Bubonic Plague Not Menace to Oregon

PORTLAND, Nov. 30 (AP)—Dr. Frederick D. Stricker, state health officer, said today that bubonic plague does not threaten any Oregon town even though the Tacoma, Wash. port has been termed "plague infested" and Portland has hired a rodent-control expert.

He stated that only six cases of the disease were reported in the United States the past three years, all of them in California's Siskiyou county.

ODD JOB
A man in Cheltenham, England, makes his living by mending eggshells, which are in great demand by collectors from all parts of the world.

BENEFIT BRIDGE PLANS COMPLETED

Plans are now complete for the annual benefit bridge party sponsored by the Lioness club Saturday night at 8 o'clock in the Willard hotel. Reservations may be made with the chairman, Mrs. Lester Finley.

Each year the Lioness club arranges this party and all proceeds go into their eye conservation fund, used to provide needy children with eye correction, treatment and glasses. It is a worthwhile project and support of the community is asked by members of the Lioness club. The public is invited. Tea and coffee will be served following cards.

A DIVIDED HEART

"Whatsoever thy hand findeth to do, do it with thy might" (Ecc. 9:10). No one respects a man with a divided heart. Regardless of his station in life he is a misfit—an outcast. If a man is going to serve the Devil why not do it wholeheartedly? If he is determined to serve the Lord why not do that with all the heart? Jesus said, "Ye cannot serve God and mammon."

Some people have just enough religion to make them miserable. They are not completely weaned from the pleasures of sin and so there is a constant temptation for them to go with the crowd. They also know that to be saved they must live a consecrated, clean Christian life. They have not decided to completely forsake sin, nor have they determined to obey all the commandments of the Lord. This type of person is a misfit in the world of sin, and is certainly a misfit in the kingdom of our Lord.

Not many people drink lukewarm water. We like our drinks either cold or hot. God would rather we be wholehearted in our righteousness or in our wickedness. In Revelation 3:15, 16, speaking to the church at Laodicea, He says, "I know thy works, that thou art neither cold nor hot; I would thou wert cold or hot. So because thou art lukewarm, and neither hot nor cold, I will spew thee out of my mouth."

Oh! for more men and women of firm, unflinching faith in our Lord who can say with the psalmist David, "My heart is fixed on Thee, O God. My heart is fixed."

—RAYMOND I. GIBBS, Evangelist.
