

Midland Empire News

Canby

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Green and children have moved to the business logging camp from outside, Ore.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Burnett and son, Bobby, spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Roy Burnett of Willow Ranch, Calif.

Mrs. P. H. Meroney and Mrs. Burnett were Klamath visitors Tuesday of last week.

The Harold Liens, Percy and Loyd Cantralls have moved back to Canby from business camp.

Mr. and Mrs. Sterling McMillan and children left this week for Hebo, Ore., where they will make their home.

A girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Siveson of Canby, Alta on November 12.

Mr. and Mrs. John McKernan in Sacramento this week where Mrs. McKernan is receiving dental treatment. Mrs. E. Caldwell is caring for their daughter, Kathleen, in her absence.

Damon Robinson and family left this week for Missouri.

Heard over the radio on November 11 were two bouts from Madison Square Garden, New York, in which two California servicemen took part. Both got their man, but the one winner is interested in is Derald Raymond Dollarhide, F1/c, son of A. R. Dollarhide.

Mr. and Mrs. Orlo McGee drove Mrs. E. C. Nelson to Klamath Falls on Tuesday of this week where Mrs. Nelson will receive treatment for eye and ear infection. Mrs. Nelson has been ill several weeks and improvement has been made. Mrs. McGee and Mrs. Nelson are remaining in that city a few days.

Mrs. Mabel Harr and Mrs. Marie Martin left for Klamath Tuesday of this week to visit at the home of their brother, W. H. Alexander.

C. W. Mapes is spending the winter in Mount Shasta with his daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. McGee and daughter, Mrs. Neva Lee, left this week for Arizona. Mrs. McGee's health has been very poor and the change was made in the hope that it would help her to improve.

Canby girls who spent the weekend in Alturas taking in the Alturas-Lakeview football game were Betty Sherer, Betty Bowden, Katherine Morrison, Doris Kay Chambers and Robbie Jo Hood.

Mrs. Gertrude Helt is a Sacramento visitor this week.

We are proud of the way Canby responded to the war chest drive. With a goal of $350 set for us to reach, we have already more than doubled the quota and Mrs. Fitzhugh, chairman, has reported the sum of $917.20.

Dairy

Mrs. Dode Adams and son Duke of Klamath Falls, spent the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Kolb of east Dairy.

Mrs. Clyde Horsley and baby daughter, Chandelle Louise, arrived here from Medford to visit with the Joe Horsleys, for awhile.

Mrs. C. H. Sewald is improving after being confined to her home with illness all week.

Albert Burgdorf left Thursday, November 16, to visit relatives and old friends in Ashland and Grants Pass for a few days.

Mrs. Belle Brown and son Richard, were business visitors in Klamath Falls Thursday.

Donald Hankins, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Hankins, has recently written home that he now is stationed somewhere in France. Another son, Leslie, who is in the air corps still remains in the U. S. A.

Mr. and Mrs. Iford Scoggins, Ed and Clifford Scoggins of Klamath Falls, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Kolb of east Dairy, Sunday, November 12.

Jack Clark returned to school this last week after being out because of illness.

Mrs. Bert Fraley of Klamath Falls, is out visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Mike Rueck of Bonanza.

PINE PURCHASED

LAKEVIEW — About 4 million feet of western pine was bought in Lakeview November 16, when the first western pine auction was held by the Central Procuring agency of Portland. The purpose of the action was to procure lumber for the needs of the various government agencies.

Poe Valley

The community was shocked by the news of the sudden death of Charles Waldrip at Tulelake on Tuesday, November 14. He was employed on a government project, and was driving a caterpillar which overturned, killing him instantly. He was a one-time resident of Poe valley, and is the brother-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Rex High. He was the owner of quite a bit of property here. The entire community wishes to extend their sympathy to his family.

Bo Tucker is building a wood shed.

Buck Rodgers sold his potatoes to Mr. Zuckerman, and has a crew sorting in Glen Kester's cellar.

Vic Brown is hauling baled straw to Klamath Falls this week in order to sell it.

Donald Robert left for Portland Thursday to undergo his physical.

John Nork is helping Buck Rodgers load and haul his spuds this week.

Mrs. L. F. Rodgers visited in Klamath Falls with her children recently.

Warren Moore and the Strunk boys were callers at the Eddie Roberts home on Sunday.

The Joe Benedict family were callers at the Moore home on Sunday.

Emil Wells was cutting wood this week.

Sympathy is extended by the community to Mr. and Mrs. Francis Freuer and son, Teddy, on the loss of her mother, the late Mrs. Tallman. Mrs. Tallman has visited occasionally in the valley, and has many friends who will regret her passing.

Emil Wells bought a new leveler recently, and is trying it out on his ranch here.

BROADCAST SET

NEW YORK, Nov. 21 (AP)—Words at War, which each Tuesday turns a book into drama, is to enact "Barriers Down," by Kent Cooper, AP executive director, at 8:30 p. m., PWT tonight on NBC. The book deals with world-wide freedom of the press, both in the collection and dissemination of news. Cooper is to speak briefly at the conclusion of the program.

Classified Ads Bring Results.

Keno

Mr. and Mrs. Ray L. Atchison of Huntington Park, California, have arrived in Keno to make their home. They have bought the Keno store, owned and operated by Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Smith, and expect to take possession in the near future. Mr. and Mrs. Smith expect to remain in Keno for the present, and have moved into the house recently vacated by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stroberg, diagonally across from the postoffice building.

The first and second graders gave a "tea party" for their mothers in connection with their Halloween party, October 31, the children themselves doing the serving. Seventeen mothers enjoyed the afternoon party. The other rooms of the elementary grades also had room parties during the afternoon.

Mrs. Ben Wise was called to California last week because of the death of her father. Mrs. Wise returned to her home in Keno, Thursday morning.

Mrs. Walter S. Foster and Mrs. A. O. Brown of Klamath Falls, returned from Camp Roberts on Tuesday. They visited with A. O. Brown, who is in training at Camp Roberts. Brown is Mrs. Foster's brother. Wally Foster, Mrs. Foster's young son, stayed with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe H. Foster, while his mother was gone.

Potato growing started in the United States in 1719 when a group of Irish Presbyterians founded the town of Londonderry, N. H., and began to grow a crop.

Flashes of Life

By The Associated Press

PILGRIM'S PROGRESS
McGREGOR, Ia., Nov. 21 (AP)—A rural school teacher was a bit startled by the statement in an examination paper that the Pilgrims were an orchestra that came to this country. Summoning the writer, she inquired where he got the idea.

"The book says so," he replied, pointing confidently to the sentence beginning "A band of pilgrims landed . . ."

BOND PROMOTION

WICHITA FALLS, Tex., Nov. 21 (AP)—W. T. Knight told soldiers in a war bond rally audience he would buy a $25 war bond for each GI who would buy one for himself.

He had 68 takers. Cost of the gifts to Knight: $1275 in war bonds.

A VOTE A DAY

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., Nov. 21 (AP)—It's 14 days since the November 7 election and final returns show that Earl C. Borchers, democrat, has defeated Lieut. (g) Lewis Wallace, republican, in their contest for the state legislature. The margin: 14 votes.

If it's a "frozen" article you need, advertise for a used one in the classified.

FLANNEL PAJAMAS Slip-on or coat styles $2.19	SHEEP-LINED SLIPPERS Soft soles, and very warm $2.95
BLANKETS 25% wool. Bound edges $4.98	INDIAN BLANKETS High colors $2.98
Wool Jackets &amp; Mackinaws $6<sup>95</sup> up
OREGON WOOLEN STORE Main at 8th Phone 6873

Pedro De Cieza De Leon discovered the mother of all potato chips in 1538. Instead of being cooked by heat, however, they were cured by frost and then dried.

For Men of Judgment... LORD CALVERT

"Custom" Blended for those who can afford the finest... Lord Calvert has been for years the most expensive whiskey blended in America. So rare... so smooth... so mellow... it has never been produced except in limited quantities. Each bottle is numbered and registered at the distillery by Calvert.

Lord Calvert is a "Custom" Blended Whiteky, 85.8 Proof, 65% Grain Neutral Spirits. Calvert Distillers Corp., N.Y.C.

Rothmoor's conception of a lovely coat is the kind that will do more for your looks than any you have ever worn before

ROTHMOOR COAT of Julliard needlepoint in black only. Finest Persian lamb collar.
$89

ROTHMOOR COAT of Forstmann doeskin, lavishly trimmed with beautiful beaver.
$238

ROTHMOOR COAT of Julliard's yarn dye grey Chesterfield.
$49

ROTHMOOR COAT in a casual Topper of Forstmann's diagonal fleece, lynx wool collar.
$89

ROTHMOOR COAT — Forstmann's suede cloth in gorgeous colors with forest mink dyed muskrat tuxedo.
$149

ROTHMOOR COAT — Ocelot Tuxedo front in brown, rust and gold.
$169

LaPointe's