

Herald and News

FRANK JENKINS
Editor

MALCOLM EPLEY
Managing Editor

Entered as second class matter at the postoffice at Klamath Falls, Ore., on August 20, 1906, under act of congress, March 3, 1879.

A temporary combination of the Evening Herald and the Klamath News. Published every afternoon except Sunday at Esplanade and Pine streets, Klamath Falls, Oregon, by the Herald Publishing Co. and the News Publishing Company.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES:
By carrier — month 75c By mail — 6 months $3.25
By carrier — year $7.50 By mail — year $6.00
Outside Klamath, Lake, Modoc, Siskiyou counties — year $7.00

Member Associated Press Member Audit Bureau Circulation

Today's Roundup

By MALCOLM EPLEY

THINGS continue generally quiet at the Tulelake war relocation center, due, perhaps, to the trend in the war since last November when riotous demonstrations occurred there.

Those elements in the big camp which would like to make trouble have been less and less in evidence as American forces have proceeded with a steadily successful offensive in the Pacific. What they might have done, had the war gone the other way, can only be imagined, but it does not make a pretty picture in our imagination.

EPLEY

As it has happened, the Tulelake center has dropped definitely out of the news, after occupying a place in the national spotlight for a while. Little attention is given it, even in the nearby areas. But its big population of technically disloyal Japanese still embodies many problems of policy, and these may at any time plunge the colony back in the news.

Modoc Visit

THESE are times when inter-community visits are rather infrequent, and it is good today to write here a welcome to the Modoc county defense council members who are meeting in Klamath Falls this weekend.

The Modoc council is performing many civic services to our big neighboring county to the south. We have sat in on some of its meetings, and have been impressed with the work its members are doing for the betterment of the county community. It is an important-clearing house for problems and projects.

Modoc is an enormous county, with a relatively small population. Its economy is based chiefly on timber and livestock, but it includes a part of the rich Tulelake basin where there is much crop farming. Its people are rugged, hospitable, and realistic, as is customary in high country.

Klamath has many ties with Modoc county. It is certain they will be strengthened by today's visit.

Briefs From the Pocket File

THE Reno city council is considering a proposed ordinance which prohibits cheating while gambling. . . . A young marine sang in the choir of the Episcopal church here the other Sunday, just six days after leaving Saipan. . . . Now that it has been decided Mr. Roosevelt said just dam instead of god-dam while voting, the world can proceed to work out its destiny. . . . Anyway, we'll wager FDR's language while voting was less vigorous than that of some folks while reading the vote results. . . . Duck hunters who miss can blame it this season on the war-time shells.

Can You Match This Sacrifice?

ON July 17, 1943, Sgt. John Rothschild and a close friend, Pvt. John J. Wantuck, volunteered to man two light machine guns in an attempt to hold up an overwhelming number of enemy troops. A contingent of 30 men on a New Georgia beach, a group that represented the final protective line, watched the two marines proceed into the jungle—watched them with hopeful eyes.

When they had gone a few hundred yards, they set up their guns, perhaps 100 feet apart—and waited. The moon was coming out when the first machine gun opened up. It was Rothschild's—20 Jap soldiers went down.

All that night the guns blazed away, first

Rothschild's, then Wantuck's. At 2:30 in the morning, Wantuck's gun was silenced. The sergeant felt a lump in his throat at that, but he stayed until morning, firing at every moving Jap that crossed his path.

When dawn came, Rothschild returned to the beach. The contingent was safe, not one Jap had broken through. His friend, Pvt. Wantuck, was dead—a saber wound, three bullet holes and a mortar had finished him.

There were 96 dead Japs counted that morning—and one marine. Both men, Sgt. Rothschild and Pvt. Wantuck, received the Navy Cross, the latter posthumously.

Our country is still very much at war—ARE YOU???

Today's Bible Verses

(From Psalm XIII)

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; he leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul; he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies; thou anonintest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life, and I shall dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

The War Today

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
Associated Press War Analyst

A VAST underground organization, to perpetuate nazism and sabotage the allied occupation of the reich, is reported to be in process of formation under supervision of Gestapo Chief Himmler—Hitler's bloody minded hangman.

"If Himmler puts his idea into practice," comments the Stockholm Tidningen, "one will have to reckon with a caveman's war right in the heart of Europe which, in sheer frightfulness, will exceed anything seen so far during the darkest and most chaotic period of history."

This column earlier in the week commented on the operations of a nazi underground on the Rhineland fighting front. Now a British authoritative source—Veritas, the military expert—discloses a far more extensive plot than has heretofore been made public. His account, gleaned from various sources, in substance is this:

Leaders Trained

MORE than six months ago it was reliably reported from Germany that youth leaders were being trained for emergency work when nazism no longer should rule. Young men, and even boys from 13 to 17, were being schooled in various types of murder, to be employed in liquidating opponents of Hitlerism, and were being formed into a nation-wide underground organization.

Now, however, Himmler is expanding this body and enlarging its scope so as to deal with the allied invasion. The revised purpose of the underground is to organize terrorism, by sniping and sabotage, against allied lines of communication inside Germany, and ultimately against the United Nations armies of occupation.

Handpicked Fanatics

THESE assassins and saboteurs are hand-picked fanatics. They swear fidelity to the fuhrer unto death. Himmler provides them with false identification papers and some of these men actually are posted in concentration camps where they pose as anti-nazis.

There are, of course, hundreds of thousands of nazi fanatics who are desperate. All this presents a grim picture, and Himmler the hangman means it to be grim. However, there's some balm in Gilead, since Veritas—who is widely regarded as a sound observer—declares he believes the movement is doomed to failure. He maintains that the Germans are by nature and training disposed to obey authority, and says it's significant that Eisenhower's authority already is being obeyed in allied-occupied territory. The refusal of the Germans to believe in the brutality of the allies is giving concern to the nazi authorities.

"If the Germans in frontier districts passively accept allied occupation," Veritas adds, "it is hardly likely that those in the interior will be willing to prolong their own misery by supporting the terrorists who will not scruple to terrorize them."

SIDE GLANCES

"So you want to invest your nickel in something conservative like lollipops, and she's for shooting the works on a chocolate bar! Well, older and wiser men than you have failed to solve similar problems!"

CITY BRIEFS

On Leave—Mrs. Carmel Hartin of Boardman avenue, returned to Klamath Falls Saturday morning from Portland where she met her son, 2nd Lt. Frederick D. Hartin, U. S. army air corps. Lt. Hartin has just been graduated from Napier field at Dothan, Ala., and leaves for new assignment Monday. He is a graduate of Klamath Union high school, class of 1935, and at the time he entered the service was with the Southern Pacific as engineer.

Portland Medics Here—Dr. Thomas M. Joyce, Dr. John Raaf, and Dr. Frank R. Menne, of Portland gave instructive talks to a group of Hillside hospital staff doctors, at the Joe Hicks residence Friday night. Dr. Joyce spoke on general surgery, Dr. Raaf on cranial surgery and Dr. Menne exhibited pathological specimen slides.

Midland Unit—Midland home extension unit will have its first regular meeting at the home of Mrs. George Lamb Wednesday, November 29, at 10 a. m. The making of sweet rolls and coffee cake will be demonstrated by the Henley project leaders, Mrs. Wallace Thompson and Mrs. Elton Fishback.

Home—Ensign O. P. Moses, son of Mr. and Mrs. George J. Moses, 231 N. 9th, was home for Thanksgiving with his parents. "Pat" received his commission in the U. S. naval reserve at Corpus Christi, Texas, on November 15. From here he will proceed to Banana River, Florida, for additional training.

Enlist in Navy—David F. Keffer Jr. of Klamath Falls and John R. Driscoll Jr. from Bonanza enlisted in the navy recently through the local recruiting office and were sworn in at Portland. Both are awaiting further orders for active duty.

Box Social—The Fraternal Order of Eagles is sponsoring a box social tonight, Saturday, at FOE hall, the ladies to bring the lunch. All visiting Eagles and ladies of the auxiliary and families are invited to attend.

To Conduct Service—Captain Cas Wahlquest, chaplain at Tulelake, will conduct services at Pilgrim's Holiness church, 2303 Wantland, Sunday at 7:45 p. m.

God Calls Time

With the birth of Christ, God rang down the curtain to set the stage for a new scene.

He had promised his Chosen People—the Hebrews—great earthly blessings if they would search out his will, to know it and to do it. But for 1500 years the Chosen People had gone their own way and now the curtain drops to rise on a new scene. God is about to create a new race of mankind. Men who will do His will and live by Power from on High.

CALLING ALL MEN! Calling All Men! Hear the call and be set free from the penalty—practice and presence of sin. One—the penalty: Christ took our sins and died to save us. Believe in Him, that His death cleans you. Two—the practice of sin: Christ indwells His people and gives them the urge to live to the glory of God. Christ died for the sins of your whole lifetime. Confess—Keep in step—Be an overcomer—Grow into the likeness of Christ. If we confess our sins, He is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. See I John—1:8-9. Three—Delivered from the presence of sin: The lost dead go into the pains of hell forever. Their lot is to be with the liars, murderers, the unclean. The saved go to the heavenland in bodies of glory. How shall we escape if we neglect so great salvation?

Dean Taylor
McChesney Road, Portland 1, Ore. This space paid for by an Oregon businessman.

Life More Abundant

Jesus said, "Seek ye first the kingdom of God and His righteousness and all these things shall be added unto you." (Matt. 6:33).

Many times we put our jobs, our relatives, or personal pleasures and pursuits before obedience to the Lord. Jesus, however, said, "No man can serve two masters; for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to one and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon." (Matt. 6:24).

Someone says, "I must have a job! I must make a living." Jesus says again in the same chapter, "Therefore I say unto, Be not anxious for your life, what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink; nor yet for your body, what ye shall put on. Is not the life more than the food, and the body than the raiment? Behold the birds of the heaven, that they sow not, neither do they reap, nor gather into barns; and your heavenly Father feedeth them. Are not ye of much more value than they? And which of you by being anxious can add one cubit unto the measure of his life? And why are ye anxious concerning raiment? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow; they toil not, neither do they spin; yet I say unto you that even Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these. But if God doth so clothe the grass of the field, which today is, and tomorrow is cast into the oven, shall he not much more clothe you, O ye of little faith? Be not therefore anxious, saying, What shall we eat? or, What shall we drink? or, Wherewithal shall we be clothed? For after all these things do the Gentiles seek; for your heavenly Father knoweth that ye have need of all these things." (Matt. 6:24-36).

—RAYMOND I. GIBBS, Evangelist.

CHURCH OF CHRIST

2203 Wantland Ave.
Klamath Falls, Oregon.

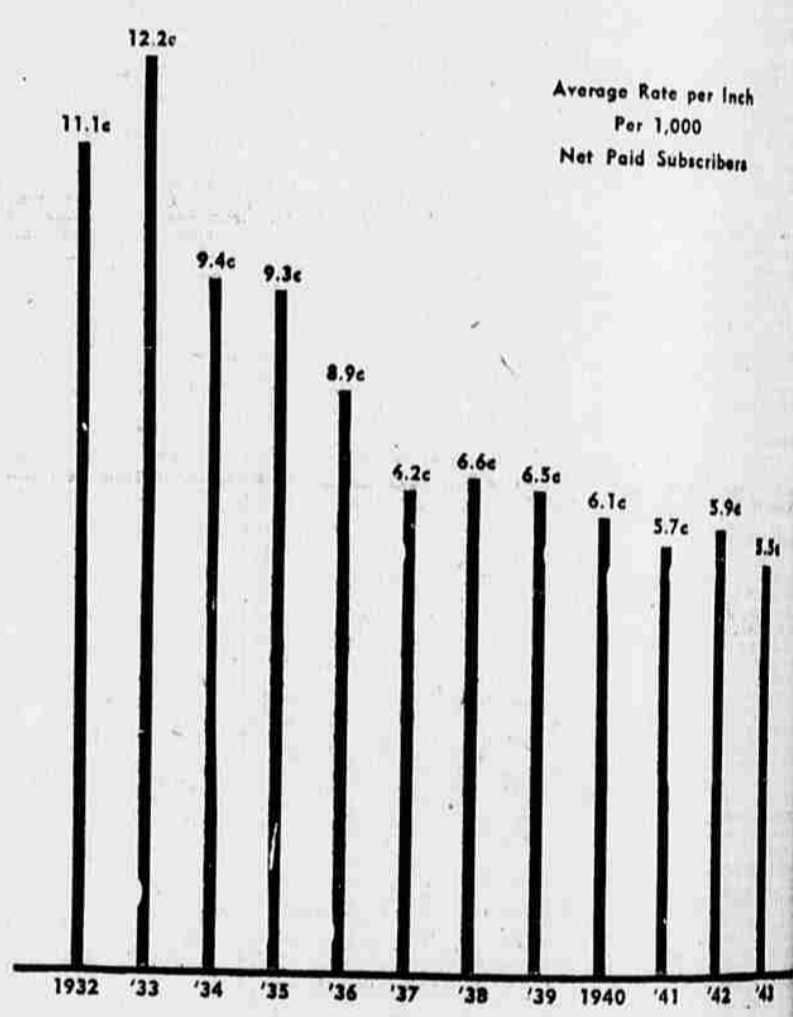

Herald and News

ADVERTISING

The Herald and News, to keep its business operation in line with an ever-increasing coverage, will increase display advertising rates 8c a column inch, effective Jan. 1, 1945.

The advertiser's dollar has purchased a likewise ever-increasing reader "package"; but, just as the grocer must charge more for a larger sack of sugar, so must advertising rates follow up with circulation growth.

The following chart shows how the advertising rate per 1000 subscribers has decreased during present Herald and News ownership.

Highest advertising cost per reader came in 1933, low circulation point of the depression. Subscriptions rose rapidly in the next year, bringing cost per 1000 subscribers down to 9.4c.

Next big drop came in 1937 when the Herald and News had moved into its present modern plant and had reduced advertising rates. The new low rates, combined with substantial circulation gains, brought cost per 1000 down to 6.2c.

The reduction (10c per inch) had been too great to carry increased circulation, so a 4c per inch increase brought the rate per 1000 up a fraction in 1938.

Since then, increasing circulation has continued to reduce advertising costs per 1000. The new rate in 1945 (even if circulation makes no more gain) will still be a point under 1943.

Herald and News

DRYS HALT FIGHT TO PARCH NATION

By WILLIAM F. ARBOGAST
WASHINGTON, Nov. 25 (AP)—Congressional prohibitionists called time out today in their drive to dry up the nation by statute.

But their spokesman, Rep. Bryson (D-S.C.) insisted the decision to halt the fight is a temporary one.

"It would be impractical to bring the matter up in the concluding days of the 78th congress," Bryson said in an interview.

He referred to the bill he introduced last year to outlaw traffic in alcoholic beverages, including light beer, for the duration, as a means of preventing absenteeism among war workers.

Leading prohibition groups rallied behind Bryson's bill and obtained a hearing before a house judiciary subcommittee early this year. They argued that weekend absenteeism was caused largely by "weekend spees and payday parties."

Bryson said the fight will be renewed early in the new congress.

gress which convenes January 3. "We intend to make a fight to the finish and to obtain a vote in the house," he said.

Youth Shoots Self In Hunt Accident

EUGENE, Nov. 25 (AP)—Sixteen-year-old Floyd E. Jones, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. Jones of Eugene, died Friday after shooting himself accidentally with his own 12-gauge, single-barrel shotgun.

Hunting with a companion, 13-year-old Leo Moller, young Jones slipped on a log and the gun discharged when the trigger caught on some loose bark as he fell. The full force of the shot penetrated his chest, puncturing the right lung. He was dead before his duck-hunting companion returned with help.

From Dunsault—Mrs. Timothy Murphy of Dunsault is here for the weekend visiting friends and relatives.

From Lake Creek—Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Meyer of Lake Creek, near Medford, are Thanksgiving weekend guests at the home of their niece, Mrs. William Boyer of Alameda.

To Settle the Estate of GLORIA JOHANSON
(Sometimes known as Gloria Alexander,
THE YUKON CLUB
Tulelake, Calif.
WILL BE SOLD TO THE HIGHEST BIDDER
At Private Sale, Dec. 4, 1944 at 10 A. M.

"together with lease on said premises, and all furniture, fixtures and personal property incidental thereof, save and except stock in trade which will be sold to successful bidder at invoice on day of confirmation."

At least 10% of bid must be paid at time of sale, balance on confirmation of sale by Superior Court of California.

Bids must be in writing and will be received at The Yukon Club, Tulelake, Calif., up to time of sale.

MARIE J. SAGERORN,
Administratrix of Said Estate.

Allen Adding Machines
Friden Calculators
Royal Typewriters
Desks - Chairs - Files

For those hard-to-get items
PIONEER PRINTING AND STATIONERY CO.
124 So. 9th Klamath Falls