

Two Seamen Killed In Traffic Accidents

PORTLAND, Nov. 24 (AP)—Thanksgiving Day traffic accidents took the lives of two merchant seamen in this area—one a Russian and the other an American.

Portland's 34th 1944 traffic fatality occurred when a St. John's electric trolley coach struck and killed Peter Androsov as he was crossing a street between intersections.

Traffic Patrolmen Eugene Bjore and Lenard Maxwell said the coach was driven by Gustav Quansrom, 34. He was cited for having no operator's license pending further investigation.

At Vanport, Larry Fredicks, Crockett, Calif., was killed when his motorcycle collided head-on with a taxicab.

Pauline Tomaska, Vanport, passenger on the motorcycle, was treated for a scalp wound.

The total area of Norway is estimated at 124,964 square miles.

School Children Given Loan Quota

PORTLAND, Nov. 24 (AP)—Oregon's school children have been assigned a 6th War Loan quota of $1,700,000, an average of approximately $6.30 a student, state headquarters here announced today. The quota is 5 per cent of the state's 3rd bond sale goal.

Among statewide contests to interest students in the drive is a poster competition, with war bond prizes. It will be judged next week.

Portland's Fenwood school already has gone over its quota with purchases of $4502.40. Early in 1945, a Swan Island ship will be launched by the winning school in the metropolitan area.

Cannibalism may represent serious loss to poultry raisers. Flock may be lost if the outbreak is not controlled.
