspaper at Lewis and Clark college in Portland.

The first issue for this year came out this week, and it marks the initial appearance of a printed newspaper on the Lewis and Clark campus. As publicity commissioner for the student body, Miss Hopkins was in charge of arrangements for its publication. The staff of the newspaper then elected her permanently to the editorship.

The Pioneer Log is a monthly publication, successor to The Orange Peel, published at the former Albany college, and to Our College Missive, the original school paper which was first published in Albany in 1875.

§ § §

Engagement Told

Of interest to Klamath friends is the recent engagement of Shirley Fairclo, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Fairclo of Merrill road, to T/Sgt. William K. Jeffcoat.

Shirley announced her coming marriage at Snell hall at Oregon State college, where she is a sophomore this year.

T/Sgt. Jeffcoat's home is in Florida and he is now stationed at Corvallis. He has spent two years overseas with the marine air group and expects to be in the states for at least six months. He and Shirley plan to be married this winter, after she has finished her college term.

Phyllis Collier To Wed Dick Igl

Anabaglish, the country home of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew M. Collier, was the scene of an attractive tea this afternoon, Saturday, when Mrs. Collier announced the engagement of her daughter, Phyllis Gayle, to 2nd Lieut. Richard Francis Igl, United States army, son of Mr. and Mrs. Englebert M. Igl of this city.

Tea hours were from 3 to 6 o'clock. The tea table, covered with a lovely lace cloth, was centered with a low bowl of fuchsia chrysanthemums and flanked with tall white candles in crystal sticks.

Announcements were printed in gold on small white napkins which guests received at the tea table. The wedding will take place early in December in Temple, Texas, where Lt. Igl is stationed at the present time with the infantry unit.

Presiding at the tea table were Mrs. Lloyd L. Porter, Mrs. Ernest H. Heiken, Mrs. Alfred D. Collier, aunts of the bride-to-be, and Mrs. John H. Houston.

Assisting about the rooms were Mrs. Victor E. O'Neill, Mrs. Robert Shaw, Miss Helen Moore, Miss Phyllis Foster, Miss Stella Bowne and Miss Adelle Zamsky.

Mrs. Collier and Mrs. Igl received with Phyllis in the living room.

Both Phyllis and Dick are graduates of the University of Oregon and Klamath Union high school. At school Phyllis was affiliated with Kappa Kappa Gamma, and Dick with Beta Theta Pi. For the past several months, Phyllis has been a member of The Herald and News editorial staff. Dick has been at Camp Roberts, later attended officers training at Fort Benning, Georgia. His present assignment is at Camp Hood, Texas.

—L. S.

Topic Argentina

With a quotation from "Argentine Diary," by Ray Joseph, Mrs. E. A. Geary, program chairman, introduced the subject for the evening, at the regular meeting of Eulonia chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, held Monday evening, at the home of Mrs. A. O. Roenicke, Portland street.

The political side of this timely topic was discussed by Mrs. Geary, who told of the hundreds of thousands of Germans who for many generations have been living in Argentina, the hold they have on the country, financially, industrially, and in the political field, and of the developments which makes Argentina the problem child of the Pan-American union.

Mrs. L. H. Stone presented the historical background of Argentina and Mrs. R. E. Wright, told of the religious, educational and traditional background which makes up the cultural side of the people of Argentina. Sources for the information concerning this side of the subject were found in "America Faces South," by T. R. Ybarra, and "Argentina: The Life Story of a Nation," by J. W. White.

Mrs. Bert C. Thomas, chapter regent, presided during the business meeting, and introduced Mrs. Geary. Special guests were: Mrs. R. E. Lieuallen and Miss Barbara Wales, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Wales of Klamath Falls.

§ § §
Mrs. James Kerns entertained a few friends at her home on 449 Laguna, with a waffle party after the Don Cossack concert, Wednesday night, November 15.

Bridge Luncheon

Mrs. Arthur Schupp entertained a number of guests at a bridge luncheon Thursday, November 2. Two tables of bridge were played, with Mrs. Guy Harmon winning high score, and Mrs. Schupp, second high. Guests included Mrs. E. H. Bal-siger, Mrs. M. C. Cassel, Mrs. Walter West, Mrs. Paul Ferrin and Mrs. C. A. Lundy.

Program

Parents of Pelican school children are invited to attend a Thanksgiving program Wednesday, November 22, at 2 o'clock at the school.

Don Cossacks Thrill Audience

It has been a long time between concerts but it was well worth the wait for those who filled the Pelican theatre to capacity Wednesday night to hear the General Platoff Don Cossack chorus under the able direction of Nicholas Konstrukoff. This is the first of a series of evening programs arranged for the membership of the Klamath Community Concert association.

Hundreds were in the audience to hear for the second time the Don Cossack chorus. Their praise was high and their applause sincere as the chorus proceeded through three groups of numbers which included religious, folk, Russian and war songs.

The reputation of this band of Russian singers, who are sometimes picturesquely known as "the singing horsemen of the steppes," has preceded them wherever they have traveled, and they have traveled far. Under the leadership of their brilliant director, the chorus has built up a repertoire that covers the field of Russian song, the beautiful liturgical music of the Russian-Orthodox church; the exquisite haunting folk-melodies, coupled with their wild Cossack songs which add an exciting mixture of interspersed shouts and whistling.

Perfectly matched solo voices in the chorus covered the range from high soprano to the lowest bass, resulting in a stunning massed tone that roars forth in booming sonority at times and at others, subsides to a whisper of inconceivable loveliness.

The chorus could easily be compared to an organ, with their leader the organist, who controlled the voices as the organist does the organ stops before him.

Dancing played an integral part in the entertainment provided Wednesday by the Don Cossack chorus and delighted the audience. An outstanding feature was the knife dancer who performed the spirited movements of the Caucasian Cossacks, car-