LAYTON APPEALS FOR COMMUTATION

SALEM, Nov. 21 (AP)—Richard Harry Layton, 39, former Monmouth police officer sentenced to die December 8, has appealed to Governor Earl Sniell for commutation of his sentence to life imprisonment, the governor said today.

The governor did not indicate what action he would take, although it has been his policy not to commute sentences unless a miscarriage of justice is proved. Layton was convicted in Polk county circuit court of the slaying of Ruth Hildebrand, 17, Dallas, and was sentenced to die in the prison's gas chamber. The crime occurred June 8, 1943, on a Willamette river bank 15 miles south of Salem, and her battered nude body was found floating in the river 12 days later.

Layton had confessed, but in his appeal to the state supreme court, he contended that police tortured him to obtain the confession. The supreme court unanimously upheld the conviction, and the United States supreme court refused to review the case.

Deputy Prison Warden E. C. Halley said Layton is in good spirits. "He eats like a horse and sleeps like a log," Halley said. "The only time he gets fidgety is when his meals don't arrive on time."

BACKACHE, LEG PAINS MAY BE DANGER SIGN Of Tired Kidneys

If backache and leg pains are making you miserable, don't just complain and do nothing about them. Nature may be warning you that your kidneys need attention.

The kidneys are Nature's chief way of taking excess acid and poisonous waste out of the blood. They help most people pass about 3 pints a day.

If the 18 miles of kidney tubes and filters don't work well, poisonous waste matter stays in the blood. These poisons may start nagging backache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. They give happy relief and will help the 18 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from the blood. Get Doan's Pills.

"Siwash," won by the Marines in a New Zealand pub raffle, followed them ashore at Tarawa, Saipan and Tinian. For sometime "Siwash" was addressed as a drake until "he" laid an egg the other day.

Mechanic Leaves Casanova Train in States, Alaska

GREAT FALLS, Mont., Nov. 21 (AP)—Lester Logan Martin, 34-year-old mechanic and truck driver of Great Falls, today was lodged in the county jail pending unraveling of a Casanova trail across three states and Alaska which brought him one legal wife and entanglement with three other women living as his wives.

Sheriff John Bradley of Fort Benton, Mont., arrested Logan on charges of "living in open and notorious adultery" and gave this version:

Martin is reportedly legally married to Beona Martin, formerly of Whitehorse, Y. T., and is the father of their nine-year-old son. She is again an expectant mother.

The sheriff said Martin was being held also for the federal bureau of investigation for questioning on violation of the Mann act.

The largest island on the coast of Norway is Hindo, about 850 square miles in area.

Bradley said questioning had disclosed that Martin declared he was the father of three other children, born out of wedlock to two women, and the expectant father of another child to an unwed mother.

Four years ago, Bradley quoted Martin, the mechanic met a woman in Bremerton, Wash., to whom two children were born out of wedlock.

Two years ago, Martin pursued a courtship with a student nurse from North Dakota, to which association a child was reportedly born five months ago. The couple lived recently in Fort Benton.

More recently, he declared he associated intimately with a woman formerly of Bremerton, but now of Great Falls. She is reported an expectant mother. Bradley said he was told, despite the maze of extra-marital affairs, Martin's legal wife was unaware of any entanglements. Martin also asserted none of the three other women knew there was anyone else involved.
