

Morse Blames GOP Defeat On Failure To Impress Labor

PORTLAND, Nov. 30 (AP)—Sen. Wayne L. Morse blames the republican defeat upon the GOP

failure to convince labor it will get a "square deal" from the party. The newly-elected republican congressman told the Oregon Republican club's Multnomah chapter here yesterday that "You are not going to win labor votes by slapping labor in the face, by calling names or slinging mud." Morse declared that the public lacks faith in the GOP ability to march forward with present social trends and urged his party to recognize the rights of the "common man." He severely criticized measures restricting labor's right to organize. The beaver, fairly plentiful in the southern valleys of Norway, was saved from extinction by government restrictions against killing.

Alaskan Newspaper History Made

ANCHORAGE, Alaska, Nov. 30 (AP)—Alaskan newspaper history was made here yesterday when for the first time in the territory's journalistic record a telegraphically transmitted news picture was reproduced in the Anchorage Times along with a story about the event. The picture, on the Times front page, was of the launching of the S. S. Anchorage Victory at Richmond, Calif., along with an Associated Press story of the ceremony slightly more than 24 hours after the event took place. The picture was transmitted over army signal corps facilities through special arrangement with the army.

TO BE INSTALLED
PORTLAND, Nov. 30 (AP)—James Poyner, Hillsboro, will be installed as president of the Oregon State Teachers' association council meetings Friday and Saturday. More than 200 teachers are expected to attend.
