 counter-reprisals against French prisoners of war in Germany could be taken as a result of such a step.
 According to an American message dated Strasbourg, November 30, Gen. LeClerc has ordered bills to be posted over Strasbourg announcing that every French soldier killed by a Franc-tireur, five German prisoners would be executed.
 These hostages, if necessary, could be taken from the ranks of German soldiers taken prisoners of war by Gen. LeClerc's division.
 The German H. Q. has now issued this declaration:
 "Many hundreds of thousands of French prisoners of war and other persons of French nationality are in German hands. If Gen. LeClerc and his commander, Gen. Gaule, mean to introduce a system of reprisals in defiance of international law, and make German nationals and German prisoners of war its victims, we these two generals should now that the matter will not rest there, but that Germany will resort to the most energetic counter-reprisals and that the victims of these counter-reprisals will be the Frenchmen of Germany."

Indians Advance Against Slight Nazi Resistance

ROME, Dec. 1 (AP)—Troops of a fifth army Indian division moved forward today along the Florence-Faenza road against only light resistance and reconnaissance reports indicated the enemy was withdrawing from the mountains in that area to the Po valley.
 The German move apparently was to straighten out a bulge in his line between Bologna and Faenza.
 On the eighth army front there was no change in positions. Allied troops still were engaged in heavy fighting around Alberto, northeast of Faenza.
 Southwest of Faenza, patrols found the Germans still dug in on high ground behind the Lamone river.

 strength along the Roer and Inde rivers for a distance of 15 to 20 miles northwest of Duren when Hodges' men launched their attack for a similar footing along the stream southwest of Duren.
 Lt. Gen. George S. Patton's U. S. third army surged up to Saar on a front of at least 15 miles, solid against the Siegfried line. His 10th armored division chased the Germans across the Saar river at Metz.
 The ninth army captured Weiz and seized three-fourths of the hamlet of Beec as it drew a fight around the Roer river town of Linnich, on the road to the Rhineland city of Munchen Gladbach.

WINTER WEATHER USHERS IN MONTH

 snow was reported early Friday on the Greensprings with snow still falling. A similar report came in from Quartz mountain on the Lakeview highway.
 There was some snow falling in Klamath Falls Friday, but a blanket some seven inches deep covered the Marine Barracks plant, 800 feet higher than town.

Teapot Dome Principal Dies

EL PASO, Tex., Dec. 1 (AP)—Albert B. Fall, 83, secretary of the interior under the Harding administration, died here yesterday.
 He was one of the central figures in the Teapot Dome scandal in the 1920's.
 Fall had been ill for years. He had been confined here in William Beaumont general hospital from 1935 to 1938, and in Hotel Dieu, Catholic hospital where he died at 5:30 p. m., yesterday, since 1942.

 Kalinovsky's troops penetrated 10 miles northeast of Eger and 25 miles from the central Slovakian frontier.
 Using captured Pecs, in southwestern Hungary, as a base, Russian and Yugoslav partisan forces were driving northward toward one of the main railways which the Germans use to supply their forces of occupation at Zagreb, in northern Yugoslavia.

 guarantee and said it had found grounds for criticism of Helms.
 The surplus property board was created to handle disposal of $100,000,000 in war surplus.
 Taft told a reporter:
 "We do not think these men are qualified. The surplus property disposal legislation was passed to take care of a tremendous job. The board should be made up of outstanding men, not some lame duck who has been rejected by the people of his own state."

 scene was Mrs. Delphine De Bron, a trained nurse. She rendered first aid to many of the injured passengers and TWA officials credited her with possibly saving the life of Stewardess Donna Marr. Mrs. De Bron, assisted by her daughter, Mrs. Jeanette Morrison, 19, applied a tourniquet to Miss Marr's leg.
 Arthur W. Carroll, a merchant seaman of Seattle suffered only from shock.
 Police said the ground was soft from recent rains and that fact may have accounted for the comparatively low death toll. The plane was reported to have been on the radio beam and the TWA said it was in contact with the terminal minutes before the crash.

MERCHANTS EYE RECORD SHOPPING

 beginning of a set "Christmas opening." This year, stuff arrives daily and seems to be caught up by eager buyers as quickly as it is priced. One merchant reported an order sent out last January, arriving Friday.
 There will be no spurge of downtown holiday decoration this year, principally because merchants are vitally interested in the success of the 6th War Loan and are devoting their efforts toward that end. Decorations of the fabulous "silver and gold" variety seen here in years past, are unobtainable.

Well in Hand
 The help situation seemed fairly well under control, one report assured. A number of service men's wives, living in Klamath Falls while their husbands are at nearby installations, are assisting in stores.
 Noticeable were the number of service men doing their shopping early, sending out gifts to folks back home. Stores were cooperating in getting the gifts wrapped as nicely as possible, this too in the fact of gift paper shortage.

"Amazing Speech"
 "After all the social amenities had been disposed of and the refreshments had been served, the generalissimo arose and made an amazing speech. "He revealed to the guests—who, mind you, hadn't known until this moment what was the occasion for the gathering—that he and Madame were very well aware of all the ugly rumors that were being whispered behind their backs.

"He even referred specifically to the ugliest rumor of them all: to the effect that he had infuriated Madame by taking unto himself a beautiful 16-year-old girl as a concubine.
 "He denied everything. And he specifically denied the report about the concubine. Even if he had been inclined to take a concubine—and he indicated he hadn't been—he couldn't have done so, he asserted, because of his position. To jeopardize his reputation and trust in such a way, he said, might prove equivalent to a betrayal of his country."
