NEED FOR REALITY IN EDUCATION TOLD

The need for reality in education was emphasized by U. S. Senator-elect Wayne L. Morse in a talk at the annual parents and patrons night at Klamath Union high school Monday evening.

Senator-elect Morse told how he believes education should fit into political and economic democracy in America, and said that he would be found to be a friend of constructive education in his service in the senate. The capella choir, directed by Andrew Loney, presented four numbers before the large audience in the auditorium. Mrs. Eva Burkhalter of the high school faculty welcomed the visitors to the Parents and Patrons club.

After the general meeting, parents visited various school rooms where they met and talked with instructors. Refreshments were served. Principal Stanley Woodruff gave a welcoming talk, and Walter Eschebeck of the high school staff presided.

MERRILL BAZAAR SET FOR SATURDAY

MERRILL—One of the largest affairs of the winter, the annual St. Augustine's Altar society bazaar, card party and program, is scheduled to take place, Saturday, December 2, in the Merrill community hall.

Aprons, cooked foods and fancy work will be sold at the bazaar and the card party in the afternoon is open to the public. Both bridge and pinocle will be played. At 6 p. m. there will be a chicken dinner served in the downstairs dining room and the public is also invited to take part. Mrs. E. M. Hammond and Mrs. Jess Dieter are chairmen of the dinner.

A program of games and entertainment is planned for the evening. Mrs. Dan Barry is president of the Altar society. The three groups, Merrill, Mallin and Tulciak, are cooperating to make the affair a success.

Navy Urges Men to Sign For Radar

Broadening its search for men possessing basic aptitudes fitting them for training in radar, the U. S. navy is urging all men entering the navy either as enlistees from the 17-year-old group or as inductees from the selective service age group who have at least one year of high school algebra, to take the navy's Eddy test for radar training.

This was announced by Recruiting Specialist Dan Schreiber of the Klamath Falls navy recruiting station, who said it is likely that many men with such a background may qualify for radar training, leading to quick advancement in naval service as well as to opportunities in the postwar field of electronics.

Millions Switch To Mutton Suet Idea For Chest Colds

Quickly Relieves Children's Colds, Coughs, Loosens Phlegm. Many mothers all over America are switching to this idea of getting fast relief for these chest cold miseries. They are simply following Grandma. For years she counted on mutton suet to help carry her home medication to do its pain-easing work on nerve ends in the skin. No wonder so many more now welcome Grandma's idea as improved by science—Penetro, with its multi-medicated formula in a base containing mutton suet—that acts both as counter-irritant and pain-reliever when you spread it on, and as a soothing aromatic when breathed in. And so today Penetro hurries along never help in the old reliable way—help that eases painful misery, lessens coughing, loosens phlegm, soothes chest rawness—so that you can rest more comfortably and give nature a chance to restore vitality. That's why millions are switching to Penetro today—why druggists are recommending it. 25c double supply 50c. For all your family's chest cold miseries, be sure you get white, easy-to-use Penetro.

Italian Pistol Stolen From Home

An Italian pistol, a Breata of 7.65 calibre, has been stolen from the residence of Mrs. Alice G. Settle, 319 Washington, and she has asked assistance of The Herald and News in locating the gun. The Breata was brought home by Mrs. Settle's son, John Joseph O'Rourke, recently discharged from the navy. Small boys supposedly broke into the house, took the gun and left seven shells in a Red Cross case. Mrs. Settle would be happy to have the gun returned to her as it is a valuable keepsake.

Mailing Scale Needed At Klamath USO

A mailing scale is needed, and badly, at USO. The service center announced Tuesday that all that stands between the USO club and parcel post mailing service for military personnel is a scale. After scouring Klamath Falls, Gregory Foley, USO director, has been unable to locate a scale. If there is one available, either to rent or lend, please call USO at once.

Capt. John Beaskey Wounded In Action
